THE MASTERMIND COACHING CLASSES

CBSE / RBSE • NURSERY – CLASS XII • JAIPUR

Road No. 5, VKIA, Jaipur — 9887258679

ANSWER KEY & MARKING SCHEME SET 1

Chapter 5: The Rock and the Sea | Class 8 English_Gulmohar | Maximum Marks: 40

SECTION — A (Objective Type) — Answers — 10 × 1 = 10

Q.	Correct Option	Brief Reasoning
1	(c) a dialogue between the Rock and the Sea	Two speakers, the Rock and the Sea, address each other.
2	(d) with ease	It claims no effort is needed.
3	(d) weak	Weak is the antonym.
4	(b) Charlotte Perkins Gilman	The reader's notes name Gilman as the poet.
5	(a) rise from it and crumble back into it	The Sea claims the cycle of mountains is its own.
6	(b) give way	To yield is to give way.
7	(a) the Rock	The poem opens with the Rock's boast.
8	(c) rise and sink	Continents come and go in its view.
9	(d) lively	Playful means lively and fun-loving.
10	(c) withstand the Sea	Its purpose, it claims, is to resist the Sea.

SECTION — B (Very Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 2 = 8

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
11	The Rock speaks first (1) and the Sea replies (1).	1+1
12	It wears them down into sand (1) and treats it as a game (1).	1+1
13	Yield means give way (1). The tree did not yield to the storm (1).	1+1
14	It says it was placed on earth to withstand the Sea (1) whether stormy or calm (1).	1+1

SECTION — C (Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 3 = 12

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
15	It says it was placed on earth to resist the Sea (1). It will do so in storm or calm (1). The tone is proud and stubborn (1).	1+1+1
16	Giving human qualities to non-living things (1). The Rock boasts and the Sea speaks (1). This makes the poem lively (1).	1+1+1
17	Rock, sea, granite and iron cliffs (1). Mountains and continents rising and sinking (1). They give a picture of vast, slow change (1).	1+1+1
	OR: It admits the Sea is beautiful and playful (1). Yet it will not yield to charm or force (1). This shows its stubborn pride (1).	1+1+1
18	Time is shown by the Sea's slow work (1). Continents and mountains change under it (1). No power is permanent (1).	1+1+1
	OR: Calm and confident (1). It knows it outlasts the Rock (1). It speaks lightly about huge changes (1).	1+1+1

SECTION — D (Long Answer) — Answers — 2 × 5 = 10

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
19	Opposition of firmness and change (1). The Rock's pride (1). The Sea's calm power (1). Nothing resists time (1). Lesson: be humble and adaptable (1).	2+2+1
	OR: Format (1). Student boasts (1). Teacher's calm replies (1). Link to change and learning (1). Clear conclusion (1).	2+2+1
20	Rock: firm, proud, stubborn (1). Sea: calm, playful, powerful (1). Rock claims to resist (1). Sea shows time wears all things down (1). Poet's message is the Sea's victory (1).	2+2+1
	OR: Reflective mood (1). Rock's proud and stubborn tone (1). Sea's calm and confident tone (1). Contrast builds the message (1). Reader's reaction (1).	2+2+1

Evaluator's note: Award step marks as shown; accept any correct alternative method. In internal-choice questions, evaluate only the option attempted. Deduct up to ½ mark for missing units or figures where required.

THE MASTERMIND COACHING CLASSES

CBSE / RBSE • NURSERY – CLASS XII • JAIPUR

Road No. 5, VKIA, Jaipur — 9887258679

ANSWER KEY & MARKING SCHEME SET 2

Chapter 5: The Rock and the Sea | Class 8 English_Gulmohar | Maximum Marks: 40

SECTION — A (Objective Type) — Answers — 10 × 1 = 10

Q.	Correct Option	Brief Reasoning
1	(c) sand	It grinds cliffs down over time.
2	(d) thoughtful and reflective	It makes the reader think about change.
3	(b) stormy or calm	Its resistance does not depend on the Sea's mood.
4	(d) a game	It speaks lightly of its power.
5	(d) a dialogue poem	The speakers take turns.
6	(b) pride and firmness	It speaks proudly of never moving.
7	(b) nothing, however strong, can resist time and change	The Sea's patient force outlasts the proud Rock.
8	(a) Rock : stands firm	The Rock stands firm.
9	(a) beautiful and playful	It praises the Sea's charm but will not yield.
10	(d) personification	Non-living things speak and think like humans.

