SECTION — B (Very Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 2 = 8

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
11	It shows her determination (1) and gives her the base skill that Onula later builds on (1).	1+1
12	She first refuses out of concern (1) and then accepts after seeing her daughter's skill (1).	1+1
13	A vocation suits a person's talent and heart (1) while a job may be only for pay (1).	1+1
14	It is personal and gentle (1) and based on observation of the learner (1).	1+1

SECTION — C (Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 3 = 12

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
15	The work is tiring (1). It gives low income (1). A mother wants a safer future for her child (1).	1+1+1
16	By showing his modesty (1). By showing his love of leather and fit (1). By describing his decline gently (1).	1+1+1
17	Although Sentila was young, she made fine pots (1). 'Although' makes a subordinate clause (1). The main clause is the result (1).	1+1+1
	OR: Elders speak up for tradition (1). They protect shared knowledge (1). Individuals are tied to the common good (1).	1+1+1
18	He finds the shop changed (1). He learns of Gessler's death (1). He understands what his customers' neglect meant (1).	1+1+1
	OR: Arenla is a master of her craft (1). Sentila held her own beside her mother (1). Idioms show skill and ability (1).	1+1+1

SECTION — D (Long Answer) — Answers — 2 × 5 = 10

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
19	She watches in secret (1). She fails at first (1). Onula guides her (1). She keeps trying (1). She makes pots equal to her mother's (1).	2+2+1
	OR: Gessler's boots were the best (1). He avoided advertising (1). Big firms won through show (1). He suffered (1). The story argues for valuing the work (1).	2+2+1
20	Mother wants a safer life for daughter (1). Daughter loves the craft (1). Elders and Onula intervene (1). Arenla gives her space (1). Resolution through the two rows of pots (1).	2+2+1
	OR: Introduction (1). Strengths of handwork (1). Strengths of machines (1). Role of quality (1). Conclusion (1).	2+2+1

Mistakes to avoid:

- Mixing up the names: Sentila is the daughter who wants to learn pot making, Arenla is her skilled mother, and Onula is the kind older woman who guides her. Do not call the mother Onula.
- Saying Arenla refused out of dislike for her daughter. She wished to spare Sentila a tiring, poorly paid craft; the elders' view was that skills belong to the community and must be passed on.
- In 'Quality', saying Mr Gessler failed because his boots were poor. His business suffered because bigger firms advertised while he stayed faithful to hand-made quality; the story contrasts honest craft with commerce.

- Giving the meaning of 'vocation' as a holiday or hobby. It means an occupation one is suited to; link it to the dignity of labour in the poems.
- Spelling and usage slips: skilful (one 'l' in British spelling); 'spoke to Sentila', not 'spoke on'. Plural of boot is boots.
- Writing one story's facts under the other's title. Keep the two prose pieces separate: a village potter and a bootmaker, and mention a poem only when the question names it.

Evaluator's note: Award step marks as shown; accept any correct alternative method. In internal-choice questions, evaluate only the option attempted. Deduct up to ½ mark for missing units or figures where required.
