ANSWER KEY & MARKING SCHEME SET 1

Chapter 11: Helen Keller (poem) - Langston Hughes | Class 8 English_Gulmohar | Maximum Marks: 40

SECTION — A (Objective Type) — Answers — 10 × 1 = 10

Q.	Correct Option	Brief Reasoning
1	(b) an American writer and activist known for jazz poetry	The side box introduces him as an American writer and activist.
2	(a) the message of the strength of inner power	The last stanza states this.
3	(d) benefiting from her message	The world is a receiver of her gift.
4	(b) African-American literature, art, music and dance	As stated in the author box.
5	(a) to put the focus fully on Keller	The single word gives emphasis to her.
6	(c) true strength lies within the spirit	Inner strength is the theme.
7	(c) in her infancy	She lost sight and hearing as a baby.
8	(d) three	Each of the three stanzas has four lines.
9	(b) reduced inequalities	The page footer links the poem to Reduced Inequalities.
10	(c) inner strength and determination	As given in the introductory box.

SECTION — B (Very Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 2 = 8

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
11	Langston Hughes wrote it (1). He was an American writer and activist who led the Harlem Renaissance (1).	1+1
12	Keller gained control over her own spirit (1) through discipline and effort (1).	1+1
13	It honours Keller's courage (1) and presents her as an inspiration to others (1).	1+1
14	She became deaf and blind in infancy (1) yet completed her education and led the cause of disabled people (1).	1+1

SECTION — C (Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 3 = 12

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
15	She found hope and knowledge in the dark (1). Eyes are not the only way to see (1). Inner vision and will can discover light even without sight (1).	1+1+1
16	It points straight to Keller (1). The pause after it builds expectation (1). It shows she is the poem's only hero (1).	1+1+1
17	First two describe Keller's personal discovery (1). The last turns to the world (1). It shows the benefit others receive (1).	1+1+1
	OR: Her real beauty lay in her spirit (1). Outer looks fade and do not show character (1). Inner beauty such as courage and kindness deserves more value, though appearance need not be despised (1).	1+1+1
18	Short lines are compact and powerful (1). Nothing is wasted, just like inner strength (1). Simple words make the message clear and strong (1).	1+1+1
	OR: It explains a difficult word (1). It prevents misreading as 'door' (1). It helps us see her inner wealth (1).	1+1+1

SECTION — D (Long Answer) — Answers — 2 × 5 = 10

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
19	Stanza 1: in blindness she found a light greater than many see (1+1). Stanza 2: she found inner beauty by mastering her soul (1+1). Stanza 3: the world now receives her message of inner strength (1).	2+2+1
	OR: It honours a disabled woman but speaks to all (1). Every community facing discrimination can draw strength (1). Inner power is a universal quality (1). Students facing difficulties can learn from it (1). Conclusion: the message is universal (1).	2+2+1
20	Inner power can defeat physical limits (1). Keller found light and loveliness within herself (1). Society wrongly judges by outer appearance (1). We should respect and support disabled people (1). Value a person's spirit and abilities (1).	2+2+1
	OR: Follows the structure of short lines (1). Starts with a single word focusing on the person (1). Describes an achievement (1). Ends with a message for the world (1). Simple, original language (1).	2+2+1

Evaluator's note: Award step marks as shown; accept any correct alternative method. In internal-choice questions, evaluate only the option attempted. Deduct up to ½ mark for missing units or figures where required.

MASTERMIND

THE MASTERMIND COACHING CLASSES

CBSE / RBSE • NURSERY – CLASS XII • JAIPUR

Road No. 5, VKIA, Jaipur — 9887258679

ANSWER KEY & MARKING SCHEME SET 2

Chapter 11: Helen Keller (poem) - Langston Hughes | Class 8 English_Gulmohar | Maximum Marks: 40

SECTION — A (Objective Type) — Answers — 10 × 1 = 10

Q.	Correct Option	Brief Reasoning
1	(a) short lines and simple language	Compact lines, simple diction.
2	(d) honours and praises a person	A tribute honours.
3	(b) blindness and the hardships of her life	Dark suggests her disability and difficulties.
4	(a) admiring and respectful	The summary speaks of wonder and admiration.
5	(d) people who can see with their eyes	Many sighted people.
6	(b) knowledge, hope and inner vision	It is a symbol, not a literal light.
7	(b) positivity and determination	Quoted in the unit's summary.
8	(c) dark and light	Dark vs light.
9	(a) greater than what many sighted people possess	Her inner vision outshone physical sight.
10	(c) disabled people all over the world	She worked for the disabled worldwide.

