THE MASTERMIND COACHING CLASSES

CBSE / RBSE • NURSERY – CLASS XII • JAIPUR

Road No. 5, VKIA, Jaipur — 9887258679

ANSWER KEY & MARKING SCHEME SET 1

Chapter 9: The Boy Who Broke the Bank | Class 8 English_Gulmohar | Maximum Marks: 40

SECTION — A (Objective Type) — Answers — 10 × 1 = 10

Q.	Correct Option	Brief Reasoning
1	(b) dissatisfied and resentful	His anger over unpaid wages shows in his work.
2	(d) spread from person to person	Glossed as spread to many people.
3	(b) A brick was hurled through the air.	Subject receives the action.
4	(c) friendly and good-humoured	He jokes about the refused five-rupee raise.
5	(a) The news spread through the bazaar with the rapidity of a forest fire.	The simile conveys speed.
6	(c) Sitaram said that he would be on the lookout for a job for him.	Will becomes would and pronouns shift.
7	(a) She accepts a servant's complaint as news without checking it	She treats it as gossip to share.
8	(d) about to happen very soon	Glossed in the margin.
9	(c) The town seldom had a crisis.	Seldom already means rarely.
10	(d) an unfounded assumption	She jumps from one unpaid sweeper to all unpaid.

SECTION — B (Very Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 2 = 8

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
11	He does not know the reason (1) and says only what seems likely, that they must be short of money (1).	1+1
12	He was already known for haphazard dealings (1) and being away on holiday looked like running away (1).	1+1
13	To show how others use a crisis for noise and trouble (1) without having any stake in it (1).	1+1
14	She treats the matter lightly (1) and is more interested in getting a sweeper than in the bank's trouble (1).	1+1

SECTION — C (Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 3 = 12

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
15	It is a small local bank (1). The Seth's careless dealings had brought him near ruin (1). This prepares the reader for people's readiness to believe the rumour (1).	1+1+1
16	The town is small and seldom has a crisis (1). So any news causes a stir (1). People talk, speculate and rush about without verifying (1).	1+1+1
17	Mrs Bhushan said that she did not know what was happening to that town (1). Present tense changes to past tense (1). 'This' changes to 'that' (1).	1+1+1
	OR: He sympathised with his friend's trouble (1). He saw a chance when he overheard a woman needing a sweeper (1). He is a naturally kind, cheerful person (1).	1+1+1
18	The clerk stays calm and gives facts (1). The townspeople are panicky and talk wildly (1). The clerk's patience contrasts with their madness (1).	1+1+1
	OR: The window was smashed with a brick by a crowd (1). The object becomes the subject (1). The verb takes the form 'was smashed' (1).	1+1+1

SECTION — D (Long Answer) — Answers — 2 × 5 = 10

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
19	Mrs Prakash and Mrs Bhushan exaggerate (1). The barber and customer panic (1). The Seth is on holiday while the town thinks he has fled (1). The crowd riots over a non-event (1). Nathu is the last to understand (1).	2+2+1
	OR: Format and address (1). Introduction using the bank incident (1). Harm caused (1). Suggestions to check facts (1). Closing (1).	2+2+1
20	A small complaint by Nathu (1). A chain of gossipers add details (1). The customer's telephone call and run to withdraw money (1). Crowds, speculation and the crowd at the bank (1). Stones, brick, police and finally order (1).	2+2+1
	OR: No rush to the bank (1). No mischief-makers (1). No damage or police (1). The comedy and theme would be lost (1). The moral about rumour would not be shown (1).	2+2+1

Evaluator's note: Award step marks as shown; accept any correct alternative method. In internal-choice questions, evaluate only the option attempted. Deduct up to ½ mark for missing units or figures where required.

MASTERMIND

ANSWER KEY & MARKING SCHEME SET 2

Chapter 9: The Boy Who Broke the Bank | Class 8 English_Gulmohar | Maximum Marks: 40

SECTION — A (Objective Type) — Answers — 10 × 1 = 10

Q.	Correct Option	Brief Reasoning
1	(a) guessing without knowing the facts	As glossed.
2	(b) shameful	Margin: bad behaviour to feel ashamed of.
3	(c) careless exaggeration	She adds details she cannot know.
4	(d) people were rushing about in great excitement	Frenzy = great excitement or anxiety.
5	(d) went off in different directions	Glossed in the margin.
6	(a) the shock of the news about the bank	The rumour startled him.
7	(c) the bank had not really failed	They claimed wisdom in avoiding a non-event.
8	(b) synonyms	Both mean violent troublemakers.
9	(d) the cut as well as worry about his money	Pain and awful news together.
10	(c) He explained that only some part-timers were paid late	He gave a sensible explanation.

