ANSWER KEY & MARKING SCHEME SET 1

Chapter 14: Footprints Without Feet (Footprints Without Feet) | Class 10 English | Maximum Marks: 40

SECTION — A (Objective Type) — Answers — 10 × 1 = 10

Q.	Correct Option	Brief Reasoning
1	(b) his greatest triumph becomes his greatest burden	Triumph brings isolation.
2	(a) he is both gifted and morally flawed	Complex.
3	(d) careful	Careful.
4	(a) cautious and questioning	He warns against misuse.
5	(c) footprints, hunger and cold remain	Physical limits.
6	(a) When the boys saw the prints, they followed them.	Subordinate clause.
7	(c) the impossibility of total concealment	Traces remain.
8	(b) Unless scientists act responsibly, discoveries may do harm.	Correct conditional.
9	(c) Is Griffin more to blame than the villagers?	Debatable.
10	(a) he assumed power would bring happiness without thinking of its limits	Short-sighted.

SECTION — B (Very Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 2 = 8

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
11	It stands for power without accountability (1) and for the isolation of a person cut off from human ties (1).	1+1
12	A discovery brings obligation to the public (1) and secrecy and selfish use betray that duty (1).	1+1
13	Plain, factual narration treats the fantastic as real (1) and that increases the sense of eeriness (1).	1+1
14	Their fear and aggression escalate the chase (1) but Griffin's thefts began the trouble, so blame is shared (1).	1+1

SECTION — C (Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 3 = 12

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
15	Griffin's ambition drives him to a discovery but not to ask how it should be used. He uses it selfishly and suffers. The story criticises not science but the lack of conscience.	1+1+1
16	Invisibility does not protect against cold, hunger or pursuit. His traces still reveal him. Safety needs trust and community, not secrecy.	1+1+1
17	Knowledge gained through shared learning should benefit all. Griffin treats his discovery as private property. The story shows the cost of such secrecy.	1+1+1
	OR: The first signs, such as footprints and the covered stranger, are given without explanation. The reader gathers clues like a detective. The revelation gains force from the delay.	1+1+1
18	Griffin has knowledge but lacks wisdom. Wisdom would guide the use of knowledge for good. The story suggests that knowledge alone is not enough.	1+1+1
	OR: Griffin's strangeness causes fear. People do not try to understand him. The story hints that fear of difference can be as harmful as the difference itself.	1+1+1

SECTION — D (Long Answer) — Answers — 2 × 5 = 10

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
19	Define cautionary tale (1). Griffin's discovery (1). Misuse and consequences (1). Role of society (1). Evaluation (1).	2+2+1
	OR: Opening (1). Discovery (1). Temptation (1). Consequence (1). Moral ending (1).	2+2+1
20	Opening footprints (1). Withholding explanation (1). The disguise (1). The chase (1). The final vanishing (1).	2+2+1
	OR: Footprints as traces (1). Invisibility as isolation (1). Clothes as disguise (1). Winter as hardship (1). Overall effect (1).	2+2+1

Mistakes to avoid:

- Calling Griffin a thief by profession; he is a brilliant scientist who discovered how to make the human body transparent.
- Saying invisibility is magic; the story explains it as a scientific experiment that makes the body transparent as glass.
- Forgetting Griffin's lawless nature: after being threatened with eviction by his landlord he set fire to the house, and he then had to remove his clothes to stay unseen.
- Writing that Griffin used his gift to help others; he used it for stealing and escaping and found it hard to live with.
- Confusing the source: the original story, The Invisible Man, is by H. G. Wells, a science-fiction writer.
- Spelling slips: Griffin, invisible, footprints, experiment, transparent; and tense errors in a narrative summary.

10	(d) reckless	Reckless.

SECTION — B (Very Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 2 = 8

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
11	It starts with small strange events (1) and rises quickly to a chase and escape (1).	1+1
12	He wishes to move among people (1) though he rejects them, which shows an inner conflict (1).	1+1
13	It shows the effect without the cause (1) and invites the reader to imagine the unseen (1).	1+1
14	Fear is shown in the villagers and in Griffin himself (1) and fear leads both to rash action (1).	1+1

SECTION — C (Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 3 = 12

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
15	Cold, snow and open streets make life hard for a man without clothes. The weather forces him to dress and so be noticed. The setting turns his power into a hardship.	1+1+1
16	The narrator reports events plainly without judging. This lets readers decide for themselves. The detachment also keeps the mood eerie.	1+1+1
17	I would state the time, place and the boys' report of footprints. I would give witness accounts of the chase and the sudden disappearance. I would avoid speculation.	1+1+1
	OR: Like Victor Frankenstein, Griffin creates something that harms him. Both are isolated by their work. Their stories warn that creators bear responsibility.	1+1+1
18	The footprints raise questions at once. They draw the reader into the mystery. Starting with a small detail makes the large revelation more striking.	1+1+1
	OR: By describing events in a plain way without explanation. We too see marks and hear voices but no man. The reader's uncertainty matches theirs.	1+1+1

