SECTION — B (Very Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 2 = 8

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
11	She is surrounded by family and friends (1) yet cannot share her deepest feelings with anyone (1).	1+1
12	He found the poem witty (1) and realised that punishment would not change her nature (1).	1+1
13	It is a first-hand account (1) of a young person's life in the war years (1).	1+1
14	She is imaginative and sensitive (1) and wants a lasting companion (1).	1+1

SECTION — C (Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 3 = 12

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
15	She admits she has no real friend (1). She believes no one would care about her private views (1). She hopes the diary will listen (1).	1+1+1
16	A strict teacher and a lively student (1). Their duel is playful, not hostile (1). It ends in mutual respect (1).	1+1+1
17	Mr Keesing asked her to write an essay on a chatterbox (1). The imperative becomes an infinitive (1). Reporting verb 'asked' or 'told' is used (1).	1+1+1
	OR: It is true that paper does not argue (1). But it cannot reply or comfort (1). Hence it is a substitute and not a real friend (1).	1+1+1
18	It becomes her confidant in hiding (1). It records her fears and hopes (1). It is her way to preserve her voice (1).	1+1+1
	OR: Because Anne was lonely, she started a diary (1). Complex sentence using 'because' (1). Shows cause and effect (1).	1+1+1

SECTION — D (Long Answer) — Answers — 2 × 5 = 10

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
19	Lonely: wants a confidant (1). Witty: the duck poem (1). Honest: speaks freely (1). Resilient: makes light of punishment (1). Sensitive and thoughtful overall (1).	2+2+1
	OR: Greeting and stand (1). Reasons (1). Examples (1). Counter-argument (1). Conclusion (1).	2+2+1
20	She explains why she writes (1). She names her diary Kitty (1). She admits loneliness (1). She declares her hopes (1). It sets the tone of the book (1).	2+2+1
	OR: It shows one person's feelings (1). It uses daily details (1). It is written in simple honest language (1). It makes us empathise (1). It humanises war (1).	2+2+1

Mistakes to avoid:

- Calling Kitty a real friend; Kitty is the name Anne gives her diary, to which she writes as a close confidante.
- Wrong age/date details: Anne received the diary on her 13th birthday, 12 June 1942, and her sister Margot was three years older.
- Quoting 'paper has more patience than people' as the whole reason Anne writes; her reasons are loneliness and having no one to confide in fully.

- Leaving out the restrictions on Jews: the yellow star, no trams or cars, shopping only 3-5 pm, a curfew; these show the effect of Nazi rule on ordinary life.
- Showing only one side of Anne: she complains of loneliness but also writes in a lively, chatty manner; write the character sketch with both sides.
- Spelling slips: Kitty, confide, Jewish, Amsterdam, Margot; and using the wrong tense for what the diary recounts.

Evaluator's note: Award step marks as shown; accept any correct alternative method. In internal-choice questions, evaluate only the option attempted. Deduct up to ½ mark for missing units or figures where required.
