THE MASTERMIND COACHING CLASSES

CBSE / RBSE • NURSERY – CLASS XII • JAIPUR

Road No. 5, VKIA, Jaipur — 9887258679

ANSWER KEY & MARKING SCHEME SET 1

Chapter 14: The Elephant and the Tragopan | Class 8 English_Gulmohar | Maximum Marks: 40

SECTION — A (Objective Type) — Answers — 10 × 1 = 10

Q.	Correct Option	Brief Reasoning
1	(c) Vikram Seth	Vikram Seth wrote it in his collection of animal tales in verse.
2	(a) a reservoir	A reservoir will flood the land.
3	(c) It welcomes the reservoir at first.	It thinks the reservoir will give it more space.
4	(c) concern for the future	The warning stays with us.
5	(d) fable	Animals speak and a lesson about humans is conveyed.
6	(b) food and shelter	They depend on it.
7	(d) a large artificial lake for storing water	It is made by damming a river.
8	(b) a brightly coloured pheasant	It is a forest bird of the hills.
9	(a) pleased about the extra space	It expects endless room to swim.
10	(c) opposite to each other	Qualities that seem to clash.

SECTION — B (Very Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 2 = 8

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
11	Vikram Seth (1), who wrote it as an animal fable in verse (1).	1+1
12	Roads open forests to settlement and development (1), so trees are cut and the forest disappears (1).	1+1
13	Animals speak and act like people (1) and a lesson about human behaviour is drawn (1).	1+1
14	A brightly coloured pheasant of hill forests (1) that depends on forests and bamboo (1).	1+1

SECTION — C (Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 3 = 12

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
15	He lives near people and watches them (1). He understands human contradictions (1). He warns the others calmly of the danger (1).	1+1+1
16	The trout is happy about something harmful (1). Readers know it too will suffer (1). The irony highlights human and animal blindness (1).	1+1+1
17	Clan = group of related creatures (1). Fief = land held under authority; sense of ownership (1). Reservoir = artificial lake (1).	1+1+1
	OR: People have mixed, contradictory qualities (1). They treat the Earth as property (1). Their progress can destroy other lives (1).	1+1+1
18	All creatures, not just land animals, will lose homes (1). Even those who gain at first will suffer (1). The loss is common to all (1).	1+1+1
	OR: Progress can be harmful if it ignores nature (1). Roads and dams benefit some but destroy others (1). Wise planning is needed (1).	1+1+1

SECTION — D (Long Answer) — Answers — 2 × 5 = 10

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
19	Elephant describes contradictory human qualities (1). Humans treat the planet as a fief (1). Roads clear forests (1). Reservoir destroys bamboo (1). Animals will be homeless (1).	2+2+1
	OR: Plain words and dialogue (1). Animal characters (1). Irony and gentle humour (1). Strong closing warning (1). Effect on readers (1).	2+2+1
20	Observer of humans (1). Wise and fair (1). Concerned for others (1). Corrects the trout gently (1). Voice of the poet's message (1).	2+2+1
	OR: Format (1). Introduction (1). Describe dependence on bamboo and forest (1). Request for alternatives (1). Conclusion (1).	2+2+1

Evaluator's note: Award step marks as shown; accept any correct alternative method. In internal-choice questions, evaluate only the option attempted. Deduct up to ½ mark for missing units or figures where required.

THE MASTERMIND COACHING CLASSES

CBSE / RBSE • NURSERY – CLASS XII • JAIPUR

Road No. 5, VKIA, Jaipur — 9887258679

ANSWER KEY & MARKING SCHEME SET 2

Chapter 14: The Elephant and the Tragopan | Class 8 English_Gulmohar | Maximum Marks: 40

SECTION — A (Objective Type) — Answers — 10 × 1 = 10

Q.	Correct Option	Brief Reasoning
1	(a) elephant, tragopan, trout	These are the speaking or addressed animals.
2	(a) does not understand the larger danger	It sees only its own gain.
3	(a) a group of related creatures	A family or group.
4	(a) elephant	The elephant has watched humans closely.
5	(a) by pointing out that all the animals will lose their homes	He corrects the trout's idea.
6	(c) near human beings and watches them	He speaks from close observation.
7	(b) human beings	The animals discuss people and what they do.
8	(b) homeless	Habitat loss will affect everyone.
9	(a) wise and concerned	He understands the danger and warns others.
10	(c) mixed and often contradictory	People appear both admirable and harmful.

