THE MASTERMIND COACHING CLASSES

CBSE / RBSE • NURSERY – CLASS XII • JAIPUR

Road No. 5, VKIA, Jaipur — 9887258679

ANSWER KEY & MARKING SCHEME SET 1

Chapter 12: The Stolen Bacillus | Class 8 English_Gulmohar | Maximum Marks: 40

SECTION — A (Objective Type) — Answers — 10 × 1 = 10

Q.	Correct Option	Brief Reasoning
1	(c) briefly let his true feeling show	The gleam is gone at once, hiding his intent.
2	(b) his panic and his absent-minded character	Details underline his haste.
3	(a) the body is harmless and the 'infection' is imaginary	The Anarchist is not infected by cholera.
4	(b) sound casual about the bacteria	He hides his real interest.
5	(b) blames his profession for his strange behaviour	She has put up with his oddity before.
6	(c) the Bacteriologist, in dialogue	He explains the matter to Minnie.
7	(d) the stolen tube drives the entire plot	The theft starts the chase.
8	(a) It does not affect the main chase but drives comedy	Her chase adds humour and brings the husband home.
9	(c) Fear based on false belief can be comic and foolish	The story's moral.
10	(b) containing the germ before it spreads	Glossary: contain the disease.

SECTION — B (Very Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 2 = 8

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
11	Sealed tubes and microscopes suggest hidden danger (1). The cosy talk contrasts with the deadly subject (1).	1+1
12	He is paid to speed up (1) and so unknowingly helps the plot's tension and comedy (1).	1+1
13	He experiments on animals with new bacteria (1). He admits that, like a fool, he told the visitor it was Asiatic cholera, which is careless (1).	1+1
14	He calls Anarchists fools for using bombs (1) yet he himself is one and plans a worse method (1).	1+1

SECTION — C (Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 3 = 12

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
15	His questions about 'the living state' show interest (1). The remark on Anarchists being fools reveals his mind (1). His cut-off 'I think—' hints at an idea in progress (1).	1+1+1
16	He fears a stolen tube of germs in a stranger's hands (1). The tube proves harmless, so the hurry was needless (1). The reader sees the contrast between his panic and the truth (1).	1+1+1
17	The narrator can move between minds (1). We see the Bacteriologist's, Minnie's and the Anarchist's views (1). This makes the irony clear (1).	1+1+1
	OR: He thanks the host again and again (1). He is leaving with the tube (1). The politeness covers an act of theft (1).	1+1+1
18	Each character acts on a wrong belief (1). Anarchist believes he has cholera (1). Minnie believes her husband is mad, while the scientist ends up amused (1).	1+1+1
	OR: To keep suspense (1). To let the characters' mistakes grow (1). To make the final twist more comic (1).	1+1+1

SECTION — D (Long Answer) — Answers — 2 × 5 = 10

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
19	The Anarchist's grand plan (1). The harmless culture (1). Scientist's own rhetoric and scare (1). Comic chase (1). The message that unreasoned zeal looks foolish (1).	2+2+1
	OR: Vivid rhetoric in para 10 (1). Imagery of creeping germs (1). Short exchanges in the hall (1). Action verbs in the chase (1). A comic final explanation (1).	2+2+1
20	Plot and theme (1). Characters (1). Irony and humour (1). Language and tone (1). Personal response (1).	2+2+1
	OR: Format (1). Introduction citing the story (1). Dangers in real life (1). Suggested precautions (1). Closing (1).	2+2+1

Evaluator's note: Award step marks as shown; accept any correct alternative method. In internal-choice questions, evaluate only the option attempted. Deduct up to ½ mark for missing units or figures where required.

MASTERMIND

ANSWER KEY & MARKING SCHEME SET 2

Chapter 12: The Stolen Bacillus | Class 8 English_Gulmohar | Maximum Marks: 40

SECTION — A (Objective Type) — Answers — 10 × 1 = 10

Q.	Correct Option	Brief Reasoning
1	(c) belief that his plan was simple and grand	The scheme seemed easy and unique.
2	(d) the Anarchist's plan to harm thousands ends in embarrassment	The violent plan is mocked.
3	(c) give the germ a menacing human identity	Personification makes the threat vivid.
4	(c) he thinks a city-wide plague would make him famous	Fame after being neglected.
5	(b) had been	Past main clause; earlier event takes past perfect.
6	(c) It was rhetoric that carried him away	The author comments that rhetoric was his weakness.
7	(c) frustration at the cracked tube	The tube cracks and he fears failure.
8	(a) was going	Past main, past continuous subordinate.
9	(d) the tube is soon stolen	The germ is not safe at all.
10	(b) dark humour showing his fear	He fears the disease despite his bold words.

