Our Teacher

Savita Ma'am teaches Class V in a small school in Jodhpur. She never comes to class empty-handed. Some days she brings a story, on other days a puzzle or a leaf from her garden. When a child is weak in reading, she sits beside him and reads slowly with him. On 5 September, we celebrate Teachers' Day because it is the birthday of Dr Sarvepalli Radhakrishnan, a great scholar and teacher who later became the second President of India. This year, our class secretly made a big card for Savita Ma'am. Every child wrote one thing that she had taught us. When she read the card, her eyes filled with tears. "The best gift for a teacher," she said, "is a student who learns and is kind to others."

(i) Where does Savita Ma'am teach, and which class? 2

(ii) What does she bring to class on different days? 2

(iii) Find a word from the passage that means learned person. 1

16. [5]

(iii) Write the word from the passage that is opposite in meaning to big. 1

17. [5]

(i) What did the class make for Savita Ma'am, and what did every child write on it? 2

(ii) According to Savita Ma'am, what is the best gift for a teacher? 2

(iii) Write the plural form of child. 1

18. Read the passage carefully and answer the questions that follow. [5]

The Puppy Under the Cart

It was raining hard when Imran was returning from the market lane to his house in Udaipur. Near the gate of a temple he heard a weak cry. Under a broken cart sat a tiny brown puppy, shivering with cold and wet from head to tail. Imran looked around, but nobody was there. He took off his jacket, wrapped the puppy in it and carried it home. His mother gave the puppy a little warm milk and dried it with a soft cloth. Imran made a bed for it in an old basket. "We cannot keep him forever," said his mother, "but we can look after him until he is strong." After a week, the puppy was running around the house. A neighbour, Mrs Kapoor, who had no pet, asked if she could adopt him. Imran agreed happily. He visits his little friend every evening.

(i) Where did Imran find the puppy, and in what condition was it? 2

(ii) What did Imran do to keep the puppy warm? 2

(iii) Find a word from the passage that means trembling (because of cold). 1

19. [5]
