ANSWER KEY & MARKING SCHEME SET 1

Chapter 16: The Necklace (Footprints Without Feet) | Class 10 English | Maximum Marks: 40

SECTION — A (Objective Type) — Answers — 10 × 1 = 10

Q.	Correct Option	Brief Reasoning
1	(a) Guy de Maupassant	Maupassant, the French writer.
2	(c) the most admired woman	She was a great success.
3	(b) the Loisels sacrificed ten years for a worthless necklace	Irony of fate.
4	(c) Mathilde Loisel	Mathilde Loisel.
5	(b) the necklace was lost	The necklace was missing.
6	(b) do not be proud or pretentious about appearances; be honest	Vanity leads to ruin.
7	(b) clerk in the Ministry of Education	A small government clerk.
8	(d) 36,000 francs	A costly replacement.
9	(b) imitation jewellery	Paste = glass imitation.
10	(b) longed for a life of luxury she could not have	She felt born for luxury.

SECTION — B (Very Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 2 = 8

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
11	Mathilde was a pretty woman married to a clerk (1) who was unhappy because she longed for wealth and luxury (1).	1+1
12	She was the prettiest and most admired woman (1) and enjoyed herself fully (1).	1+1
13	She dismissed her maid and moved to a cheap flat (1) and did all the housework herself for ten years (1).	1+1
14	She had no suitable dress or jewels (1) and feared looking poor among the rich guests (1).	1+1

SECTION — C (Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 3 = 12

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
15	Mathilde was pretty and charming but discontented. She felt she was born for luxury and was unhappy with her modest life. Her dreams of grandeur made her blind to her husband's kindness.	1+1+1
16	Mathilde, now rough and aged, meets her friend and tells her the truth. Madame Forestier reveals the necklace was paste. Ten years of suffering had been for nothing.	1+1+1
17	Mathilde told her friend that she had lost her necklace. 'Said to' becomes 'told' and tense and pronouns change.	1+1+1
	OR: He gave up the money saved for a gun to buy her a dress. He suggested she wear flowers if she had no jewels. He worked ten years to repay the debt without blaming her.	1+1+1
18	The ball is a moment of triumph for Mathilde. It also starts the chain of loss. It shows how brief pleasure can lead to long pain.	1+1+1
	OR: Mathilde was happy at the ball but she lost the necklace. Both verbs are in the simple past.	1+1+1

SECTION — D (Long Answer) — Answers — 2 × 5 = 10

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
19	Pretty but discontented (1). Vain and proud, longing for luxury (1). Borrows a necklace for a night of glory (1). After the loss works hard for ten years (1). Learns a bitter lesson (1).	2+2+1
	OR: Date (1). Joy at being admired (1). The sudden loss of the necklace (1). Fear and shame (1). Resolve to find it (1).	2+2+1
20	He gave up his savings for a gun (1). Offered a way out for the ball (1). Searched for the necklace (1). Borrowed heavily and worked ten years (1). He never blamed his wife (1).	2+2+1
	OR: Format (1). Surprise of meeting (1). Mathilde's confession (1). Forestier's revelation (1). Closing emotion (1).	2+2+1

Mistakes to avoid:

- Calling Mathilde rich; she is a middle-class woman who dreams of luxury, married to a petty clerk in the Ministry of Education.
- Writing that the necklace was real; Madame Forestier's necklace was paste, worth at most 500 francs, so the sacrifice was needless.
- Mixing up the cost: the Loisels paid 36,000 francs for the replacement and spent ten years repaying the debts.

- Not stating the moral: pride and vanity and not telling the truth lead to ruin; honesty at the start would have saved them.
- Saying Mathilde's husband was lazy; M. Loisel was loyal and gave her the 400 francs he had saved for a gun.
- Spelling slips: Mathilde Loisel, Madame Forestier, necklace, francs, ball; and missing the ironic end.

Evaluator's note: Award step marks as shown; accept any correct alternative method. In internal-choice questions, evaluate only the option attempted. Deduct up to ½ mark for missing units or figures where required.
