Mistakes to avoid:

- Calling 'Follow That Dream' a diary or speech. It is a letter from a mother to her daughter Ming, so answers should say 'the mother advises'.
- Reducing the message to 'wish for it and it will come'. The letter says dreams are built through sustained effort, not luck or wishful thinking (hoping without acting).

- Forgetting the support network. The mother stresses that no one succeeds alone; family and friends help. A 'sacrifice' means giving up something for a goal, not a prize.
- Ignoring the fear of starting: beginning is hard because of the fear of failure, but a start must be made; self-belief gives courage to continue after setbacks.
- In the poem, calling 'comfort is a warm room' a simile. It is a metaphor; the theme is self-belief and perseverance, and the mood is encouraging.
- Usage slips: Believe in yourself, She has followed her dream for years, and a dream (consonant sound), not 'an dream'.