SECTION — B (Very Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 2 = 8

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
11	He sees himself as a martyr (1) while the tube is only a joke on him (1).	1+1
12	Light and humorous (1) with a comic twist replacing fear (1).	1+1
13	The writer gently mocks his habit of speech-making (1). It shows him as kindly but unwise (1).	1+1
14	He understood the man's mistake (1) and found it funny as well as a relief (1).	1+1

SECTION — C (Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 3 = 12

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
15	A scientist running in slippers (1). A wife with hat and coat on a chase (1). A mistaken belief that he is mad (1).	1+1+1
16	Scientist: open and cheerful (1). Visitor: pale, haggard and tense (1). The contrast interests the scientist and hides the danger (1).	1+1+1
17	The Anarchist said that he had drunk it (1). And that the cholera was abroad (1). Because the main verb 'said' is past (1).	1+1+1
	OR: He is afraid of capture (1). He has a vaguer fear of his crime (1). Joy outweighs both because of his dream of fame (1).	1+1+1
18	It shows how small germs can spread (1). It points to the need for careful handling and safety (1). It reminds us to follow safety guidelines (1).	1+1+1
	OR: The cabman said that he would drive fast (1). Because the gentleman had paid well (1). The main clause is past, so 'will' becomes would and 'has' becomes had (1).	1+1+1

SECTION — D (Long Answer) — Answers — 2 × 5 = 10

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
19	The Bacteriologist would go on talking (1). The visitor would get more detail on spreading cholera (1). He might ask to buy or borrow a tube (1). The scientist might become suspicious in time (1). The comic chase would not occur (1).	2+2+1
	OR: Both are devoted to ideas (1). One serves science, one seeks fame (1). Both are blind to the facts at moments (1). Both end up in a comic situation (1). Wells laughs at both (1).	2+2+1
20	Opening and place (1). A gentleman offers half a sovereign (1). A lady wants a man without a hat (1). Your puzzlement (1). Humorous end (1).	2+2+1
	OR: Stage directions (1). The Bacteriologist feels his pockets (1). He calls Minnie in the hall (1). 'Blue ruin!' and the slammed door (1). Minnie runs to the window (1).	2+2+1

Evaluator's note: Award step marks as shown; accept any correct alternative method. In internal-choice questions, evaluate only the option attempted. Deduct up to ½ mark for missing units or figures where required.

MASTERMIND

ANSWER KEY & MARKING SCHEME SET 3

Chapter 12: The Stolen Bacillus | Class 8 English_Gulmohar | Maximum Marks: 40

SECTION — A (Objective Type) — Answers — 10 × 1 = 10

Q.	Correct Option	Brief Reasoning
1	(d) would destroy	Will becomes would after a past main verb.
2	(a) himself plans something worse than bombs	He is an Anarchist.
3	(d) 'I shall be a Martyr'	He wants to be seen as dying for a cause.
4	(d) The scientist told his wife that the visitor is a thief.	Told + is is incorrect; the others agree.
5	(b) It stops the visitor revealing his plan	The interruption saves him from saying too much.
6	(a) mocking triumph	He mocks his pursuer.
7	(c) The Anarchist said that he had drunk the tube.	Say becomes said; has drunk becomes had drunk.
8	(b) 15-16	He leaves, and the scientist guesses the loss.
9	(d) decides to let the Anarchist believe the falsehood for the moment	He realises the situation and keeps quiet.
10	(b) to appear gloomy and to turn blue in colour	The Bacteriologist jokes that the Anarchist might make the city look gloomy as well as blue.

SECTION — B (Very Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 2 = 8

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
11	The main clause 'said' is simple past (1). The subordinate clause uses past perfect 'had been stained' (1).	1+1
12	Her ignorance keeps the humour (1) and the reader enjoys knowing more than her (1).	1+1
13	He tells the truth about the tube (1). He believed the tube held cholera until he remembered it did not (1).	1+1
14	Example: Minnie saw that her husband was running down the street (1). Main clause past, subordinate clause past continuous (1).	1+1

SECTION — C (Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 3 = 12

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
15	He is ready to die for his cause, which seems brave (1). But he acts on a false belief and without thought (1). His act reveals that fanaticism may be foolish (1).	1+1+1
16	Boil or purify drinking water (1). Wash hands and cover food (1). Report symptoms and seek medical help at once (1).	1+1+1
17	Minnie thought that her husband was mad (1). The first verb moves into the past (1). The subordinate verb agrees (1).	1+1+1
	OR: He waves and shouts in French (1). He walks off to infect others (1). The reader knows it is harmless, so the drama is comic (1).	1+1+1
18	Not discuss the dangerous culture with strangers (1). Keep the tubes locked (1). Never leave a visitor near them (1).	1+1+1
	OR: Minnie said that she had seen him (1). The scientist knew that the tube was missing (1). He feared that the man would escape (1).	1+1+1

SECTION — D (Long Answer) — Answers — 2 × 5 = 10

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
19	Exposition: lab and slide (1). Rising action: theft and chase (1). Climax: the Anarchist drinks the tube (1). Anticlimax: the truth about the blue culture (1). Resolution: the scientist's laugh and regret (1).	2+2+1
	OR: State opinion (1). He intended mass harm (1). His own plan turned on him (1). Yet he was only fooled by a harmless tube (1). Conclude with the lesson (1).	2+2+1
20	Anarchists call others fools (1). 'Quite safe' about the germ (1). Anarchist as martyr (1). Scientist's pursuit (1). The tube is harmless (1).	2+2+1
	OR: Clues: the scientist's smile (1). The tube's exact words 'bottled cholera, so to speak' (1). Minnie's mad theory (1). The reveal of the blue culture (1). It turns fear into laughter (1).	2+2+1

Evaluator's note: Award step marks as shown; accept any correct alternative method. In internal-choice questions, evaluate only the option attempted. Deduct up to ½ mark for missing units or figures where required.

MASTERMIND