ANSWER KEY & MARKING SCHEME SET 1

Chapter 10: A Triumph of Surgery (Footprints Without Feet) | Class 10 English | Maximum Marks: 40

SECTION — A (Objective Type) — Answers — 10 × 1 = 10

Q.	Correct Option	Brief Reasoning
1	(b) Tricki	Tricki is Mrs Pumphrey's pet.
2	(c) her chauffeur	She had a driver.
3	(c) gifts	She was very generous.
4	(b) Mrs Pumphrey	She is the rich owner.
5	(d) surgery	He stayed in the vet's kennels.
6	(c) wealthy	Rich = wealthy.
7	(b) Pekingese	A small, long-haired dog.
8	(d) dogs	They played with him.
9	(c) thin	Fat x thin.
10	(a) James Herriot	Herriot wrote about his life as a vet.

SECTION — B (Very Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 2 = 8

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
11	The narrator is James Herriot (1), a young vet who works with Mr Farnon (1).	1+1
12	He kept him at the surgery (1) and gave him simple food and exercise (1).	1+1
13	She called it a triumph of surgery (1) though no operation had taken place (1).	1+1
14	She is a rich lady (1) who owns a pet dog called Tricki and loves him greatly (1).	1+1

SECTION — C (Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 3 = 12

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
15	Tricki is a small Pekingese belonging to Mrs Pumphrey. He is fat and lazy because he eats too many sweet and rich foods. He seldom walks or runs, so he is often breathless and dull.	1+1+1
16	She loved him as her own child. She thought he was very ill. She was afraid that she might lose him, so she cried when she left him with Herriot.	1+1+1
17	They played with him and ran about. They ate eagerly in his presence. By watching and joining them, Tricki forgot his laziness and became healthy.	1+1+1
	OR: Mrs Pumphrey is a rich, kind lady who loves her dog like a child. She gives him whatever he wants. This habit of spoiling him is her fault, though she means well.	1+1+1
18	She was delighted to see Tricki so healthy. She sent presents to Herriot to thank him. She also praised the cure as a triumph of surgery.	1+1+1
	OR: Mrs Pumphrey sent gifts to Herriot. She did this to thank him. The gifts show that she is rich and generous.	1+1+1

SECTION — D (Long Answer) — Answers — 2 × 5 = 10

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
19	Mrs Pumphrey is a rich widow who owns a Pekingese called Tricki. She has a chauffeur and a big house. (2) She loves Tricki too much and feeds him rich food all day. This is why he becomes ill. (2) She is kind and generous, sending gifts to Herriot. (1)	2+2+1
	OR: Write the address, date and 'Dear friend'. (2) Introduce the story and its writer, tell about Mrs Pumphrey, Tricki and the cure, and say what you liked, especially the humour. (2) End with good wishes and your name. (1)	2+2+1
20	Tricki is a small Pekingese dog, pet of Mrs Pumphrey. He is fed so much that he becomes fat and lazy. (2) At the surgery he joins other dogs, plays with them and eats properly. He becomes healthy again. (2) He is the centre of the story. (1)	2+2+1
	OR: The title means a great success of surgery. (2) It is ironic because Tricki was never operated upon. Mrs Pumphrey used these words out of her ignorance. (2) The title thus makes a joke about her. (1)	2+2+1

Mistakes to avoid:

- Writing that Tricki had an operation; 'a triumph of surgery' is Mrs Pumphrey's mistaken phrase, as Herriot cured Tricki only by diet and exercise.
- Calling Mrs Pumphrey a poor owner; she is a rich, kind-hearted lady who overfeeds and pampers her Pekinese out of love.
- Naming the narrator wrongly: the vet is Herriot, who tells the story in the first person; Siegfried is his employer.
- Missing the humour: she writes as if from Tricki and calls Herriot 'Uncle Herriot'; mention the letters and gifts.
- Not tying the title to the moral: too much love can harm, and Herriot's practical treatment saved the dog.
- Spelling slips: Pekinese, Pumphrey, surgery, Herriot, overfed; and mixing 'who' and 'whose'.

Chapter 10: A Triumph of Surgery (Footprints Without Feet) | Class 10 English | Maximum Marks: 40

SECTION — A (Objective Type) — Answers — 10 × 1 = 10

Q.	Correct Option	Brief Reasoning
1	(a) lively and active	They helped Tricki become active.
2	(d) dogs	Add -s.
3	(b) veterinary doctor	He treats animals.
4	(d) other dogs eating	Their example gave him an appetite.
5	(b) a	'Pekingese' begins with a consonant sound.
6	(d) Mr Farnon	Mr Farnon is his senior.
7	(d) fit and lively	He recovered.
8	(a) ate	Eat - ate - eaten.
9	(d) rich	She has a chauffeur.
10	(d) healthy	She was delighted.

