SECTION — C (Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 3 = 12

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
15	It combines two ideas that do not belong together: footprints and no feet. This puzzle creates curiosity. It also prepares us for a story of mystery.	1+1+1
16	Small details like snow, cold weather and a constable make the event feel real. The scientific idea is wrapped in everyday settings. This makes the fantasy convincing.	1+1+1
17	Griffin hid his face with bandages so that nobody recognised him. Simple past in both.	1+1+1
	OR: He is brilliant but secretive and selfish. He never thinks of helping others and misuses his power. A good scientist works for humanity, so Griffin stands as a negative example.	1+1+1
18	Griffin's escape by vanishing leaves the reader uneasy. He is free but still a danger. The open ending suggests that the problem is not solved.	1+1+1
	OR: (a) What did the boys see? (b) What was Griffin?	1+1+1

	OR: Date (1). The chase (1). The cold and hunger (1). Bitterness (1). Plan for the future (1).	2+2+1

Mistakes to avoid:

- Calling Griffin a thief by profession; he is a brilliant scientist who discovered how to make the human body transparent.
- Saying invisibility is magic; the story explains it as a scientific experiment that makes the body transparent as glass.
- Forgetting Griffin's lawless nature: after being threatened with eviction by his landlord he set fire to the house, and he then had to remove his clothes to stay unseen.
- Writing that Griffin used his gift to help others; he used it for stealing and escaping and found it hard to live with.

- Confusing the source: the original story, The Invisible Man, is by H. G. Wells, a science-fiction writer.
- Spelling slips: Griffin, invisible, footprints, experiment, transparent; and tense errors in a narrative summary.

Evaluator's note: Award step marks as shown; accept any correct alternative method. In internal-choice questions, evaluate only the option attempted. Deduct up to ½ mark for missing units or figures where required.
