ANSWER KEY & MARKING SCHEME SET 1

Chapter 14: The Elephant and the Tragopan | Class 8 English_Gulmohar | Maximum Marks: 40

SECTION — A (Objective Type) — Answers — 10 × 1 = 10

Q.	Correct Option	Brief Reasoning
1	(c) to show that even apparent gainers will eventually suffer	The irony shows short-term gain hiding long-term loss.
2	(d) patient yet stern	He explains calmly but seriously.
3	(a) Leave some forest for the animals too.	Shares the poem's concern.
4	(a) capable of both great good and great harm	The contradictions show a mixed nature.
5	(c) It is the best poem about nature ever written.	The first is a judgment.
6	(a) The animals, who lived in the forest, were worried.	Subject-verb agreement and structure.
7	(c) their better side	It hopes humans will choose the good side.
8	(b) work out the lesson themselves	A reflective ending invites thought.
9	(b) Forests are destroyed by humans.	Present simple passive.
10	(c) roads act as a first step in forest destruction	The statement links roads and loss.

SECTION — B (Very Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 2 = 8

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
11	It welcomes the reservoir (1) that will eventually harm all creatures, including itself (1).	1+1
12	He has lived near humans and observed them (1). His warning is based on experience (1).	1+1
13	The trout was short-sighted in welcoming the reservoir (1). It could not see the long-term loss (1).	1+1
14	Humans can be both caring and destructive (1). Their choices decide the fate of nature (1).	1+1

SECTION — C (Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 3 = 12

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
15	The trout is delighted at the reservoir (1). Readers know the reservoir will destroy the valley (1). Irony shows short-sighted joy (1).	1+1+1
16	The elephant says all will be homeless (1). The trout's gain is temporary (1). Harm to one part harms all (1).	1+1+1
17	When the road came, the forest vanished (1). 'When' links the clauses (1). Cause-effect order retained (1).	1+1+1
	OR: Animals speak and reason (1). We see human actions from outside (1). The message feels simple and strong (1).	1+1+1
18	The trout sees extra space now (1). Elephant sees loss ahead (1). Development must consider the future (1).	1+1+1
	OR: Opposite or clashing (1). Kind to pets yet cruel to forests (1). Wise yet wasteful (1).	1+1+1

SECTION — D (Long Answer) — Answers — 2 × 5 = 10

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
19	Gentle: animal characters, irony (1). Firm: clear statements of loss (1). Habitat destruction as central theme (1). Appeal to human conscience (1). Relevant to today (1).	2+2+1
	OR: Date (1). Feelings of fear (1). Recall the bamboo and forest (1). Thoughts about humans (1). Hopes for change (1).	2+2+1
20	Theme (1). Characters and personification (1). Irony and tone (1). Language and structure (1). Personal response (1).	2+2+1
	OR: Trout gets more water space now (1). Reservoir destroys valley (1). Loss of bamboo and homes (1). All creatures suffer (1). Link to human decisions (1).	2+2+1

Evaluator's note: Award step marks as shown; accept any correct alternative method. In internal-choice questions, evaluate only the option attempted. Deduct up to ½ mark for missing units or figures where required.

ANSWER KEY & MARKING SCHEME SET 2

Chapter 14: The Elephant and the Tragopan | Class 8 English_Gulmohar | Maximum Marks: 40

SECTION — A (Objective Type) — Answers — 10 × 1 = 10

Q.	Correct Option	Brief Reasoning
1	(d) Whose Home Is It?	It brings out the theme of shared homes.
2	(c) -less	-less means without.
3	(a) the attitude of ownership towards nature	Treating the Earth as a possession is questioned.
4	(c) includes the speaker as well	The elephant counts himself among the victims.
5	(b) very pleased	Delighted = very pleased.
6	(d) because he wants every creature to see the wider danger	He seeks understanding.
7	(d) to point to rarer forest creatures threatened by habitat loss	A rare bird highlights fragile forests.
8	(d) welcoming a project without thinking of its effects	The trout's welcome of the reservoir.
9	(a) It rejoices in what will ruin the whole valley, including itself	The reader knows more than the trout.
10	(a) reservoir built -> bamboo destroyed	The reservoir floods the bamboo.

