READING COMPREHENSION — Marks 30

15. Read the passage carefully and answer the questions that follow. [5]

The Colours of Our Country

India is like a big garden with flowers of many colours. In Rajasthan, men wear bright turbans and women wear lehengas with mirror work. In Kerala, people enjoy a feast on banana leaves during Onam. In Punjab, farmers dance the bhangra to welcome the new crop at Baisakhi, and in Assam, the Bihu dance fills the villages with joy. We speak many languages, eat different foods and follow different customs. Yet, when the tricolour is raised on Independence Day, we all stand together with pride. A teacher once told her class that a rainbow looks beautiful because it has many colours. In the same way, India looks beautiful because of its many cultures. We should respect every language and festival, and never laugh at anyone's dress or food.

(i) What do the men and women of Rajasthan wear, according to the passage? 2

Ans. Men wear bright turbans and women wear lehengas with mirror work.

(ii) What do people of Kerala enjoy during Onam? 2

(ii) What should we never do, and what should we do? 2

Ans. We should never laugh at anyone's dress or food; we should respect every language and festival.

(iii) Write the plural form of language. 1

Ans. languages

18. Read the passage carefully and answer the questions that follow. [5]

Kaalu the Crow

In a green forest lived a crow named Kaalu. He was clever, but he was also very selfish. Every day he collected seeds and hid them in a hole in an old tree. When the sparrows asked him for a few seeds, Kaalu shouted, "Go away! These are all mine!" One summer, a heavy storm broke the tree and the rain washed all the seeds away. Kaalu was left with nothing. He sat on a branch, feeling hungry and sad. The sparrows saw him and felt sorry. They flew to him with a few seeds each and put them before him. Kaalu was ashamed. "I did not share with you, yet you are sharing with me," he said. From that day, he never hid food again. He shared everything with his friends, and he was never lonely.

(i) Where did Kaalu keep the seeds he collected? 2

Ans. He hid them in a hole in an old tree.

(ii) What did Kaalu say when the sparrows asked for some seeds? 2