SECTION — D (Long Answer) — Answers — 2 × 5 = 10

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
19	Introduction (1). Griffin's power (1). His irresponsibility (1). Real-life examples (1). Conclusion (1).	2+2+1
	OR: Griffin's lack of ethics (1). Need for rules (1). Examples of regulation (1). Role of scientists (1). Conclusion (1).	2+2+1
20	Griffin: knowledge without ethics (1). Villagers: fear without understanding (1). Their clash (1). Outcome: no resolution (1). The writer's message (1).	2+2+1
	OR: Format (1). The scientist's appeal (1). Griffin's fear and pride (1). Debate on responsibility (1). Result (1).	2+2+1

Mistakes to avoid:

- Calling Griffin a thief by profession; he is a brilliant scientist who discovered how to make the human body transparent.
- Saying invisibility is magic; the story explains it as a scientific experiment that makes the body transparent as glass.
- Forgetting Griffin's lawless nature: after being threatened with eviction by his landlord he set fire to the house, and he then had to remove his clothes to stay unseen.
- Writing that Griffin used his gift to help others; he used it for stealing and escaping and found it hard to live with.
- Confusing the source: the original story, The Invisible Man, is by H. G. Wells, a science-fiction writer.
- Spelling slips: Griffin, invisible, footprints, experiment, transparent; and tense errors in a narrative summary.

Chapter 14: Footprints Without Feet (Footprints Without Feet) | Class 10 English | Maximum Marks: 40

SECTION — A (Objective Type) — Answers — 10 × 1 = 10

Q.	Correct Option	Brief Reasoning
1	(b) selfish misuse of discovery	Critique.
2	(a) leave the reader uneasy about what Griffin may do next	Open ending.
3	(d) he had worked alone and secretly for long	Implied.
4	(a) has both benefits and harms	Idiom.
5	(b) the title points to presence without a visible source, which is the heart of the mystery	Symbolic reading.
6	(a) was in serious trouble	Idiom.
7	(a) Do you think Griffin deserved the people's fear?	Judgement.
8	(a) hostile	Hostile.
9	(c) secrecy can lead to misuse	Danger of secrecy.
10	(c) Unchecked scientific power without conscience isolates and endangers its user	Theme.

SECTION — B (Very Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 2 = 8

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
11	He escapes some control (1) but is bound by hunger, cold and pursuit, so the freedom is false (1).	1+1
12	His thefts and defiance threaten (1) while his cold, hunger and loneliness invite sympathy (1).	1+1
13	It leaves the danger unresolved (1) and invites reflection on what society should do (1).	1+1
14	It lets facts create fear (1) instead of emotional comment, which is more effective (1).	1+1

SECTION — C (Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 3 = 12

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
15	The crowd stands for society. Its fear drives the chase and creates the climax. It also shows how fear may turn people into a mob.	1+1+1
16	The invisible man was feared by people. The passive places the invisible man first, so attention falls on him.	1+1+1
17	His genius gave him a rare power, yet it isolated him. Choosing selfishness was his fault. He is both victim and cause.	1+1+1
	OR: The title speaks of footprints with no feet. The final scene shows Griffin vanishing, leaving only marks and astonishment. The title thus sums up the central image.	1+1+1
18	Griffin, a scientist who misused his discovery, became a fugitive. A relative clause and apposition join the sentences.	1+1+1
	OR: Griffin removes his clothes to escape and so becomes totally unseen. His freedom comes with deeper loneliness. The irony is that escape confirms isolation.	1+1+1

SECTION — D (Long Answer) — Answers — 2 × 5 = 10

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
19	Title and author (1). Summary (1). Strengths: mystery, theme (1). Weakness: lack of resolution (1). Recommendation (1).	2+2+1
	OR: Technology gives power (1). Misuse such as privacy loss (1). Fear of the unknown (1). Need for ethics (1). Conclusion (1).	2+2+1
20	Statement (1). Reasons for sympathy: loneliness (1). Reasons against: theft (1). Balanced judgement (1). Conclusion (1).	2+2+1
	OR: It has a clear central image (1). Complete mini-plot (1). Open ending (1). Strong theme (1). Overall judgement (1).	2+2+1

Mistakes to avoid:

- Calling Griffin a thief by profession; he is a brilliant scientist who discovered how to make the human body transparent.
- Saying invisibility is magic; the story explains it as a scientific experiment that makes the body transparent as glass.
- Forgetting Griffin's lawless nature: after being threatened with eviction by his landlord he set fire to the house, and he then had to remove his clothes to stay unseen.