SECTION — B (Very Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 2 = 8

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
11	E.g. 'Whose Home Is It?' (1). It stresses the shared home and habitat loss (1).	1+1
12	The lesson is clear from the warning (1). Readers must think for themselves (1).	1+1
13	A fief is land owned and ruled by a lord (1). Humans behave as though the Earth belongs to them alone (1).	1+1
14	It criticises destruction (1). By warning, it hopes humans will change (1).	1+1

SECTION — C (Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 3 = 12

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
15	Road is the cause (1). Forest loss is the effect (1). The short, balanced sentence makes the point memorable (1).	1+1+1
16	Deforestation continues (1). Dams and roads threaten wildlife (1). The poem urges careful choices (1).	1+1+1
17	Bamboo flooded (1). Animals leave or die (1). Even fish may suffer from changed water (1).	1+1+1
	OR: He has observed humans (1). He speaks calmly (1). His concern and wisdom carry the poet's message (1).	1+1+1
18	Calm explanation (1). Gentle irony with the trout (1). Serious closing warning (1).	1+1+1
	OR: It includes himself (1). It uses plain, final words (1). It ends on loss, so the warning stays (1).	1+1+1

SECTION — D (Long Answer) — Answers — 2 × 5 = 10

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
19	Greeting and opening (1). Summarise the poem's warning (1). Examples of habitat loss (1). Solutions (1). Closing appeal (1).	2+2+1
	OR: Format (1). Introduction (1). Harm to animals and bamboo (1). Alternatives (1). Conclusion (1).	2+2+1
20	Headline (1). Who and where (1). What the elephant said (1). Reactions of tragopan and trout (1). Closing quote (1).	2+2+1
	OR: Progress has costs (1). Think of all living things (1). Short-sightedness harms everyone (1). Power requires responsibility (1). Balance is possible (1).	2+2+1

Evaluator's note: Award step marks as shown; accept any correct alternative method. In internal-choice questions, evaluate only the option attempted. Deduct up to ½ mark for missing units or figures where required.

THE MASTERMIND COACHING CLASSES

CBSE / RBSE • NURSERY – CLASS XII • JAIPUR

Road No. 5, VKIA, Jaipur — 9887258679

ANSWER KEY & MARKING SCHEME SET 3

Chapter 14: The Elephant and the Tragopan | Class 8 English_Gulmohar | Maximum Marks: 40

SECTION — A (Objective Type) — Answers — 10 × 1 = 10

Q.	Correct Option	Brief Reasoning
1	(c) should be balanced through careful planning	The message calls for balance.
2	(d) criticises careless development that ignores other lives	The poem warns against destructive projects.
3	(c) critical but not hateful	He criticises actions yet notes human good.
4	(c) It lets the criticism sound gentle and fresh	The fable form softens and sharpens at once.
5	(d) clearing a forest to build a highway	Habitat is destroyed for development.
6	(d) personification	Animals are given human speech.
7	(c) the irony of short-sighted joy would vanish	The trout provides contrast.
8	(b) contrast	Opposite attitudes are placed side by side.
9	(b) shared fate of all creatures	Everyone is affected.
10	(d) a conversation among animals followed by a warning	It develops as a talk and ends with the warning.

SECTION — B (Very Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 2 = 8

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
11	Humans have power to shape the Earth (1). They must use it with care for all life (1).	1+1
12	Roads open forests to development (1). Trees are cut, so the forest goes (1).	1+1
13	The bamboo will be destroyed by the reservoir (1). 'Will be destroyed' marks the future passive (1).	1+1
14	E.g. deforestation for highways or dams (1). Wildlife loses homes as in the poem (1).	1+1

SECTION — C (Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 3 = 12

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
15	Humans are described as mixed (1). The blame lies in careless actions (1). This invites reflection, not hatred (1).	1+1+1
16	It names human actions as the cause (1). But admits they have good qualities (1). So blame is on choices, not humanity as a whole (1).	1+1+1
17	Use existing routes (1). Build wildlife underpasses (1). Plan around forest cores (1).	1+1+1
	OR: Animals speak of their fear (1). We see their loss of home (1). We imagine ourselves homeless (1).	1+1+1
18	It looks at one valley (1). Its issue is worldwide (1). Local choices matter for the planet (1).	1+1+1
	OR: Introduction by the elephant (1). Description of humans and their actions (1). Reservoir, trout, and final warning (1).	1+1+1

SECTION — D (Long Answer) — Answers — 2 × 5 = 10

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
19	Elephant: wise, concerned (1). Tragopan: fearful for the forest (1). Trout: short-sighted gladness (1). Contrast among them (1). Effect on the reader (1).	2+2+1
	OR: Fable form (1). Dialogue (1). Irony (1). Simple language (1). Memorable lines and warning (1).	2+2+1
20	Both show habitat loss (1). Dams and reservoirs harm wildlife (1). Poem uses fable, chapter uses facts (1). Both call for care (1). Both end with concern for survival (1).	2+2+1
	OR: Opening as the observer (1). Describe humans' qualities (1). Roads and reservoir (1). The trout's joy and correction (1). Closing warning (1).	2+2+1

Evaluator's note: Award step marks as shown; accept any correct alternative method. In internal-choice questions, evaluate only the option attempted. Deduct up to ½ mark for missing units or figures where required.