THE MASTERMIND COACHING CLASSES

CBSE / RBSE • NURSERY – CLASS XII • JAIPUR

Road No. 5, VKIA, Jaipur — 9887258679

ANSWER KEY & MARKING SCHEME SET 1

Chapter 9: The Boy Who Broke the Bank | Class 8 English_Gulmohar | Maximum Marks: 40

SECTION — A (Objective Type) — Answers — 10 × 1 = 10

Q.	Correct Option	Brief Reasoning
1	(b) gently mocking	The reader sees his error and smiles.
2	(a) focus on the action rather than the unnamed throwers	The throwers are an anonymous mob.
3	(a) We walked along the river bank.	River bank is a different noun.
4	(d) preferred his suspicion to the plain fact	A rumour-minded mind rejects simple truth.
5	(b) the chain of whispered news moving closer to the bank	The reader waits to see where it ends.
6	(b) the run on the bank would have been avoided	Trust would have been restored.
7	(d) It adds to the suspicion that the bank is hiding something	People see it as proof the bank was refusing payment.
8	(d) light, humorous and gently satirical	Comic irony runs through.
9	(c) "We want it now!" chanted the people.	Speech marks enclose the words with the exclamation inside.
10	(c) stubborn about a belief without proof	They persisted without facts.

SECTION — B (Very Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 2 = 8

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
11	It links scenes into a chain (1) and builds the sense of a growing, uncontrolled rumour (1).	1+1
12	The clerk and manager state calm facts (1) while the crowd runs on imagination (1).	1+1
13	A raised, angry voice at 'Goondas! Hooligans!' (1) and a tired, bitter tone at 'increase of work' (1).	1+1
14	It makes his panic and speed funnier (1) because we expect an old gentleman to be calm (1).	1+1

SECTION — C (Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 3 = 12

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
15	The words 'pay' and 'bank' recur (1). 'Two months' grows to 'three months' and 'short of money' to 'bankrupt' (1). Escalation creates humour and shows distortion (1).	1+1+1
16	Idiom and simile make the story vivid (1). They give the rumour animal-like energy (1). They add to humour (1).	1+1+1
17	News is checked fact (1). A rumour is unverified talk (1). The bank's 'collapse' was a rumour, though people treated it as news (1).	1+1+1
	OR: Everyone knows everyone (1). News travels fast in a small town (1). With few crises, any event looks serious (1).	1+1+1
18	It ends on Nathu's innocent thought (1). The unfinished sentence leaves the reader to smile (1). It confirms the irony and the title (1).	1+1+1
	OR: 'Mrs Prakash laughed, Well, tell him to come and see me when he's free' (1). Nathu's 'increase of work' complaint at the riot's aftermath (1). The mild tone of each makes the situation funnier (1).	1+1+1

SECTION — D (Long Answer) — Answers — 2 × 5 = 10

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
19	(a) Simile (1). (b) It shows speed and lack of control (1). (c) The list of shops shows the news reaching everyone (1). (d) Circulated means spread among many people (1). (e) The town is small, close and gossipy (1).	2+2+1
	OR: Format (1). Surprise at the rumours (1). Explain his holiday and the bank's real position (1). Request them to trust facts and not gossip (1). Courteous closing (1).	2+2+1
20	(a) People who like trouble (1). (b) For excitement, as they had nothing to lose (1). (c) 'Tried to calm' shows he was a peacemaker (1). (d) Dry, humorous (1). (e) Crowds attract those who add to the noise and damage (1).	2+2+1
	OR: Stays at his post and faces the crowd (1). Helpless as cash runs out (1). Tries to be calm and promises payment (1). Retreats indoors when stones fly (1). Overall: a decent man in an impossible situation (1).	2+2+1

Evaluator's note: Award step marks as shown; accept any correct alternative method. In internal-choice questions, evaluate only the option attempted. Deduct up to ½ mark for missing units or figures where required.

MASTERMIND

THE MASTERMIND COACHING CLASSES

CBSE / RBSE • NURSERY – CLASS XII • JAIPUR

Road No. 5, VKIA, Jaipur — 9887258679

ANSWER KEY & MARKING SCHEME SET 2

Chapter 9: The Boy Who Broke the Bank | Class 8 English_Gulmohar | Maximum Marks: 40

SECTION — A (Objective Type) — Answers — 10 × 1 = 10

Q.	Correct Option	Brief Reasoning
1	(b) human gullibility and love of gossip	The target is the town's readiness to believe.
2	(d) were	Plural subject nearest the verb, past tense.
3	(d) distortion of information through repetition	Each retelling adds more.
4	(a) teasing, though without malice	He waves cheerfully and pedals off.
5	(a) had been smashed	Past perfect passive for an earlier event.
6	(a) a rumour produces the very run on the bank that it predicts	The panic exhausted the bank's ready money.
7	(c) concern for a friend	He acts on his friend's behalf.
8	(c) an unreal past condition	Third conditional.
9	(a) It was made real by the rumour	The run on the bank, not poverty, caused the shortage.
10	(c) He only told the truth about his wages; the exaggeration came from others	His complaint was true; it grew by others' retelling.

