8	(d) learning	A late learner.
9	(c) Himalaya	The Himalaya.
10	(c) Kashi Yatre	She followed Kashi Yatre.

SECTION — B (Very Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 2 = 8

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
11	The narrator is the granddaughter (1) who teaches her grandmother to read (1).	1+1
12	She wished to read a novel herself (1) by the festival of Dassara (1).	1+1
13	The mountains, the Himalaya (1) or the river Ganga (1).	1+1
14	An old lady who wishes to go to Kashi (1) in the serial Kashi Yatre (1).	1+1

SECTION — C (Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 3 = 12

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
15	She could not read the new part of the serial (1). She depended on others (1). She felt helpless (1).	1+1+1
16	The mountains and rivers (1). The wisdom of ancient times (1). The land of India as a whole (1).	1+1+1
17	She read the novel (1). Read has the same spelling (1). Pronounced 'red' in the past (1).	1+1+1
	OR: She saved money for a trip to Kashi (1). She used it for an orphan girl's wedding (1). She felt happy that way (1).	1+1+1
18	To stress the main idea (1). To give the poem rhythm (1). To make it easy to remember (1).	1+1+1
	OR: Stories (1). Ladies (1). Novels (1).	1+1+1

SECTION — D (Long Answer) — Answers — 2 × 5 = 10

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
19	She was an old lady (1). She loved stories (1). She could not read (1). She learnt with her granddaughter's help (1). She was humble and determined (1).	2+2+1
	OR: Refrain: repeated praise (1). Personification: the land is like a mother (1). Imagery: mountains and rivers (1). Rhyme or rhythm: song-like (1). Tone: proud (1).	2+2+1
20	Grandmother loved Kashi Yatre (1). She could not read it (1). She asked her granddaughter to teach her (1). They worked every day (1). She read a novel on Dassara and touched her teacher's feet (1).	2+2+1
	OR: Because it praises the land (1). It uses lofty language (1). It shows deep feeling (1). It is written to honour (1). It has a song-like form (1).	2+2+1

Mistakes to avoid:

- Writing that Sudha Murty is the grandmother, or that the grandmother is the author. The narrator is the granddaughter (the author) who teaches her grandmother, who began learning at about sixty-two.
- Giving the wrong reason for the grandmother's illiteracy. In her childhood girls were not sent to school; do not say she was lazy or had no time.
- Missing the theme: the story is about learning at any age and the respect a teacher earns, not just 'a grandmother who reads a serial'. Name the serial (Kashi Yatre) and the goal (reading a novel) when asked for details.
- In 'Bharat Our Land', calling the poem sad or critical. Its mood is proud and celebratory; naming only 'rhyme' for devices instead of refrain, personification (mountains guard her) and imagery.

- Tense slips such as 'She learn to read at sixty-two'; the narrative needs the simple past (learnt). Also confusing the teacher and pupil roles when writing the summary.
- Copying lines of the lesson as the answer. Write 2-mark answers as a point plus a reason (1 + 1), in your own words, and quote only the key phrase.

Evaluator's note: Award step marks as shown; accept any correct alternative method. In internal-choice questions, evaluate only the option attempted. Deduct up to ½ mark for missing units or figures where required.
