Mistakes to avoid:

- Saying Khetaram is a postman in a city. He is a Gramin Dak Sevak (GDS), a rural postal worker in the desert region of Rajasthan; do not write 'General Delivery Service'.
- Listing only 'delivering letters' as his work. The chapter also shows him reading letters aloud, because many villagers cannot read, and delivering money orders sent by relatives working far away.
- Giving 'traffic and crowds' as his difficulties. His work is hard because of heat, distance and sand, so use these desert details in the answer.
- Missing the larger point: the postman is a link between remote families and the outside world and carries hope as well as news. The tone of the lesson is respectful and appreciative.
- Mixing the poem with the prose: 'Words' warns that careless words can hurt and advises speaking with care and sincerity. Its mood is thoughtful, not angry.
- Grammar slips: Khetaram has delivered letters for many years (present perfect, not 'deliver ... since years'); the opposite of 'trust' is distrust.