SECTION — B (Very Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 2 = 8

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
11	It floods land and destroys bamboo (1) which gives them food and shelter (1).	1+1
12	Development that destroys habitats harms all creatures (1). We must live in harmony with nature (1).	1+1
13	He lists qualities that clash (1), so humans seem both good and bad (1).	1+1
14	It is glad of the extra space (1) because it cannot see the larger loss (1).	1+1

SECTION — C (Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 3 = 12

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
15	Roads bring development (1). Trees are felled to make way (1). Animals lose food and homes (1).	1+1+1
16	The elephant: wisdom and concern (1). The tragopan: forest creatures (1). The trout: those who see only short-term gain (1).	1+1+1
17	A forest valley with bamboo (1). A planned road and reservoir (1). Animals discuss the danger (1).	1+1+1
	OR: It thinks only of more water (1). It does not see the destruction of bamboo and land (1). It is short-sighted (1).	1+1+1
18	Animals offer a fresh view of human actions (1). A fable makes the lesson simple (1). It attracts readers of all ages (1).	1+1+1
	OR: He knows the larger picture (1). A reservoir floods their world (1). The trout's gain is only temporary (1).	1+1+1

SECTION — D (Long Answer) — Answers — 2 × 5 = 10

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
19	Roads clear forests (1). Reservoir floods bamboo (1). Animals lose food and homes (1). Gains of some, like the trout, are short-lived (1). Everyone suffers in the end (1).	2+2+1
	OR: Fief means ownership (1). The poem challenges this view (1). Habitat destruction harms all (1). Shared home implies care (1). Lessons for action (1).	2+2+1
20	The trout welcomes the reservoir (1). Stands for short-sighted thinking (1). Its joy is ironic (1). The elephant corrects it (1). It shows how some ignore the larger loss (1).	2+2+1
	OR: Opening (1). Benefits of roads and dams (1). Costs to forests and animals (1). Possible solutions (1). Conclusion (1).	2+2+1

Evaluator's note: Award step marks as shown; accept any correct alternative method. In internal-choice questions, evaluate only the option attempted. Deduct up to ½ mark for missing units or figures where required.

THE MASTERMIND COACHING CLASSES

CBSE / RBSE • NURSERY – CLASS XII • JAIPUR

Road No. 5, VKIA, Jaipur — 9887258679

ANSWER KEY & MARKING SCHEME SET 3

Chapter 14: The Elephant and the Tragopan | Class 8 English_Gulmohar | Maximum Marks: 40

SECTION — A (Objective Type) — Answers — 10 × 1 = 10

Q.	Correct Option	Brief Reasoning
1	(a) serious and warning	The poem ends on a grave note.
2	(d) short-sighted	It cannot see the wider loss.
3	(d) fief	They behave as though they own the world.
4	(d) destroying habitats in the name of development	It highlights the harm done to nature.
5	(c) share the animals' concern for the forest	It stands for the forest creatures.
6	(d) something they own and rule	A fief is land held under one's authority.
7	(d) co-existence of humans and nature	It calls for caring for the environment.
8	(c) think about the effects of development on nature	He wants us to reflect on habitat loss.
9	(d) roads lead to the clearing of forests	Development opens up and destroys forest.
10	(b) personification	Animals behave like people.

SECTION — B (Very Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 2 = 8

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
11	A large artificial lake that stores water (1). A suitable sentence (1).	1+1
12	Humans treat the Earth as their own property (1) to use or rule as they like (1).	1+1
13	That the animals will all lose their homes (1) so the reservoir is no gain for anyone (1).	1+1
14	Giving human qualities to animals or things (1). Animals talking and reasoning (1).	1+1

SECTION — C (Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 3 = 12

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
15	Bamboo will be destroyed (1). Their food and homes will vanish (1). They know they will be homeless (1).	1+1+1
16	Forests are cleared for roads and dams (1). Wildlife loses habitat (1). We must plan development carefully (1).	1+1+1
17	It leaves a lasting impression (1). It urges readers to think and act (1). It underlines the seriousness of habitat loss (1).	1+1+1
	OR: It is calm but serious (1). It uses gentle irony in the trout's joy (1). The close is a stern warning (1).	1+1+1
18	Living together peacefully (1). Humans and animals share the Earth (1). Development should not destroy others' homes (1).	1+1+1
	OR: The trout sees extra space (1). The elephant sees loss of land and food (1). Their views show wisdom versus short-sightedness (1).	1+1+1

SECTION — D (Long Answer) — Answers — 2 × 5 = 10

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
19	Animals speak (1). A lesson about humans is drawn (1). Simple narrative (1). Unlike many fables, the moral is reflective (1). Overall it fits a modern fable (1).	2+2+1
	OR: Both warn of habitat loss (1). Poem uses fable; chapter uses facts (1). Dams and reservoirs harm wildlife in both (1). Both call for care (1). Both involve human responsibility (1).	2+2+1
20	Roads and reservoirs cause it (1). Bamboo destroyed (1). Animals lose homes (1). All species affected (1). Message for readers today (1).	2+2+1
	OR: Tragopan explains the danger (1). Trout questions (1). Realises the loss (1). Shows change of mind (1). Ends with a resolve (1).	2+2+1

Evaluator's note: Award step marks as shown; accept any correct alternative method. In internal-choice questions, evaluate only the option attempted. Deduct up to ½ mark for missing units or figures where required.