ANSWER KEY & MARKING SCHEME SET 1

Chapter 2: Nelson Mandela: Long Walk to Freedom (First Flight) | Class 10 English | Maximum Marks: 40

SECTION — A (Objective Type) — Answers — 10 × 1 = 10

Q.	Correct Option	Brief Reasoning
1	(a) to show global respect for the change in South Africa	It highlights international support.
2	(b) stress a solemn vow	It strengthens the promise.
3	(a) against	Fight against.
4	(d) show a peaceful transfer of power	The army accepted the elected leader.
5	(a) both are limited by a system of hatred	Hatred imprisons both.
6	(c) liberation	Liberation.
7	(b) He credits the struggle of many people	He shares credit.
8	(c) metaphorical	Chains stand for loss of freedom.
9	(d) release from bondage	Emancipation = freeing.
10	(c) the triumph belonged to everyone who fought apartheid	The victory was shared.

SECTION — B (Very Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 2 = 8

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
11	It marked the end of apartheid (1) and the start of a democratic South Africa for all (1).	1+1
12	Mandela admits to feeling fear (1) but says a brave man acts despite it and so overcomes it (1).	1+1
13	It suggests a country of many races and cultures (1) living together in harmony (1).	1+1
14	Earlier the same men had persecuted Mandela and his friends (1) but now they honoured the elected leader, showing a peaceful change (1).	1+1

SECTION — C (Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 3 = 12

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
15	He speaks of the ceremony as the end of a long dark period (1). He calls apartheid a human disaster that wounded the nation (1). The presence of the world's leaders confirms that a new era has begun (1).	1+1+1
16	A walk suggests slow effort over a distance (1). It includes years of struggle, jail and patience (1). It is a metaphor for the journey from slavery to democracy (1).	1+1+1
17	Mandela was elected by the people of South Africa (1). In the passive, the object becomes the subject (1). The agent is introduced by 'by' (1).	1+1+1
	OR: The generals once opposed the freedom movement (1). Their salute shows they accept the people's will (1). It indicates that both sides are willing to forget bitterness and work together (1).	1+1+1
18	Mandela says that he himself felt fear (1). Yet he learned to act despite it (1). This tells us that courage is a choice any person can develop (1).	1+1+1
	OR: Although Mandela was jailed for years, he forgave his enemies (1). 'Although' introduces a contrast (1). The sentence is complex, with one main and one subordinate clause (1).	1+1+1

SECTION — D (Long Answer) — Answers — 2 × 5 = 10

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
19	He defines freedom as respecting and enhancing the freedom of others (1). He says the oppressor too is not free (1). He honours the collective struggle of many people (1). The call to build a new society indicates a duty on all (1). Hence freedom is not a privilege but a responsibility to be nurtured by everyone (1).	2+2+1
	OR: He recalls boyhood freedom (1). He shows his gradual awakening (1). He explains how obligations drew him to struggle (1). Personal narrative adds sincerity (1). The audience connects emotionally with his argument (1).	2+2+1
20	He calls victory common and credits others (1). He pays tribute to comrades (1). After 27 years in jail he does not seek revenge (1). He speaks of freeing the oppressor as well (1). These qualities make him an exceptional leader of reconciliation (1).	2+2+1

	OR: Format with questions and answers (1). Ask about his feelings on the day (1). Ask about the generals' salute (1). Ask about forgiveness (1). End with his message to the youth (1).	2+2+1

Mistakes to avoid:

- Saying apartheid ended in 1990 or that the ceremony was in Cape Town; the inauguration was on 10 May 1994 at the Union Buildings, Pretoria.
- Forgetting that the two Deputy Presidents were Thabo Mbeki and F. W. de Klerk, or calling Mandela the ruler of a single party.
- Defining courage wrongly: Mandela says it is not the absence of fear but the triumph over it; the brave man is he who conquers fear.
- Missing the theme of freedom for all: his own hunger for freedom grew into a hunger for the freedom of his people; chains on one are chains on all.
- Taking 'the sun shall never set on so glorious a human achievement' literally; it is a metaphor for a free, lasting South Africa.
- Writing the summary as a list of events only; the extract is a reflective autobiographical piece, so mention the generals' salute and the heroes he honours.

Evaluator's note: Award step marks as shown; accept any correct alternative method. In internal-choice questions, evaluate only the option attempted. Deduct up to ½ mark for missing units or figures where required.

