ANSWER KEY & MARKING SCHEME SET 1

Chapter 11: Helen Keller (poem) - Langston Hughes | Class 8 English_Gulmohar | Maximum Marks: 40

SECTION — A (Objective Type) — Answers — 10 × 1 = 10

Q.	Correct Option	Brief Reasoning
1	(c) inner insight can outshine physical sight	A paradox of sight and blindness.
2	(c) carry the sentence smoothly across lines	The sentence runs on.
3	(a) emotional and respectful	Positive emotion.
4	(d) the one in the dark finds more light than those who see	Blindness yields a brighter inner light.
5	(b) 'She' from the previous line carries over	Stanza-opening 'She'.
6	(a) dark and light	Core imagery.
7	(c) a blind person brings light to a seeing world	Darkness and light together.
8	(a) strength needs no ornament	Compactness reflects power.
9	(b) beauty is only outward	Challenges looks-based judgement.
10	(c) an active, personal achievement	She found it herself.

SECTION — B (Very Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 2 = 8

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
11	A person in darkness finds light (1); this shows that inner insight can exceed physical sight (1).	1+1
12	It values a disabled woman's contribution (1) and urges equal respect regardless of physical limits (1).	1+1
13	Fewer words give each one weight (1) and a sharp end line lingers in memory (1).	1+1
14	Dark and light stand for hardship and hope (1); symbols let a few words convey a whole life (1).	1+1

SECTION — C (Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 3 = 12

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
15	Verb 'found' makes it an achievement (1). It is discovered through the soul's mastery (1). So it is earned by effort, not given (1).	1+1+1
16	Many have eyes but not insight (1). She lacked sight but had insight (1). True perception is of the mind and spirit (1).	1+1+1
17	Found: verb (1). Loveliness: noun (1). Brighter: adjective (comparative) (1).	1+1+1
	OR: Keller's light becomes the world's gain (1). She led the cause of disabled people (1). Inner strength thus serves society (1).	1+1+1
18	Short lines slow the reader (1). Pauses place stress on key words (1). Steady rhythm suits a quiet tribute (1).	1+1+1
	OR: A single word line isolates meaning (1). Example: 'She,' in this poem (1). The reader pauses and attends to the subject (1).	1+1+1

SECTION — D (Long Answer) — Answers — 2 × 5 = 10

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
19	Theme: inner power (1). Imagery: dark and light (1). Form: three short stanzas, simple words (1). Tone: admiring (1). Message: look beyond appearance and limits (1).	2+2+1
	OR: Society may judge disabled people by limits (1). Keller proves inner power (1). The world 'receives' her message (1). Equal respect reduces inequality (1). The poem urges inclusion (1).	2+2+1
20	Light: hope and insight (1+1). Loveliness: inner beauty (1+1). The two together form her dower, which she shares with the world (1).	2+2+1
	OR: Catchy opening (1). Keller's story (1). The poem's message (1). Ways students can build inner strength (1). Conclusion (1).	2+2+1

Evaluator's note: Award step marks as shown; accept any correct alternative method. In internal-choice questions, evaluate only the option attempted. Deduct up to ½ mark for missing units or figures where required.

ANSWER KEY & MARKING SCHEME SET 2

Chapter 11: Helen Keller (poem) - Langston Hughes | Class 8 English_Gulmohar | Maximum Marks: 40

SECTION — A (Objective Type) — Answers — 10 × 1 = 10

Q.	Correct Option	Brief Reasoning
1	(d) people with sight who may lack insight	It implies ordinary perception.
2	(b) Inner power helps us face failure.	Correct abstract usage.
3	(a) self-reliance	Self-reliance.
4	(c) the universal message outweighs the person	Universal ending.
5	(d) She has inspired millions.	Present perfect.
6	(a) less stress on her self-effort	'Own' emphasises independent effort.
7	(a) Light from Within	Inner light.
8	(d) self + mastery	Compound noun.
9	(c) inner qualities she gives to the world	Gloss: store of wealth, here inner riches.
10	(d) everyone faces some form of 'dark' and needs inner strength	Universality.

SECTION — B (Very Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 2 = 8

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
11	Brief suggestion keeps focus on the message (1); readers fill gaps with their own admiration (1).	1+1
12	They share structure: 'She' and 'Found' (1) and both describe inner discovery (1).	1+1
13	It links Keller's past achievement to present benefit (1); her message still reaches us (1).	1+1
14	It shows the world as a grateful beneficiary (1) and presents Keller as a giver (1).	1+1

