THE MASTERMIND COACHING CLASSES

CBSE / RBSE • NURSERY – CLASS XII • JAIPUR

Road No. 5, VKIA, Jaipur — 9887258679

ANSWER KEY & MARKING SCHEME SET 1

Chapter 1: The Night the Ghost Got In | Class 8 English_Gulmohar | Maximum Marks: 40

SECTION — A (Objective Type) — Answers — 10 × 1 = 10

Q.	Correct Option	Brief Reasoning
1	(c) each mistaken belief causes a new mistake	Errors pile on errors.
2	(c) The mystery of the footsteps is not resolved	The ghost remains unexplained.
3	(a) puzzled and confused	They did not know what was happening.
4	(d) the gap between what characters think and what is true	Dramatic irony: the reader sees the truth.
5	(c) keeps smiling over the open mystery	Open endings can add humour.
6	(a) noisy disturbance	A noisy uproar.
7	(a) an excuse around which chaos is built	It is a comic device.
8	(c) A Night of Mistaken Alarms	It reflects the comic confusion.
9	(c) trespasser	Someone who enters without right.
10	(a) He is confused but harmless	His war memories mislead him.

SECTION — B (Very Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 2 = 8

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
11	He shows small happenings as huge events (1) so that the reader laughs at the fuss (1).	1+1
12	One person's fear spreads to others (1). In the story the whole household and then the police are swept up (1).	1+1
13	First person (1). It makes the humour personal and believable (1).	1+1
14	When readers know more than characters (1). The reader knows no burglar exists, yet the police search (1).	1+1

SECTION — C (Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 3 = 12

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
15	The footsteps create fear (1). Fear causes a loud alarm and a call to the police (1). Their arrival meets the grandfather's delusion, completing the chaos (1).	1+1+1
16	It leaves a question that amuses (1). It stops a moral lecture (1). It supports the theme of unexplained fear (1).	1+1+1
17	It is a metaphor (1) with personification (1). Silence is imagined as a sleeping cat that wakes (1).	1+1+1
	OR: Situational irony: police come for a burglar who is not there (1). Dramatic irony: reader sees the truth (1). Irony creates the humour (1).	1+1+1
18	Beginning: footsteps and alarm (1). Middle: police, attic, the grandfather's blow (1). End: the unsolved mystery (1).	1+1+1
	OR: Quick comic events (1). Natural, chatty voice (1). Dialogue and action can be acted out (1).	1+1+1

SECTION — D (Long Answer) — Answers — 2 × 5 = 10

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
19	Footsteps and fear (1). Alarm raised (1). Neighbour phones police (1). The grandfather's war confusion (1). Unsolved ending: the theme of mistaken fear (1).	2+2+1
	OR: Headline (1). Place and time (1). What the family and neighbour did (1). The police and the grandfather's act (1). The mystery that remains (1).	2+2+1
20	Exaggeration (1). Irony (1). Understatement (1). Eccentric characters (1). Light conversational tone and the effect of laughter (1).	2+2+1
	OR: Affection for the family (1). Amusement at the police (1). A gentle, ironic tone (1). No bitterness (1). Overall a humorous memoir (1).	2+2+1

Evaluator's note: Award step marks as shown; accept any correct alternative method. In internal-choice questions, evaluate only the option attempted. Deduct up to ½ mark for missing units or figures where required.

THE MASTERMIND COACHING CLASSES

CBSE / RBSE • NURSERY – CLASS XII • JAIPUR

Road No. 5, VKIA, Jaipur — 9887258679

ANSWER KEY & MARKING SCHEME SET 2

Chapter 1: The Night the Ghost Got In | Class 8 English_Gulmohar | Maximum Marks: 40

SECTION — A (Objective Type) — Answers — 10 × 1 = 10

Q.	Correct Option	Brief Reasoning
1	(c) living in the past	His war delusion.
2	(c) agitated	Agitated = disturbed.
3	(c) affectionate and amused	He laughs at them lovingly.
4	(a) wry	Wry = dry, amused.
5	(b) A careful, logical police investigation	The investigation is not careful or logical.
6	(b) the contrast between readiness and an empty result	Great effort, little cause.
7	(a) to give a personal and humorous touch	First person suits a memoir.
8	(a) irony	A contradiction that amuses.
9	(a) It was a slightly unusual night, with a few policemen in the attic.	Understatement makes a big thing sound small.
10	(b) The police were called by the neighbour.	Subject receives the action.

