THE MASTERMIND COACHING CLASSES

CBSE / RBSE • NURSERY – CLASS XII • JAIPUR

Road No. 5, VKIA, Jaipur — 9887258679

ANSWER KEY & MARKING SCHEME SET 1

Chapter 9: The Boy Who Broke the Bank | Class 8 English_Gulmohar | Maximum Marks: 40

SECTION — A (Objective Type) — Answers — 10 × 1 = 10

Q.	Correct Option	Brief Reasoning
1	(c) he has not been paid his regular salary	Para 3: his pay is overdue for nearly two months.
2	(a) without enough money to pay what has been borrowed	A bankrupt cannot repay what he owes.
3	(b) wise enough to see what would happen in the future	They said they had withdrawn money in time.
4	(b) a washerman's son delivering pressed clothes	He is on his delivery round with a bundle of clothes.
5	(c) his neighbour has one	He then calls out to Faiz Hussain, the barber next door.
6	(a) He had fled the country	Para 21: one said he had fled the state, another the country.
7	(a) unorganised and careless	The margin gloss gives 'unorganised and careless'.
8	(b) was startled by the news about the bank	He was so startled that his hand shook.
9	(a) gone mad	Everyone seemed to have gone mad.
10	(a) kind and helpful	He tries to help his friend although it was not needed.

SECTION — B (Very Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 2 = 8

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
11	His salary had not been paid for nearly two months (1) and he was not even getting a raise of five rupees (1).	1+1
12	He called out to Faiz Hussain, the barber next door (1), advising him to withdraw his money while there was still time (1).	1+1
13	Clerks had been paid (1) and only some part-time workers were late because the clerk handling payments was ill (1).	1+1
14	He told her about Nathu, who was looking for work (1), which shows his wish to help his friend (1).	1+1

SECTION — C (Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 3 = 12

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
15	Nathu sweeps the bank's steps carelessly and bangs his pan on the dustbin (1). He grumbles because he has not been paid regularly (1). He is a poor, dissatisfied worker who wants to leave (1).	1+1+1
16	It spread like a forest fire from shop to shop (1). The paan-seller, tailor, jeweller and a beggar all heard it (1). Men stood in groups talking and speculating (1).	1+1+1
17	He was horrified to see refuse and broken glass (1). He cursed the hooligans (1). He complained that bad pay was now joined by more work (1).	1+1+1
	OR: Sitaram offers to look out for a job though not asked (1). He tells a customer about Nathu (1). We learn that real friends help without being asked (1).	1+1+1
18	The town seldom had a crisis (1). People feared losing their savings (1). Rumour and panic made everyone act without thinking (1).	1+1+1
	OR: Nathu's small complaint set the rumour off (1). He is the last to learn the bank is 'bankrupt' (1). He is amazed at the collapse without knowing he caused it (1).	1+1+1

SECTION — D (Long Answer) — Answers — 2 × 5 = 10

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
19	Nathu complains of unpaid wages to Sitaram (1). Sitaram tells Mrs Prakash (1). She tells Mrs Bhushan, who tells Jugal Kishore (1). Kishore warns Faiz Hussain, whose customer phones and runs to withdraw money (1). The news spreads through the bazaar and a crowd gathers at the bank (1).	2+2+1
	OR: Headline (1). Place, time and cause: rumour of collapse (1). Crowd behaviour and the broken window (1). Manager's statement and the police action (1). A conclusion mentioning the rumour was baseless (1).	2+2+1
20	A poor sweeper-boy who grumbles about delayed pay (1). Careless in his work (1). Simple and innocent: unaware he started a rumour (1). Determined to get his pay (1). Comic figure who gains the reader's sympathy (1).	2+2+1

	OR: Rumour gets bigger with each person (1). Customer with half-shaved neck runs to phone (1). Absurd rumours about the Seth (1). Mischief-makers with no money join the crowd (1). Nathu's final puzzlement is funny because the reader knows the truth (1).	2+2+1

Evaluator's note: Award step marks as shown; accept any correct alternative method. In internal-choice questions, evaluate only the option attempted. Deduct up to ½ mark for missing units or figures where required.