SECTION — C (Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 3 = 12

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
15	Discovery of light begins the story (1). Beauty within deepens it (1). The world's gain completes the arc (1).	1+1+1
16	Knowing her life deepens admiration (1). Without context, 'dark' and 'light' still work symbolically (1). The poem succeeds at both levels (1).	1+1+1
17	Struggle can lead to discovery (1). Keller's darkness led to light (1). Achievement grows from facing hardship (1).	1+1+1
	OR: Praise appears in stanzas one and two (1). The 'message' of stanza three is the instruction (1). Readers are asked to find their own strength (1).	1+1+1
18	Because Keller mastered her soul despite being blind and deaf, the world learns from her (1). Subordination uses 'because' and 'despite' (1). Main clause: the world learns from her (1).	1+1+1
	OR: Everyone faces challenges (1). The poem shows inner strength can overcome them (1). It encourages perseverance in studies and life (1).	1+1+1

SECTION — D (Long Answer) — Answers — 2 × 5 = 10

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
19	Position stated clearly (1). Evidence from the poem: universal 'inner power' (1). Discrimination exists for many communities (1). Everyone faces some 'dark' (1). Conclusion: it is a universal poem (1).	2+2+1
	OR: Greeting (1). Introduce Keller (1). Short quote and meaning (1). Ways to be inclusive (1). Closing appeal (1).	2+2+1
20	Starts with a single word (1). Short, simple lines (1). Describes an achievement despite difficulty (1). Ends with a message to the world (1). Note explaining the choice (1).	2+2+1
	OR: They turn from person to world (1). They state the message clearly (1). The word 'power' ends on strength (1). They echo the theme of the title (1). They leave a lasting impression (1).	2+2+1

Evaluator's note: Award step marks as shown; accept any correct alternative method. In internal-choice questions, evaluate only the option attempted. Deduct up to ½ mark for missing units or figures where required.

ANSWER KEY & MARKING SCHEME SET 3

Chapter 11: Helen Keller (poem) - Langston Hughes | Class 8 English_Gulmohar | Maximum Marks: 40

SECTION — A (Objective Type) — Answers — 10 × 1 = 10

Q.	Correct Option	Brief Reasoning
1	(d) Keller, who was deaf and blind, became a leader.	Correct relative pronoun.
2	(c) personal admiration to universal inspiration	Widening focus.
3	(a) People should be judged by their inner worth, not their limits	Respect for inner worth.
4	(c) Despite her blindness, she found light.	Despite + noun phrase.
5	(c) 'In the dark' compresses the struggle into a few words	Compact suggestion of difficulty.
6	(b) an admiring observer	The poem is a tribute.
7	(b) The tone is reverent and the mood uplifting	Reverent and uplifting.
8	(c) plain words and short lines	Simple form.
9	(b) it becomes a self-description rather than a tribute	Point of view.
10	(c) respecting people with disabilities and nurturing inner strength	Values.

SECTION — B (Very Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 2 = 8

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
11	It shows dignity comes from within (1) and that inner power can change how the world sees you (1).	1+1
12	It stresses self-effort (1) and shows that her triumph was not a gift of luck (1).	1+1
13	Insight is true sight (1); eyes alone do not make one see (1).	1+1
14	Simple words (1) carry layered ideas about sight, beauty and power (1).	1+1

SECTION — C (Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 3 = 12

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
15	Mastery implies control and effort (1). Knowledge is information only (1). The poem is about character, so mastery fits better (1).	1+1+1
16	The poet said that she had found light in the dark (1). Tense shifts to past perfect (1). Quotation marks are removed and 'that' is added (1).	1+1+1
17	It explains inner wealth (1). We see Keller as giving, not taking (1). The message becomes a precious gift (1).	1+1+1
	OR: It shows disability need not limit achievement (1). It praises rather than pities (1). It asks society to look at inner worth (1).	1+1+1
18	The poem was written by Hughes as a tribute (1). Object becomes subject (1). Verb takes 'was written' (1).	1+1+1
	OR: Free rhythm keeps speech natural (1). Rigid rhyme could sound artificial (1). Sincerity matters more than ornament (1).	1+1+1

SECTION — D (Long Answer) — Answers — 2 × 5 = 10

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
19	Few words, many meanings (1). Symbols of dark and light (1). Pauses at line ends (1). A single message at the end (1). Simplicity strengthens sincerity (1).	2+2+1
	OR: Praise of a place describes outward beauty (1). Praise of character explores inner qualities (1). Here the speaker admires courage (1). A person can inspire action (1). Hence the tone is reverent and instructive (1).	2+2+1
20	Keller lacked sight yet had vision (1). 'Brighter than many ever see' (1). Many sighted lack insight (1). Vision is a quality of mind (1). Lesson: develop inner vision (1).	2+2+1
	OR: Format with speaker names (1). One argues for brevity (1). One argues for detail (1). Use this poem as an example (1). Balanced conclusion (1).	2+2+1

Evaluator's note: Award step marks as shown; accept any correct alternative method. In internal-choice questions, evaluate only the option attempted. Deduct up to ½ mark for missing units or figures where required.

MASTERMIND