SECTION — A (Objective Type) — Answers — 10 × 1 = 10

Q.	Correct Option	Brief Reasoning
1	(b) internal conflict	The fight is within his mind.
2	(a) the black plane's sudden appearance and the radar's blank	The guide appears when he is lost but leaves no trace on radar.
3	(c) had not followed	Third conditional.
4	(a) simile	'like' compares.
5	(b) multiple interpretations	Readers decide.
6	(d) at the limit of his strength	Idiom for exhaustion.
7	(d) teacher using a lure	She guides by tempting.
8	(c) timid seagull and resolute pilot	One grows, the other perseveres.
9	(c) He leapt because he was hungry.	'because' introduces reason.
10	(d) third person	The author narrates about the bird.

SECTION — B (Very Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 2 = 8

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
11	The seagull learns he is capable of flight (1) once he acts despite fear (1).	1+1
12	He is a trained pilot (1) but exhaustion makes his perception doubtful (1).	1+1
13	The dark, stormy night creates fear and helplessness (1) and prepares the ground for the mysterious rescue (1).	1+1
14	Hunger forces him to choose between fear and food (1) and survival instinct wins (1).	1+1

SECTION — C (Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 3 = 12

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
15	The ledge above the sea provides danger (1). The wide sea signals freedom and fear (1). The setting makes the leap a physical and emotional climax (1).	1+1+1
16	It appears when he is lost (1). It leads him to safety (1). It can thus represent hope or guidance in despair (1).	1+1+1
17	I stood on the cold ledge, my heart hammering (1). Below, the sea roared and my family wheeled in the sky (1). I wanted to join them but my wings felt too weak (1).	1+1+1
	OR: As food it creates hunger and temptation (1). As symbol it stands for reward for effort (1). It links nature's need to personal growth (1).	1+1+1
18	Through precise technical details (1). Through the calm, factual tone of the pilot (1). Through the controller's matter-of-fact remarks (1).	1+1+1
	OR: A fish was offered to him by the mother seagull (1) and he was cheered by the family (1). Passive focuses on the receiver (1).	1+1+1

SECTION — D (Long Answer) — Answers — 2 × 5 = 10

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
19	Flight is the setting; fear is the theme (1). Most of the story is about hesitation (1). The leap is the climax (1). Flying is the proof that fear was unreal (1). The title suggests a beginning (1).	2+2+1
	OR: Continue from landing (1). New clue found (1). Pilot reacts (1). Mystery deepened or solved (1). Neat ending (1).	2+2+1
20	They are patient and watchful (1). They use hunger and temptation (1). Their method is risky but works (1). They celebrate afterwards (1). Judgement with reasons (1).	2+2+1
	OR: Seagull acts and flies (1). Pilot acts by following the guide (1). Waiting would have meant failure (1). Action needs courage (1). Conclusion (1).	2+2+1

Mistakes to avoid:

- Mixing the two stories: 'His First Flight' is about a young seagull (Liam O'Flaherty); 'The Black Aeroplane' is about a pilot (Frederick Forsyth).

- Saying the mother pushed the seagull off the ledge; she tempted him with a piece of fish, and he plunged when hunger and need overcame fear.
- Forgetting the lesson: fear is overcome by need and a bold first step.
- Calling the aeroplane a 'jet'; the pilot flew an old Dakota over France back to England, calling Paris Control, and met a storm.
- Treating the black aeroplane as a proven ghost; the story leaves it a mystery, since the control tower said no other plane was in the sky.
- Writing the narrator as third person in 'The Black Aeroplane'; it is told in the first person by the pilot.

Evaluator's note: Award step marks as shown; accept any correct alternative method. In internal-choice questions, evaluate only the option attempted. Deduct up to ½ mark for missing units or figures where required.
