Mistakes to avoid:

- Taking 'crow' and 'hemlock' as symbols of good luck; they are traditionally ill omens, yet the dust of snow lifts the poet's mood: that is the contrast.
- Writing that the hemlock is the poisonous plant; here it is a hemlock tree (a conifer), so avoid calling it poison.
- Giving the wrong change of mood: the poet was in regret and gloom; the shower of snow saved part of his day, a tiny incident with a big effect.
- Mixing the device: 'the way a crow shook down on me the dust of snow' uses imagery and simple language; there is no simile in it.
- Ignoring the rhyme scheme abab (crow-snow, me-tree) and the poem's two short stanzas of four lines each.
- Spelling slips: hemlock, rued, crow, Robert Frost, mood; and 'rued' meaning regretted.