SECTION — B (Very Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 2 = 8

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
11	He had real money but no way to meet a sudden demand (1) which shows how fear alone can break a bank (1).	1+1
12	To keep humour and focus on how it spreads (1) and to show the town, not one person, is at fault (1).	1+1
13	Short, quick exchanges of dialogue (1) imitate the speed at which the rumour travels (1).	1+1
14	His grumbling and ignorance make him comic (1) but his unpaid wages and extra work win sympathy (1).	1+1

SECTION — C (Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 3 = 12

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
15	He wanted facts instead of gossip (1). He represents the sensible person (1). Yet the clerk's answer was not enough to calm the town (1).	1+1+1
16	Powerful people such as the Seth are unaffected on holiday (1). Poor workers like Nathu would suffer if the bank were really bankrupt (1). Yet they are ignored by the crowd (1).	1+1+1
17	Check facts from reliable sources (1). Ask before passing on news (1). Calmly listen to those with correct information, like the clerk (1).	1+1+1
	OR: The riot outside the bank (1). People who lacked money still joined (1). A brick through the window shows complete loss of reason (1).	1+1+1
18	The customer said that he would have the rest of his haircut another time (1). 'I'll' changes to 'he would' (1). Time reference stays suitable (1).	1+1+1
	OR: False news spreads fast online like a forest fire (1). People forward messages without checking (1). The story warns that it causes panic and harm (1).	1+1+1

SECTION — D (Long Answer) — Answers — 2 × 5 = 10

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
19	Gossip grows with each telling (1). People panic without checking facts (1). Humorous examples: the half-shaven customer, boasting of farsightedness (1). Mob violence is shown as absurd (1). The writer's gentle satire teaches a lesson (1).	2+2+1
	OR: State a view (1). He demands only what is due (1). He is honest about his anger (1). He waits patiently for his pay (1). Others behave foolishly or violently (1).	2+2+1
20	The clerk says it had no money problem (1). The ready money ran out because of the rush (1). Fear made everyone act at once (1). The manager's promise of money next morning confirms this (1). Moral: fear can break a sound institution (1).	2+2+1

	OR: Introduction with the story (1). Examples of unverified news (1). Consequences: panic, violence, loss (1). The clerk and manager as sources of truth (1). Conclusion with advice for today (1).	2+2+1

Evaluator's note: Award step marks as shown; accept any correct alternative method. In internal-choice questions, evaluate only the option attempted. Deduct up to ½ mark for missing units or figures where required.

MASTERMIND

ANSWER KEY & MARKING SCHEME SET 3

Chapter 9: The Boy Who Broke the Bank | Class 8 English_Gulmohar | Maximum Marks: 40

SECTION — A (Objective Type) — Answers — 10 × 1 = 10

Q.	Correct Option	Brief Reasoning
1	(b) Rumours spread easily and cause real harm when no one checks facts	Central idea.
2	(d) the sarcastic question 'You don't expect me to do his work, do you?'	Sarcasm expresses annoyance.
3	(a) Check the facts before spreading news.	A clear moral from the unit.
4	(a) verb	It names the action.
5	(b) mock the crowd's lack of real cause	It exposes the irrational nature of the mob.
6	(c) a crowd shouting 'We want it now!'	Mob behaviour at the bank.
7	(a) The Seth's business was always very profitable	The story says his dealings were haphazard.
8	(c) tired and anxious	As glossed: tired and anxious.
9	(a) disgraceful	Dis- + graceful gives the opposite sense of graceful.
10	(a) It plants the small seed from which the rumour grows	Narrative cause for what follows.

SECTION — B (Very Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 2 = 8

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
11	They explain hard words such as haphazard or vaults (1) so we can follow tone and meaning without a dictionary (1).	1+1
12	It shows how widely and quickly the rumour spreads (1) and that no part of the bazaar is untouched (1).	1+1
13	The ordinary man stands at the start and end (1) which gives the story a circular, ironic shape (1).	1+1
14	Each person adds something new (1) and people believe an exciting story more readily than a dull fact (1).	1+1

SECTION — C (Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 3 = 12

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
15	He teases without malice (1). He gives true advice to wait and claim money (1). But he is unaware that the rumour is false (1).	1+1+1
16	Startled by the news, Faiz Hussain nicked his customer's ear (1). The participle phrase replaces a clause (1). The subject is the same in both parts (1).	1+1+1
17	Nathu reacts to a true but small fact with anger (1). The customer reacts to an untrue rumour with panic and haste (1). Both are driven by worry about money (1).	1+1+1
	OR: The reader hears the town's thoughts rather than facts (1). The statement 'He had fled the state, said one' reports rumour as speech (1). This makes the town's opinions look absurd (1).	1+1+1
18	had been (1). Third conditional uses had + past participle (1). It refers to an imagined past situation (1).	1+1+1
	OR: Literally, Nathu's complaint started the run that emptied the bank's cash (1). Ironically, he did not break it, a rumour did (1). The title promises a heist and delivers a comedy (1).	1+1+1

SECTION — D (Long Answer) — Answers — 2 × 5 = 10

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
19	Headline and byline (1). Place, date and event summary (1). Voices of people, the manager and the clerk (1). Damage and police action (1). Closing with the reason being rumour (1).	2+2+1
	OR: Format with names (1). One student mentions the false message (1). The other recalls the bank story (1). They decide to check facts and warn others (1). Closing line (1).	2+2+1
20	Cast list and setting (1). Jugal Kishore's call (1). The barber's reaction (1). The customer's panic and exit (1). Sound effects and closing line (1).	2+2+1
	OR: Comic characters and incidents (1). Light, simple language (1). Irony in the title and ending (1). A serious message about rumours and mob violence (1). Result: the reader laughs and also learns (1).	2+2+1

Evaluator's note: Award step marks as shown; accept any correct alternative method. In internal-choice questions, evaluate only the option attempted. Deduct up to ½ mark for missing units or figures where required.

MASTERMIND