SECTION — B (Very Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 2 = 8

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
11	It spread very fast (1) and no one could stop it (1).	1+1
12	He wonders how the bank could collapse (1) without knowing that his own complaint began the rumour (1).	1+1
13	Each person adds new, bigger details (1), from two months unpaid to three, and from a sweeper to all staff (1).	1+1
14	He says clerks were paid (1) and gives a reasonable reason for late payment to part-timers (1).	1+1

SECTION — C (Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 3 = 12

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
15	Each conversation moves the news to a new person (1). The wording becomes stronger each time (1). Direct speech makes the exaggeration easy to compare (1).	1+1+1
16	The clerk says only some part-timers were paid late (1). The bank ran out of ready money only after everyone asked for it (1). The manager said it had plenty of money (1).	1+1+1
17	Nathu was angry because he had not been paid (1). 'Because' joins cause and effect (1). The subordinate clause gives the reason (1).	1+1+1
	OR: She jumps to a harsh opinion without evidence (1). She is quick to judge and gossip (1). She sets the rumour on a bigger path (1).	1+1+1
18	The crowd became violent (1). They climbed the steps and pushed people back (1). People dispersed, promising to return in the morning (1).	1+1+1
	OR: Collapse, protest, distress and speculation (1). The bank's collapse was only a rumour (1). The forms are nouns used for the action or state (1).	1+1+1

SECTION — D (Long Answer) — Answers — 2 × 5 = 10

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
19	State the character chosen (1). Her eagerness to share news (1). Her tendency to exaggerate (1). Her failure to check facts (1). The consequences of such talk (1).	2+2+1
	OR: Date and heading (1). The crowd and demand for money (1). The stones and broken window (1). Your fear and helplessness (1). Plan for the next morning (1).	2+2+1
20	Nathu starts the chain without knowing (1). Customers boast of farsightedness for a non-event (1). The Seth is far away when he is called a fugitive (1). Sitaram jokes about bankruptcy to its source (1). The title itself is ironic (1).	2+2+1
	OR: Nathu is sulky and complaining (1). Sitaram is cheerful and helpful (1). Nathu works carelessly; Sitaram carries his bundle patiently (1). Both are poor and hard-working in their way (1). Their friendship connects the story (1).	2+2+1 attempted. Deduct up to ½ mark for missing units or figures where required.

Evaluator's note: Award step marks as shown; accept any correct alternative method. In internal-choice questions, evaluate only the option

MASTERMIND

ANSWER KEY & MARKING SCHEME SET 3

Chapter 9: The Boy Who Broke the Bank | Class 8 English_Gulmohar | Maximum Marks: 40

SECTION — A (Objective Type) — Answers — 10 × 1 = 10

Q.	Correct Option	Brief Reasoning
1	(b) innocently puzzled and ironic	Nathu does not know his role.
2	(b) valued his money above his comfort	He did not wait for the haircut to finish.
3	(c) impatient	He is irritated by the callers.
4	(c) the one who started the news is the one most surprised by it	Nathu's complaint led to the collapse of the rumour-bank.
5	(b) the person has escaped or gone away	It is an idiom for a person who has fled.
6	(c) a crowd gives chance for noise and trouble without any risk	They had nothing to lose.
7	(b) Nathu 'broke' it only through an innocent complaint	A rumour, not a robbery, ruined the bank's peace.
8	(a) treated the Seth's absence as proof of flight	A holiday is a simple explanation he did not consider.
9	(b) the bank had run out of ready money that day	The run on the bank used up cash.
10	(d) A lie runs while truth is still putting on its shoes	False news travels faster than facts.

SECTION — B (Very Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 2 = 8

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
11	He cheerfully tells Nathu about a bankruptcy (1) that is only a rumour that started from Nathu's own words (1).	1+1
12	He had deposits in the bank (1) and ran with his hair half-cut to save his money (1).	1+1
13	They were in a state of panic (1) and preferred the exciting rumour to the plain truth (1).	1+1
14	'the rapidity of a forest fire' (1) and 'half the town has gone mad' (1).	1+1

SECTION — C (Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 3 = 12

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
15	The barber is startled at overhearing (1). He nicks the ear and the customer yelps (1). The man runs out half-shaven, more worried about his money than his pain (1).	1+1+1
16	Some people join just for excitement (1). They add to the noise and violence (1). Crowds are easily swept up by rumours (1).	1+1+1
17	Her haphazard packing caused delays (1). The imminent storm made us hurry (1). The crowd dispersed after the police came (1).	1+1+1
	OR: He phoned and found the Seth away (1). He read it as proof of flight (1). He did not think of any ordinary reason, such as a holiday (1).	1+1+1
18	They left refuse and broken glass for him to clear (1). He was already badly paid, so more work is unfair (1). His anger is understandable and comic at the same time (1).	1+1+1
	OR: He demands what he has earned (1). He is persistent in waiting for his pay (1). But we should also verify facts, which he failed to do (1).	1+1+1

SECTION — D (Long Answer) — Answers — 2 × 5 = 10

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
19	State your opinion (1). They believed the rumour without checking (1). They shouted, threw stones and broke the window (1). Some joined only for mischief (1). A responsible town would have asked the manager or clerk first (1).	2+2+1
	OR: Depositors panic and rush to withdraw (1). Workers like Nathu are not cared for (1). The bank loses ready money and its window (1). The manager is harassed (1). The whole town is in frenzy (1).	2+2+1
20	Correct format with names (1). Mrs Prakash tells the news (1). Mrs Bhushan reacts and exaggerates (1). They discuss the bank's employees (1). A closing remark (1).	2+2+1
	OR: Opening setting and character (1). A small piece of news begins (1). It spreads and grows (1). The consequences (1). A lesson at the end (1).	2+2+1

Evaluator's note: Award step marks as shown; accept any correct alternative method. In internal-choice questions, evaluate only the option attempted. Deduct up to ½ mark for missing units or figures where required.

MASTERMIND