MASTERMIND

ANSWER KEY & MARKING SCHEME SET 2

Chapter 2: Nelson Mandela: Long Walk to Freedom (First Flight) | Class 10 English | Maximum Marks: 40

SECTION — A (Objective Type) — Answers — 10 × 1 = 10

Q.	Correct Option	Brief Reasoning
1	(d) Freedom, courage and unity must guide the new nation	Core themes.
2	(c) noun	-ion makes a noun.
3	(a) a metaphor for lasting freedom	A figurative way to say freedom will last.
4	(d) A leader can be strong and forgiving	Mandela forgives.
5	(c) boldly	-ly adverb.
6	(c) to contrast material wealth with the greater wealth of its people	Human courage is the real wealth.
7	(d) proud and solemn	A formal occasion.
8	(b) metaphor	Prejudice compared to bars without 'like'.
9	(c) he was free only in small personal ways, while the society denied rights	Real freedom was missing.
10	(d) Mandela inspired the nation.	Subject does the action.

SECTION — B (Very Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 2 = 8

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
11	They were short-lived personal freedoms of boyhood (1) which could not equal the lasting freedom his people needed (1).	1+1
12	He feels that freedom was won by their sacrifice (1) and wants them to share the credit (1).	1+1
13	The trees symbolise deep rootedness (1) so the passage claims that all people belong equally to the country (1).	1+1
14	His mind is imprisoned by hatred (1) and by narrow-minded prejudice, though he seems powerful (1).	1+1

SECTION — C (Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 3 = 12

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
15	He does not speak of revenge (1). He recognises that the oppressor is also trapped by hatred (1). He wants everyone to be freed so the nation can heal (1).	1+1+1
16	It acknowledges collective effort (1). It adds historical weight and honours the dead and the living (1). It shows Mandela's gratitude and humility (1).	1+1+1
17	Reconciliation - the act of restoring friendship; sentence (1). Sacrifice - giving up something for others; sentence (1). Dignity - self-respect; sentence (1).	1+1+1
	OR: Mandela is proud of what his people achieved (1). He credits the courage and sacrifice of many others (1). By calling the victory common, he avoids personal glory (1).	1+1+1
18	South Africa is rich in minerals (1). Mandela shows that its greatest treasure is the people (1). Human courage and unity matter more than material wealth (1).	1+1+1
	OR: The President said that they would build a new nation (1). 'Shall' changes to 'would' (1). 'We' changes to 'they' and the tense moves back (1).	1+1+1

SECTION — D (Long Answer) — Answers — 2 × 5 = 10

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
19	Past: apartheid, oppression and persecution (1). Present: democracy and the salute of the generals (1). Past: Mandela in jail; present: Mandela as president (1). Past: boyhood freedom limited; present: collective freedom (1). Contrast highlights the magnitude of change (1).	2+2+1
	OR: Trees such as jacaranda and mimosa show rootedness (1). 'Chains' and 'bars' show lack of freedom (1). The sun that never sets shows lasting glory (1). Such images make abstract ideas vivid (1). They help the audience feel the emotion (1).	2+2+1

20	Headline and byline (1). Lead paragraph: who, where, when (1). Details: guests, anthems, salute (1). Quote from the speech (1). Conclusion about the global response (1).	2+2+1
	OR: Discrimination still exists in many forms (1). His call for equality is needed (1). Forgiveness is a path to peace (1). Courage is needed to oppose injustice (1). Therefore his lessons remain valuable (1).	2+2+1

Mistakes to avoid:

- Saying apartheid ended in 1990 or that the ceremony was in Cape Town; the inauguration was on 10 May 1994 at the Union Buildings, Pretoria.
- Forgetting that the two Deputy Presidents were Thabo Mbeki and F. W. de Klerk, or calling Mandela the ruler of a single party.
- Defining courage wrongly: Mandela says it is not the absence of fear but the triumph over it; the brave man is he who conquers fear.
- Missing the theme of freedom for all: his own hunger for freedom grew into a hunger for the freedom of his people; chains on one are chains on all.
- Taking 'the sun shall never set on so glorious a human achievement' literally; it is a metaphor for a free, lasting South Africa.
- Writing the summary as a list of events only; the extract is a reflective autobiographical piece, so mention the generals' salute and the heroes he honours.

Evaluator's note: Award step marks as shown; accept any correct alternative method. In internal-choice questions, evaluate only the option attempted. Deduct up to ½ mark for missing units or figures where required.