SECTION — B (Very Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 2 = 8

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
11	It means a store of wealth (1); here it stands for her inner riches of strength and wisdom (1).	1+1
12	Very short lines (1) and simple language (1).	1+1
13	It symbolises knowledge and hope (1) that Keller found despite the darkness of blindness (1).	1+1
14	The message of the strength of inner power (1), which can overcome any hardship (1).	1+1

SECTION — C (Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 3 = 12

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
15	Patience (1). Self-discipline and determination (1). Positive attitude and courage (1).	1+1+1
16	Brevity gives it force and memorability (1). More words might dilute the focus (1). A longer poem could add detail, but this form suits the message (1).	1+1+1
17	Her life shows triumph over great odds (1). She served disabled people worldwide (1). Her strength of spirit can inspire everyone (1).	1+1+1
	OR: Her life became an example (1). Her leadership helped disabled people everywhere (1). The world received the message of inner strength (1).	1+1+1
18	No, it speaks to all who face hardship (1). Discrimination of any kind can be met with inner strength (1). The message is universal (1).	1+1+1
	OR: Determination (1). Respect for people with disabilities (1). Valuing inner strength over appearance (1).	1+1+1

SECTION — D (Long Answer) — Answers — 2 × 5 = 10

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
19	Dark: blindness, hardship, isolation (1+1). Light: knowledge, hope, inner vision (1+1). Keller turned darkness into light by willpower (1).	2+2+1
	OR: First two: personal discovery (1+1). Last: wider impact on the world (1+1). The movement from self to society gives the poem completeness (1).	2+2+1
20	Hughes: American writer, activist, Harlem Renaissance leader (1+1). Form: short lines and stanzas, simple words (1). Compactness mirrors strength and clarity (1). A plain style makes the tribute sincere (1).	2+2+1
	OR: Introduce Keller and her disability (1). Her education and achievements (1). Qualities: determination, positivity (1). Lesson for your own life (1). Conclusion (1).	2+2+1

Evaluator's note: Award step marks as shown; accept any correct alternative method. In internal-choice questions, evaluate only the option attempted. Deduct up to ½ mark for missing units or figures where required.

ANSWER KEY & MARKING SCHEME SET 3

Chapter 11: Helen Keller (poem) - Langston Hughes | Class 8 English_Gulmohar | Maximum Marks: 40

SECTION — A (Objective Type) — Answers — 10 × 1 = 10

Q.	Correct Option	Brief Reasoning
1	(b) Keller's inner discovery to the message for the world	First two stanzas: her discovery; last: the world's gain.
2	(b) within herself	The line says 'Within herself, found loveliness'.
3	(a) completed formal education	Mentioned in 'Before You Read'.
4	(b) determined	She mastered her soul.
5	(c) control and command over one's own spirit	Mastery here is self-mastery.
6	(c) inner power can overcome physical limits	Central message.
7	(a) Helen Keller	The poem is titled for her.
8	(c) a store of wealth	The margin gloss: here, store of wealth.
9	(b) inner beauty	It comes from within herself.
10	(d) look beyond physical limits and respect inner power	A value-based message.

SECTION — B (Very Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 2 = 8

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
11	Admiring and respectful (1), filled with wonder at Keller's positivity (1).	1+1
12	Her inner light was greater (1) than the sight possessed by many people with eyes (1).	1+1
13	To focus attention on Keller alone (1) and to build admiration through a bold, simple start (1).	1+1
14	It shows a disabled person achieving greatness (1), so abilities should be valued equally (1).	1+1

SECTION — C (Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 3 = 12

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
15	Not money but inner riches (1): strength, courage and a positive spirit (1). She shares it as a message with the world (1).	1+1+1
16	Dark stands for blindness and difficulty (1). Light stands for hope and knowledge (1). The contrast shows her triumph (1).	1+1+1
17	Seeing is more than using the eyes (1). Understanding and hope are forms of sight (1). Keller 'saw' better than many (1).	1+1+1
	OR: Disability does not reduce a person's worth (1). Ability lies in the mind and spirit (1). We should treat everyone with respect and equal chances (1).	1+1+1
18	Both begin with 'She' (1). Both have four lines and describe what she found (1). Both end with praise of her inner qualities (1).	1+1+1
	OR: He admires her greatly (1). He feels wonder at her positivity (1). He wishes others to learn from her (1).	1+1+1

SECTION — D (Long Answer) — Answers — 2 × 5 = 10

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
19	Dower = store of wealth, inner riches (1). Keller became deaf and blind in infancy (1). She completed education (1). She led the cause of disabled people worldwide (1). Her life itself is the message (1).	2+2+1
	OR: Short lines let each word count (1). The pause after 'She' builds feeling (1). Contrast of dark and light (1). Positive, admiring tone (1). Ends with a universal message (1).	2+2+1
20	Keller found loveliness within herself (1+1). It came from mastery of the soul (1). It influenced the whole world (1). Outer looks cannot match that lasting beauty (1).	2+2+1
	OR: Keller was judged by her disability (1). She proved ability depends on spirit (1). Equal opportunity lets such talent grow (1). The poem asks us to respect all (1). Society gains when no one is left behind (1).	2+2+1

Evaluator's note: Award step marks as shown; accept any correct alternative method. In internal-choice questions, evaluate only the option attempted. Deduct up to ½ mark for missing units or figures where required.

MASTERMIND