	OR: Format (1). Greeting (1). Which instrument (1). Practice (1). Closing (1).	2+2+1

Mistakes to avoid:

- Writing 'Twin Melodies' as a story or poem. It is a play (a dramatic piece in scenes), so refer to characters, dialogue and stage directions.
- Mixing the characters: Shruti is the young violinist, Nabin is her father who loves classical music, and Leela helps Nabin see the young people's view. Do not call Nabin the musician's friend or the teacher.
- Misreading the title: 'twin melodies' means two styles, old and new, played together, not two sisters or two songs on the radio. The theme is that tradition and change can live together.
- Saying Nabin changes because of a prize or a lecture. He changes his mind after hearing the music and seeing the spirit of the young.
- In the poem, calling 'music is an ocean' a simile. It is a metaphor (direct comparison without like or as), and the title calls music a friend, so the mood is warm and happy.
- Language slips: Shruti plays the violin well (not 'goodly'), and the idiom 'face the music' means to accept the consequences, not to play loudly.