SECTION — B (Very Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 2 = 8

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
11	He remembers it with amusement (1) rather than fear or anger (1).	1+1
12	The family assumes burglars and ghosts at once (1). Their guesses lead to needless trouble (1).	1+1
13	He is harmless and sincere (1). His mistaken war memories clash with the modern police (1).	1+1
14	Serious, armed police (1) against a house full of confused, half-dressed people and a harmless ghost (1).	1+1

SECTION — C (Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 3 = 12

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
15	Police see a crime (1). The grandfather sees a war (1). Neither sees the real, harmless situation, which is the joke (1).	1+1+1
16	When the mother heard footsteps, she woke the house (1). 'When' begins the subordinate clause (1). The main clause reports the action (1).	1+1+1
17	Characters imagine ghosts and war (1). Reality is quite ordinary (1). The gap creates the comedy (1).	1+1+1
	OR: He describes wild events in a calm, light manner (1). Calm telling contrasts with the chaos (1). That contrast produces dry humour (1).	1+1+1
18	Although the police searched everywhere, they found nothing (1). 'Although' shows contrast (1). The subordinate clause comes first (1).	1+1+1
	OR: Old memories can feel present (1). He acts on them, causing trouble (1). The writer treats this with humour and kindness (1).	1+1+1

SECTION — D (Long Answer) — Answers — 2 × 5 = 10

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
19	Elderly, lives in his own past (1). Believes he is at war (1). Harmless, yet acts aggressively (1). Source of the climax (1). Treated with affection by the writer (1).	2+2+1
	OR: Night and footsteps build suspense (1). Characters' reactions turn it comic (1). Each reveal is a laugh, not a scare (1). The mystery persists (1). Balanced tone throughout (1).	2+2+1
20	Never seen (1). Yet the footsteps start everything (1). Each person's reaction depends on it (1). It stays a mystery (1). It is the comic engine (1).	2+2+1
	OR: Family fears a ghost or burglar (1). Police fear danger on duty (1). Both act without facts (1). Comic result in both cases (1). Fear spreads and misleads (1).	2+2+1

Evaluator's note: Award step marks as shown; accept any correct alternative method. In internal-choice questions, evaluate only the option attempted. Deduct up to ½ mark for missing units or figures where required.

THE MASTERMIND COACHING CLASSES

CBSE / RBSE • NURSERY – CLASS XII • JAIPUR

Road No. 5, VKIA, Jaipur — 9887258679

ANSWER KEY & MARKING SCHEME SET 3

Chapter 1: The Night the Ghost Got In | Class 8 English_Gulmohar | Maximum Marks: 40

SECTION — A (Objective Type) — Answers — 10 × 1 = 10

Q.	Correct Option	Brief Reasoning
1	(c) fear and misunderstanding can multiply	Panic spreads error.
2	(b) simile	'Like' compares.
3	(a) He said that he had heard footsteps.	Simple past shifts to past perfect.
4	(b) heighten the comedy	It is slapstick humour.
5	(b) figuratively, for forceful entry	A metaphorical use.
6	(b) Hearing footsteps, the mother woke the house.	'Hearing' is the present participle.
7	(d) Their home life was lively and eccentric	The household is full of quirky characters.
8	(b) no police and no commotion	The chain would not have begun.
9	(d) alarm	Alarm = fear and urgency.
10	(c) ordinary awkward moments made comical	Thurber jokes about his troubles.

SECTION — B (Very Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 2 = 8

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
11	If the mother had checked the sound first (1), no police would come and the comedy would vanish (1).	1+1
12	It keeps the reader curious (1) and shows that the chaos came from nothing (1).	1+1
13	Darkness makes sounds frightening (1) and makes mistakes more believable (1).	1+1
14	Each person adds a new misunderstanding (1). The crowd builds the comic uproar (1).	1+1

SECTION — C (Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 3 = 12

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
15	Eager and noisy (1). They react to words, not facts (1). The author gently makes fun of authority (1).	1+1+1
16	The policeman asked where the burglar was (1). 'Is' becomes 'was' (1). The question form changes to a statement order (1).	1+1+1
17	It promises a spooky tale (1). It delivers a comic one (1). The ghost's 'getting in' is the writer's joke about mistaken alarms (1).	1+1+1
	OR: The narrator belongs to the family (1). He shows affection in details (1). The reader laughs at situations, not at cruelty (1).	1+1+1
18	Neither the mother nor the policemen were sure what had happened (1). The verb agrees with the nearer subject, 'policemen' (1). Therefore 'were' is correct (1).	1+1+1
	OR: More serious tone (1). The family would seem eccentric (1). The humour would shift to the officer's confusion (1).	1+1+1

SECTION — D (Long Answer) — Answers — 2 × 5 = 10

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
19	Title and opening (1). Story as example (1). Costs of hasty conclusions (1). Habit of checking facts (1). Conclusion (1).	2+2+1
	OR: First person gives intimacy (1). Narrator's wry tone (1). Third person could be neutral (1). Reader would lose personal humour (1). Therefore first person is better (1).	2+2+1
20	Format (1). Mother's alarm (1). Bodwell's reaction (1). The decision to call police (1). Humorous close (1).	2+2+1
	OR: Setting and sound (1). Rising fear (1). Wrong guesses (1). Comic reveal (1). Closing note (1).	2+2+1

Evaluator's note: Award step marks as shown; accept any correct alternative method. In internal-choice questions, evaluate only the option attempted. Deduct up to ½ mark for missing units or figures where required.