MASTERMIND

ANSWER KEY & MARKING SCHEME SET 2

Chapter 9: The Boy Who Broke the Bank | Class 8 English_Gulmohar | Maximum Marks: 40

SECTION — A (Objective Type) — Answers — 10 × 1 = 10

Q.	Correct Option	Brief Reasoning
1	(c) he leaped out of his chair with one side of his neck still unshorn	He ran off to telephone even though only half the haircut was done.
2	(b) the clerk who handles their payments was on sick leave	Not a shortage of money.
3	(b) Sitaram, who delivers her washing	Sitaram mentions Nathu's unpaid salary while at her house.
4	(b) there was a telephone there	He wanted to ring Seth Govind Ram.
5	(d) cash available for immediate use	As glossed in the margin.
6	(d) a movement of the shoulders showing he does not know or care	As glossed in the margin.
7	(c) holidaying in Kashmir	Para 18: the Seth was not at home but holidaying in Kashmir.
8	(a) one of the government banks	Para 25.
9	(d) under a tamarind tree near the clock tower	She went on her usual afternoon tour of the cloth shops.
10	(b) the bank had collapsed and the Seth had run away	He told Faiz 'The bird has flown!'

SECTION — B (Very Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 2 = 8

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
11	He leaped up with half his haircut done (1) and ran to a telephone at the general store (1).	1+1
12	People shouted for money and stones were thrown (1) and a brick smashed the plate-glass window (1).	1+1
13	She felt the matter was minor and told him to ask Nathu to see her when free (1) as she needed a sweeper (1).	1+1
14	The news of the bank's collapse spread like wildfire (1) and everyone wanted their money out before it was too late (1).	1+1

SECTION — C (Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 3 = 12

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
15	Mrs Prakash says the bank cannot pay its employees (1). Mrs Bhushan changes it to 'going bankrupt' (1). Jugal Kishore calls it a collapse and warns Faiz Hussain to withdraw money in time (1).	1+1+1
16	Depositors rushed to withdraw money (1). Some boasted of their farsightedness in withdrawing earlier (1). Mischief-makers with no money joined the crowd just for excitement (1).	1+1+1
17	He is surprised that a bank could fail (1). He does not know the collapse is only a rumour (1). The line makes the reader smile at his innocence (1).	1+1+1
	OR: It was exciting news to share (1). She enjoyed being the first to tell it (1). The story shows people love gossip even without checking the facts (1).	1+1+1
18	He denied knowing anything (1). He said clerks had been paid and only some part-timers were late (1). He put down the phone, as he had his own work to do (1).	1+1+1
	OR: It means almost on the point of losing all his money (1). His careless business dealings often brought him to this state (1). That reputation made the rumours easy to believe (1).	1+1+1

SECTION — D (Long Answer) — Answers — 2 × 5 = 10

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
19	Each person adds to the news (1). The town panics and the bank is crowded (1). Violence breaks out and property is damaged (1). Nobody checks facts first (1). Lesson: verify before you believe or pass on news (1).	2+2+1
	OR: Date and opening (1). What you heard from Mrs Prakash (1). What you told your husband and how you exaggerated (1). Your reaction on learning the truth (1). A lesson learnt (1).	2+2+1

20	State your view clearly (1). Nathu's complaint began it, but he told only the truth (1). Sitaram and the women passed on and exaggerated it (1). The town believed it without checking (1). Conclusion: many people share the blame, with the town's panic the greatest cause (1).	2+2+1
	OR: Sitaram is the washerman's son and Nathu the sweeper-boy (1). They chat as equals (1). Sitaram tries to find Nathu a job (1). He teases him lightly at the end (1). Friendship is shown in small kindnesses (1).	2+2+1

Evaluator's note: Award step marks as shown; accept any correct alternative method. In internal-choice questions, evaluate only the option attempted. Deduct up to ½ mark for missing units or figures where required.

