Mistakes to avoid:

- Mixing the two stories: 'His First Flight' is about a young seagull (Liam O'Flaherty); 'The Black Aeroplane' is about a pilot (Frederick Forsyth).
- Saying the mother pushed the seagull off the ledge; she tempted him with a piece of fish, and he plunged when hunger and need overcame fear.
- Forgetting the lesson: fear is overcome by need and a bold first step.
- Calling the aeroplane a 'jet'; the pilot flew an old Dakota over France back to England, calling Paris Control, and met a storm.
- Treating the black aeroplane as a proven ghost; the story leaves it a mystery, since the control tower said no other plane was in the sky.
- Writing the narrator as third person in 'The Black Aeroplane'; it is told in the first person by the pilot.

Evaluator's note: Award step marks as shown; accept any correct alternative method. In internal-choice questions, evaluate only the option attempted. Deduct up to ½ mark for missing units or figures where required.
