	OR: Articles 29-30 (1); Institutions (1); Language (1); Equality (1); Unity (1).	1+1+1+1+1

Mistakes to avoid:

- Treating a resident as a citizen; a resident lives in a place, whereas a citizen has legal membership. Citizenship cannot be bought.
- Listing seven Fundamental Rights; the Constitution lists six categories (the Right to Property is no longer one).
- Misplacing articles: 14-18 Equality (17 untouchability), 19 Freedoms, 21 Life and liberty, 21A Education, 23-24 Exploitation, 25-28 Religion, 29-30 Cultural and Educational, 32 Remedies.
- Writing that Fundamental Duties came with the Constitution in 1950; they were added in 1976 (Article 51A), and the 11th duty in 2002.
- Confusing equality (same treatment) with equity (support according to need), and discrimination with reasonable differences.
- Treating freedoms as absolute; Article 19 freedoms carry reasonable restrictions to protect others and public order.

Evaluator's note: Award step marks as shown; accept any correct alternative method. In internal-choice questions, evaluate only the option attempted. Deduct up to ½ mark for missing units or figures where required.