MASTERMIND

THE MASTERMIND COACHING CLASSES

CBSE / RBSE • NURSERY – CLASS XII • JAIPUR

Road No. 5, VKIA, Jaipur — 9887258679

ANSWER KEY & MARKING SCHEME SET 3

Chapter 9: The Boy Who Broke the Bank | Class 8 English_Gulmohar | Maximum Marks: 40

SECTION — A (Objective Type) — Answers — 10 × 1 = 10

Q.	Correct Option	Brief Reasoning
1	(a) vaults	They accused him of hiding in the bank's vaults.
2	(d) cannot even pay its employees	She repeats it from the sweeper-boy's complaint.
3	(d) going quickly and directly to withdraw money	As glossed in the margin.
4	(a) the bank had plenty of money and they could withdraw it the next morning	Para 26.
5	(b) 'the bank is going bankrupt'	The rumour grows with each retelling.
6	(c) very fast and out of control	A forest fire spreads quickly and cannot be stopped.
7	(a) the police	They pushed the crowd back until people dispersed.
8	(c) in Jugal Kishore's electrical goods shop	He is sitting under the fan talking with the owner.
9	(b) rarely	Glossed as 'rarely'.
10	(a) he would now have extra work to do	He was already badly paid and now has more to sweep.

SECTION — B (Very Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 2 = 8

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
11	He enjoyed teasing Nathu with the latest news (1) and advised him to wait and demand his pay (1).	1+1
12	'Cannot pay its employees' became 'going bankrupt' (1) and 'two months' grew to 'over three months' (1).	1+1
13	He had fled the state or the country (1) and he was hiding somewhere in town or in the vaults (1).	1+1
14	He sat down on the bottom step (1) to wait for the manager as he was determined to get his pay (1).	1+1

SECTION — C (Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 3 = 12

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
15	The barber is so startled that he nicks the customer's ear (1). The customer runs out with half his neck still unshorn (1). His worry about money matters more to him than his pain, which is comic (1).	1+1+1
16	All the ready money had run out (1). Emergency funds could come only from a government bank (1). It was nearly closing time, so he could only promise payment next morning (1).	1+1+1
17	A small piece of news can grow with each telling (1). People act on rumour without checking facts (1). Innocent people and property can suffer (1).	1+1+1
	OR: It proved the Seth was away in Kashmir (1). He took it to mean the Seth had fled (1). He did not stop to find out the real facts (1).	1+1+1
18	The crowd chanted 'We want it now!' (1). Stones were thrown and the manager retreated indoors (1). A brick smashed the plate-glass window before the police arrived (1).	1+1+1
	OR: He carries the first piece of news to Mrs Prakash (1). He kindly helps Nathu look for work (1). He later teases Nathu about the bankruptcy, unaware of his part in it (1).	1+1+1

SECTION — D (Long Answer) — Answers — 2 × 5 = 10

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
19	Ready money ran out and counters were shut (1). A crowd gathered shouting demands (1). Mischief-makers joined in and stones were thrown (1). The manager retreated, a brick broke a window (1). Police pushed the crowd back until people dispersed (1).	2+2+1
	OR: The bank had not failed; only rumour spread (1). People feared losing money (1). The ready money ran out only because everyone demanded it at once (1). Fear turned a rumour into reality (1). Moral: panic can destroy even a sound bank (1).	2+2+1
20	No: people think only about their own money (1). Nobody cares about unpaid wages of workers (1). Sitaram is the exception (1). A bank collapse would hurt workers like Nathu more than a rich Seth (1). They have no savings to fall back on (1).	2+2+1

	OR: Greeting and introduction (1). Example from the story (1). Harm done by false news (1). How to check facts (1). Closing appeal (1).	2+2+1

Evaluator's note: Award step marks as shown; accept any correct alternative method. In internal-choice questions, evaluate only the option attempted. Deduct up to ½ mark for missing units or figures where required.

MASTERMIND