SECTION — B (Very Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 2 = 8

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
11	The other dogs at the surgery helped (1) by playing and eating with him (1).	1+1
12	She sent him presents (1) to thank him for curing Tricki (1).	1+1
13	Tricki is a small Pekingese (1) who is spoilt and overweight (1).	1+1
14	He wanted to eat too (1) and so his appetite came back (1).	1+1

SECTION — C (Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 3 = 12

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
15	Mrs Pumphrey fed him cakes, cream and chocolates all day. He did not play or walk. The over-feeding and lack of exercise made him fat, tired and sick.	1+1+1
16	It means a great success of an operation. In the story it is her wrong belief that an operation cured Tricki. In fact he got well through food, exercise and friendship.	1+1+1
17	He knew that he had only used simple methods. He did not perform any surgery. So he felt that the praise was undeserved but he did not tell her.	1+1+1
	OR: Herriot said that Tricki must stay at the surgery for some days. He said the dog needed rest and a proper diet. Mrs Pumphrey agreed, though she was very sad.	1+1+1
18	Herriot let Tricki play with other dogs. He made him walk and run about. This exercise and company helped Tricki grow fit and cheerful.	1+1+1
	OR: The pampered dog and its letters are funny. The lady's fuss over a fat pet and her use of 'triumph of surgery' make us smile. The tone is light throughout.	1+1+1

SECTION — D (Long Answer) — Answers — 2 × 5 = 10

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
19	Herriot is a young vet who works with Mr Farnon. He is clever and gentle. (2) He understands that Tricki needs exercise and plain food, not an operation. He handles the owner politely. (2) He does not take false credit but is happy that the dog is cured. (1)	2+2+1
	OR: The story is full of humour. Mrs Pumphrey's letters from Tricki are funny. (2) Her fuss over the dog and calling Herriot 'Uncle' make us laugh. The idea of surgery that never happened is also comic. (2) The humour is gentle. (1)	2+2+1
20	Mrs Pumphrey spoils her dog Tricki with rich food, and he falls ill. She calls Herriot, who takes the dog to his surgery. (2) There Tricki meets other dogs, plays and eats properly, and soon recovers. (2) Mrs Pumphrey is delighted and says it is a triumph of surgery, though no operation was done. (1)	2+2+1
	OR: In the kennel Tricki was surrounded by active dogs. They ran, barked and played. (2) Tricki at first watched, then joined them. At mealtimes they ate eagerly, so he did too. (2) The scene shows how company helps recovery. (1)	2+2+1

Mistakes to avoid:

- Writing that Tricki had an operation; 'a triumph of surgery' is Mrs Pumphrey's mistaken phrase, as Herriot cured Tricki only by diet and exercise.
- Calling Mrs Pumphrey a poor owner; she is a rich, kind-hearted lady who overfeeds and pampers her Pekinese out of love.
- Naming the narrator wrongly: the vet is Herriot, who tells the story in the first person; Siegfried is his employer.
- Missing the humour: she writes as if from Tricki and calls Herriot 'Uncle Herriot'; mention the letters and gifts.
- Not tying the title to the moral: too much love can harm, and Herriot's practical treatment saved the dog.

7	(c) lazy	It describes the dog.
8	(c) exercise	He never ran about.
9	(b) Uncle Herriot	A playful name.
10	(d) humorous	It is funny and warm.

SECTION — B (Very Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 2 = 8

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
11	Mr Farnon is a senior vet (1) and Herriot's employer (1).	1+1
12	He ate too much rich food (1) and did not take any exercise (1).	1+1
13	She was very happy (1) because he was lively again (1).	1+1
14	In fact, Mrs Pumphrey writes them (1) as if Tricki himself were writing, calling Herriot 'uncle' (1).	1+1

SECTION — C (Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 3 = 12

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
15	At the surgery Tricki was kept with other dogs. He was given simple food. He played with the dogs every day and slowly became lively and healthy again.	1+1+1
16	Tricki is the pet Pekingese. Mrs Pumphrey is his rich owner. Herriot is the young vet who cures him. Mr Farnon, the senior vet, is also mentioned.	1+1+1
17	He was a fat dog, lying on a cushion. He was dull, breathing heavily and not interested in anything around him.	1+1+1
	OR: At first he refused his food. But he saw the other dogs eating hungrily. He then joined them and began to enjoy his meals, which brought back his appetite.	1+1+1
18	She writes as if Tricki can write. She calls Herriot 'uncle'. This shows her love for the dog and makes the story humorous.	1+1+1
	OR: We should not spoil pets or people with too much indulgence. Exercise and a proper diet are necessary for health. Love should be sensible and not blind.	1+1+1

SECTION — D (Long Answer) — Answers — 2 × 5 = 10

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
19	Tricki was ill because of over-feeding at home. Mrs Pumphrey could not stop pampering him. (2) At the surgery Herriot could control his food and give him exercise. The company of other dogs would also help. (2) So keeping him away was the best treatment. (1)	2+2+1
	OR: Date and 'Dear Diary'. (2) Say that you feel light and happy, remember the dogs you met at the surgery, and describe what you ate. Mention that your mistress is glad and that you will run in the garden daily. (2) Close with thanks to Uncle Herriot. (1)	2+2+1
20	Tricki came as a fat, lazy and sad dog who refused food. (2) At the surgery he saw other dogs eating, so he ate too. He played with them every day and lost weight. (2) After some days he was fit and cheerful. (1)	2+2+1
	OR: We should love our pets but not spoil them. They need proper food and exercise. (2) Mrs Pumphrey's mistake made Tricki ill, and simple care made him well. (2) Therefore love must be wise. (1)	2+2+1

Mistakes to avoid:

- Writing that Tricki had an operation; 'a triumph of surgery' is Mrs Pumphrey's mistaken phrase, as Herriot cured Tricki only by diet and exercise.
- Calling Mrs Pumphrey a poor owner; she is a rich, kind-hearted lady who overfeeds and pampers her Pekinese out of love.
