SECTION — B (Very Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 2 = 8

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
11	Secrecy shows fear and a lack of trust (1) but also protects her creative freedom until she is ready (1).	1+1
12	They provide a chorus of youth (1) and prompt Shruti to act (1).	1+1
13	To keep the poem universal (1) so any reader can add their own music (1).	1+1
14	She asks gentle, open questions (1) that lead him to see the pattern himself (1).	1+1

SECTION — C (Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 3 = 12

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
15	Tradition holds identity (1). Innovation keeps it alive (1). Protection without growth leads to stagnation (1).	1+1+1
16	He seeks excellence (1). He ties it to tradition (1). Both traits are present; perfectionism is the root (1).	1+1+1
17	Shruti played a tune that was both old and new (1). 'That' joins the clauses (1). It avoids repetition (1).	1+1+1
	OR: Nabin has dignity and reasons (1). He is loving (1). His change is gradual (1).	1+1+1
18	Respect lets each side speak (1). It permits learning (1). It ends in harmony (1).	1+1+1
	OR: Learning (1). Gerund as subject (1). It names an activity (1).	1+1+1

SECTION — D (Long Answer) — Answers — 2 × 5 = 10

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
19	Conflict arises from differing music (1). It forces conversation (1). It leads to new understanding (1). The final music combines both (1). Conflict becomes harmony (1).	2+2+1
	OR: Format (1). Shruti posts a video (1). Nabin sees it (1). Mother mediates (1). Resolution (1).	2+2+1
20	Shruti: innovation, hesitance (1). Nabin: tradition, certainty (1). Both disciplined (1). Their differences reveal each other (1). Resolution as balance (1).	2+2+1
	OR: Introduction (1). Plot (1). Characters (1). Themes and style (1). Verdict (1).	2+2+1

Mistakes to avoid:

- Writing 'Twin Melodies' as a story or poem. It is a play (a dramatic piece in scenes), so refer to characters, dialogue and stage directions.
- Mixing the characters: Shruti is the young violinist, Nabin is her father who loves classical music, and Leela helps Nabin see the young people's view. Do not call Nabin the musician's friend or the teacher.
- Misreading the title: 'twin melodies' means two styles, old and new, played together, not two sisters or two songs on the radio. The theme is that tradition and change can live together.

- Saying Nabin changes because of a prize or a lecture. He changes his mind after hearing the music and seeing the spirit of the young.
- In the poem, calling 'music is an ocean' a simile. It is a metaphor (direct comparison without like or as), and the title calls music a friend, so the mood is warm and happy.
- Language slips: Shruti plays the violin well (not 'goodly'), and the idiom 'face the music' means to accept the consequences, not to play loudly.