MASTERMIND

ANSWER KEY & MARKING SCHEME SET 3

Chapter 2: Nelson Mandela: Long Walk to Freedom (First Flight) | Class 10 English | Maximum Marks: 40

SECTION — A (Objective Type) — Answers — 10 × 1 = 10

Q.	Correct Option	Brief Reasoning
1	(d) courageous	-ous adjective.
2	(a) the oppressor is trapped by his own prejudice	He is a prisoner of his mind.
3	(d) He said that he was free.	am becomes was.
4	(d) awareness of injustice creates the desire for freedom	Hunger arises from understanding.
5	(d) love and responsibility	A sense of duty.
6	(d) The people of South Africa were proud.	People takes a plural verb.
7	(a) It must be built on justice and unity	Hopeful message.
8	(a) humble and visionary	He is humble and forward-looking.
9	(c) relative clause	It describes Mandela.
10	(d) a formal beginning of an office or era	Inauguration = formal start.

SECTION — B (Very Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 2 = 8

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
11	Repetition stresses vows like 'never again' (1) and gives the speech force and a solemn rhythm (1).	1+1
12	As a child he enjoyed small freedoms and did not notice injustice (1); the hunger came when he saw his people deprived (1).	1+1
13	He thanks the people (1) and honours other heroes rather than claiming the victory alone (1).	1+1
14	He wanted to show personal and social duties are linked (1) and his decision to fight for freedom came from them (1).	1+1

SECTION — C (Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 3 = 12

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
15	One group cannot be free while another is not (1). The oppressor loses humanity by oppressing (1). So only shared freedom is real freedom (1).	1+1+1
16	He promises an end to oppression (1). He invites all to build a just society (1). His faith in human goodness encourages the audience (1).	1+1+1
17	All people deserve equal rights (1). We should respect classmates of every background (1). Freedom and equality go with responsibility (1).	1+1+1
	OR: A boy enjoyed running and swimming freely (1). The adult understood that these joys were limited by laws that denied dignity (1). His aim then became freedom of all his people (1).	1+1+1
18	The oppressed lose rights and freedom (1). The oppressor loses humanity by acting with hatred (1). Both need release, and Mandela works for the liberation of both (1).	1+1+1
	OR: He argues that a person who takes away another's freedom is a prisoner of hatred and narrow-mindedness (1). Such a person is shut behind bars of prejudice (1). Therefore both oppressor and oppressed need to be liberated, which is why Mandela calls for freedom for all (1).	1+1+1

SECTION — D (Long Answer) — Answers — 2 × 5 = 10

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
19	Oppressed lose rights (1). Oppressor loses humanity (1). Both live under a system of hatred (1). Mandela therefore seeks to free everyone (1). Only then can a just society emerge (1).	2+2+1
	OR: Address of editor and date (1). Subject line (1). Appreciate the message of courage and unity (1). Suggest actions for students (1). Courteous close with name (1).	2+2+1
20	Salutation and introduction (1). Mandela's definition of courage (1). Example from his life (1). Application to student life (1). Conclusion with encouragement (1).	2+2+1

	OR: Begins with the description of the ceremony (1). Moves to the history of apartheid and the vow (1). Then he reflects on his own life and freedom (1). Next he speaks of courage and liberation of both sides (1). Ends with a message of unity and hope (1).	2+2+1

Mistakes to avoid:

- Saying apartheid ended in 1990 or that the ceremony was in Cape Town; the inauguration was on 10 May 1994 at the Union Buildings, Pretoria.
- Forgetting that the two Deputy Presidents were Thabo Mbeki and F. W. de Klerk, or calling Mandela the ruler of a single party.
- Defining courage wrongly: Mandela says it is not the absence of fear but the triumph over it; the brave man is he who conquers fear.
- Missing the theme of freedom for all: his own hunger for freedom grew into a hunger for the freedom of his people; chains on one are chains on all.
- Taking 'the sun shall never set on so glorious a human achievement' literally; it is a metaphor for a free, lasting South Africa.
- Writing the summary as a list of events only; the extract is a reflective autobiographical piece, so mention the generals' salute and the heroes he honours.

Evaluator's note: Award step marks as shown; accept any correct alternative method. In internal-choice questions, evaluate only the option attempted. Deduct up to ½ mark for missing units or figures where required.

MASTERMIND