SECTION — B (Very Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 2 = 8

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
11	Personification (1): the Rock and the Sea speak like humans (1).	1+1
12	The Rock is proud and tense about holding firm (1). The Sea is calm and confident of its power (1).	1+1
13	It admits the Sea is beautiful and playful (1) but says it will not yield to its charm or force (1).	1+1
14	It represents firmness (1) and pride in staying unchanged (1).	1+1

SECTION — C (Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 3 = 12

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
15	It holds the land with ease (1). It watches continents rise and sink (1). Mountains grow from it and crumble back (1).	1+1+1
16	The Sea calls the wearing down of cliffs a game (1). It is not troubled by it (1). This shows its calm power (1).	1+1+1
17	Firm (1). Granite (1). Iron (1). Withstand (1).	1+1+1
	OR: Even granite and iron cliffs become sand (1). The change comes slowly through its patient force (1). It treats the work as play (1).	1+1+1
18	It claims it will never move (1). It refuses charm and force alike (1). It trusts its own strength alone (1).	1+1+1
	OR: Granite: a very hard rock (1). Crumble: break into small bits (1). Yield: give way (1).	1+1+1

SECTION — D (Long Answer) — Answers — 2 × 5 = 10

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
19	Defines the device (1). Rock speaks like a proud man (1). Sea speaks like a wise ruler (1). A debate makes the idea vivid (1). Readers feel the lesson (1).	2+2+1
	OR: It shows no effort (1). Game suggests ease (1). Hard objects yield (1). Power without anger is more frightening (1). Link to time (1).	2+2+1
20	Sea as time (1). Continents rise and sink (1). Mountains crumble (1). Granite becomes sand (1). Conclusion on human limits (1).	2+2+1
	OR: Technology and society change (1). Stubbornness leads to failure (1). Flexibility helps survival (1). Pride vs humility (1). Personal example (1).	2+2+1

Evaluator's note: Award step marks as shown; accept any correct alternative method. In internal-choice questions, evaluate only the option attempted. Deduct up to ½ mark for missing units or figures where required.

THE MASTERMIND COACHING CLASSES

CBSE / RBSE • NURSERY – CLASS XII • JAIPUR

Road No. 5, VKIA, Jaipur — 9887258679

ANSWER KEY & MARKING SCHEME SET 3

Chapter 5: The Rock and the Sea | Class 8 English_Gulmohar | Maximum Marks: 40

SECTION — A (Objective Type) — Answers — 10 × 1 = 10

Q.	Correct Option	Brief Reasoning
1	(c) break into small pieces	Mountains crumble back to the Sea.
2	(c) charm and force	It says neither the lovely nor the fierce side will move it.
3	(c) time and change	It represents a force that slowly reshapes everything.
4	(a) calm and confident	It speaks as one who knows it will win.
5	(b) stubborn firmness	It will not change.
6	(c) firmness and pride	It is the proud, unmoving side.
7	(b) be humble and accept change	Pride in unchanging strength is foolish.
8	(a) the Sea	The Sea answers the Rock.
9	(b) a very hard rock	Granite is hard, used for cliffs.
10	(a) The Rock stood firm against the waves.	Simple past of 'stand' is 'stood'.

SECTION — B (Very Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 2 = 8

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
11	Nothing, however strong, can resist time and change (1), so pride in being unchanging is unwise (1).	1+1
12	Mountains rise from the Sea (1) and crumble back into it in time (1).	1+1
13	It represents time and change (1) which slowly reshape everything (1).	1+1
14	Firm: weak or loose (1). Proud: humble (1).	1+1

SECTION — C (Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 3 = 12

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
15	The Rock is proud and fixed (1). The Sea is calm and ever-changing (1). The Sea's quiet confidence proves stronger than stubbornness (1).	1+1+1
16	Be ready to adapt to change (1). Pride in being unchanging can lead to downfall (1). Patient effort can do more than force (1).	1+1+1
17	The poem seems to favour the Sea's view (1). Its argument about change is the last word (1). Time and change always win (1).	1+1+1
	OR: Two speakers take turns (1). The Rock states its claim (1). The Sea answers it (1).	1+1+1
18	The Rock praises the Sea's beauty (1). It refuses to let that beauty move it (1). It stays loyal to its stubborn purpose (1).	1+1+1
	OR: They rise and sink in the Sea's view (1). This shows the scale of time (1). Human pride is small beside it (1).	1+1+1

SECTION — D (Long Answer) — Answers — 2 × 5 = 10

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
19	Stanza 1: Rock vows to stand against Sea (1). Stanza 2: admits Sea's charm but will not yield (1). Stanza 3: Sea speaks of mountains and continents (1). Stanza 4: Sea turns cliffs to sand in play (1). Message (1).	2+2+1
	OR: Firm vs flowing (1). Pride vs calm (1). Resistance vs patience (1). Contrast builds the argument (1). Effect on reader (1).	2+2+1
20	Rock's pride in firmness (1). The Sea's quiet answer (1). Even granite becomes sand (1). Pride in being unchanging is foolish (1). Link to life (1).	2+2+1
	OR: Admits the Sea's power (1). Or still boasts (1). Tone appropriate (1). Links to theme (1). Language and clarity (1).	2+2+1

Evaluator's note: Award step marks as shown; accept any correct alternative method. In internal-choice questions, evaluate only the option attempted. Deduct up to ½ mark for missing units or figures where required.