Mistakes to avoid:

- Calling Horace Danby a professional thief; he is a respectable locksmith who steals once a year to buy rare books.
- Writing that Horace opened the safe at the Grange for his own plan; he opened it for the young lady who tricked him with a false story.
- Saying the lady was the owner's wife; she was a thief in disguise, while the real wife was a grey-haired woman of sixty.
- Missing the clue of his fingerprints: he took off his gloves to give her the lighter and opened the safe without them.
- Stating the title's meaning wrongly: the 'question of trust' is whether to trust a stranger; Horace trusted too easily and was caught.
- Spelling slips: Horace Danby, locksmith, Shotover Grange, fingerprints, hay fever; and 'honour among thieves'.

Evaluator's note: Award step marks as shown; accept any correct alternative method. In internal-choice questions, evaluate only the option attempted. Deduct up to ½ mark for missing units or figures where required.
