- Forgetting that the two Deputy Presidents were Thabo Mbeki and F. W. de Klerk, or calling Mandela the ruler of a single party.
- Defining courage wrongly: Mandela says it is not the absence of fear but the triumph over it; the brave man is he who conquers fear.

- Missing the theme of freedom for all: his own hunger for freedom grew into a hunger for the freedom of his people; chains on one are chains on all.
- Taking 'the sun shall never set on so glorious a human achievement' literally; it is a metaphor for a free, lasting South Africa.
- Writing the summary as a list of events only; the extract is a reflective autobiographical piece, so mention the generals' salute and the heroes he honours.
