Mistakes to avoid:

- Calling Mathilde rich; she is a middle-class woman who dreams of luxury, married to a petty clerk in the Ministry of Education.
- Writing that the necklace was real; Madame Forestier's necklace was paste, worth at most 500 francs, so the sacrifice was needless.
- Mixing up the cost: the Loisels paid 36,000 francs for the replacement and spent ten years repaying the debts.
- Not stating the moral: pride and vanity and not telling the truth lead to ruin; honesty at the start would have saved them.
- Saying Mathilde's husband was lazy; M. Loisel was loyal and gave her the 400 francs he had saved for a gun.
- Spelling slips: Mathilde Loisel, Madame Forestier, necklace, francs, ball; and missing the ironic end.

Evaluator's note: Award step marks as shown; accept any correct alternative method. In internal-choice questions, evaluate only the option attempted. Deduct up to ½ mark for missing units or figures where required.
