SECTION — B (Very Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 2 = 8

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
11	Naming creates a relationship (1) and turns a notebook into a confidante who 'listens' (1).	1+1
12	She felt no one would be interested (1) yet the world now reads it (1).	1+1
13	Ordinary: a teenager with school troubles (1). Extraordinary: her depth, honesty and courage under war (1).	1+1
14	The first reveals her inner need (1) while the second shows her outer social wit (1).	1+1

SECTION — C (Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 3 = 12

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
15	It states why she writes (1). It states to whom she writes (1). It also reveals her character and need, making it a thesis for the whole diary (1).	1+1+1
16	The writer chooses what to record (1). Entries can be short or reflective (1). So the narrative shows her mood, not a full history (1).	1+1+1
17	Date and 'Dear Diary' (1). Today I got a new bicycle (1). I rode it to school and my friends admired it (1). I felt very proud (1 - mark for diary tone).	1+1+1
	OR: She jokes about her chatter (1). She makes a witty poem (1). Humour distracts from, yet reveals, her need for companionship (1).	1+1+1
18	She writes about her own life (1). Many readers share her feelings (1). Hence her voice is both private and universal (1).	1+1+1
	OR: Anne was talkative whereas Margot was quiet (1). Unless she found a friend, she would stay lonely (1). Although she was lonely, she was cheerful (1).	1+1+1

SECTION — D (Long Answer) — Answers — 2 × 5 = 10

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
19	Opening defines diary as a friend (1). Kitty as listener (1). She records feelings, not facts (1). The Keesing story shows a lively mind (1). Conclusion (1).	2+2+1
	OR: Lencho writes to God (1). Anne writes to Kitty (1). Both seek help or understanding (1). Lencho expects answers; Anne expects silence (1). Both are comforted by writing (1).	2+2+1
20	Sadness: loneliness (1). Humour: Keesing episode (1). Humour as defence (1). Balance gives realism (1). Judgement (1).	2+2+1
	OR: Title and introduction (1). Summary (1). Style and tone (1). Strengths (1). Recommendation (1).	2+2+1

Mistakes to avoid:

- Calling Kitty a real friend; Kitty is the name Anne gives her diary, to which she writes as a close confidante.
- Wrong age/date details: Anne received the diary on her 13th birthday, 12 June 1942, and her sister Margot was three years older.

- Quoting 'paper has more patience than people' as the whole reason Anne writes; her reasons are loneliness and having no one to confide in fully.
- Leaving out the restrictions on Jews: the yellow star, no trams or cars, shopping only 3-5 pm, a curfew; these show the effect of Nazi rule on ordinary life.
- Showing only one side of Anne: she complains of loneliness but also writes in a lively, chatty manner; write the character sketch with both sides.
- Spelling slips: Kitty, confide, Jewish, Amsterdam, Margot; and using the wrong tense for what the diary recounts.

Evaluator's note: Award step marks as shown; accept any correct alternative method. In internal-choice questions, evaluate only the option attempted. Deduct up to ½ mark for missing units or figures where required.
