8	(c) make the garden and painting overlap	Overlap of ideas.
9	(c) He asked whether I would support the craft.	Question reported.
10	(d) creates livelihood and keeps skills alive	Practical benefit.

SECTION — B (Very Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 2 = 8

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
11	It is a daily object so change is easy to see (1). Its shift from use to decor mirrors cultural shifts (1).	1+1
12	It reaches new buyers (1) and can raise prices and pride (1).	1+1
13	Its artistic comparison (1) and its message that care creates beauty (1).	1+1
14	She gives facts and solutions (1) rather than only longing for the past (1).	1+1

SECTION — C (Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 3 = 12

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
15	Fans survive as decor, not use (1). So beauty can extend survival (1). Survival depends on meaning as well as use (1).	1+1+1
16	The hand fan has been replaced by technology (1). The fan becomes the focus (1). Passive highlights what was lost (1).	1+1+1
17	The chapter spans centuries (1). The poem is a moment in a season (1). One speaks of change, the other of renewal (1).	1+1+1
	OR: She notes the threat (1). She mentions fairs and workshops as hope (1). The view is cautiously optimistic (1).	1+1+1
18	If artisans had received support, the craft would not have faded (1). Third conditional (1). Shows regret for the past (1).	1+1+1
	OR: For: arrangement and colour (1). Against: some are only for food (1). Care makes any garden art (1).	1+1+1

SECTION — D (Long Answer) — Answers — 2 × 5 = 10

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
19	Origin and name (1). Uses across courts and homes (1). Regional stories (1). Decline and revival (1). The fan as record of culture (1).	2+2+1
	OR: Title is a pun (1). Poem is an extended metaphor (1). Both reveal hidden meanings (1). One is wit, the other lyric (1). Both reward close reading (1).	2+2+1
20	Technology brings comfort (1). It displaces craft (1). The writer does not reject it (1). She asks for balance (1). Conclusion with your view (1).	2+2+1
	OR: Greeting (1). Examples from the unit (1). Why they matter (1). What students can do (1). Closing (1).	2+2+1

Mistakes to avoid:

- Saying 'pankha' comes from a metal or cloth word. It is linked to pankh, a bird's feather, because early hand fans were made of feathers.
- Writing that hand fans are the same everywhere. They differ from region to region because craftspeople used local materials and added their own designs.

- Giving 'electricity' as the only reason the craft is at risk. The fuller answer is modern technology and machine-made cooling, which reduced demand, so hand fans survive mostly as decorative pieces.
- Missing the pun in the title: 'Winds of Change' refers both to the wind a fan makes and to change in society. Say 'double meaning', not 'a storm'.
- In 'Canvas of Soil', calling the gardener a thief or saying the poem is about farming for profit. The poem treats the garden as a painting: seeds are brushstrokes and the gardener is an artist (metaphor).
- Grammar slips: Craftspeople have kept the art alive (plural subject), and an artisan (vowel sound), not 'a artisan'.
