8	(c) simple and conversational	Easy words.
9	(a) A Change of Heart	Effect on the poet.
10	(b) a single moment	A brief incident.

SECTION — B (Very Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 2 = 8

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
11	Both are associated with sorrow (1) but they bring joy instead (1).	1+1
12	The poem is about mood, not event (1) so the inner change is the point (1).	1+1
13	It describes the event (1) in simple physical images (1).	1+1
14	It is light and fine (1) and falls gently on the poet (1).	1+1

SECTION — C (Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 3 = 12

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
15	Crow and hemlock suggest gloom (1). They bring cheer (1). The reversal is the poem's twist (1).	1+1+1
16	Even in a bad day hope arrives (1). It may come from nature (1). We should stay open (1).	1+1+1
17	The poet said that his mood had changed (1). Present perfect becomes past perfect (1). Pronoun changes (1).	1+1+1
	OR: Stanza one gives cause (1). Stanza two gives effect (1). The balance makes the poem neat (1).	1+1+1
18	abab cdcd (1). It gives musical quality (1). It supports the quiet tone (1).	1+1+1
	OR: When the crow shook the snow, the poet felt happy (1). 'When' joins clauses (1). Complex sentence (1).	1+1+1

SECTION — D (Long Answer) — Answers — 2 × 5 = 10

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
19	Crow and hemlock as gloomy symbols (1). Snow as purity (1). Irony of cheer from gloom (1). Effect on mood (1). Overall meaning (1).	2+2+1
	OR: Format (1). The gloomy day (1). The crow and snow (1). The change (1). Closing (1).	2+2+1
20	Simple words (1). Short lines (1). A single incident (1). Deep theme of mood (1). Conclusion (1).	2+2+1
	OR: Setting (1). Character in low mood (1). The event (1). Change (1). Ending (1).	2+2+1

Mistakes to avoid:

- Taking 'crow' and 'hemlock' as symbols of good luck; they are traditionally ill omens, yet the dust of snow lifts the poet's mood: that is the contrast.
- Writing that the hemlock is the poisonous plant; here it is a hemlock tree (a conifer), so avoid calling it poison.
- Giving the wrong change of mood: the poet was in regret and gloom; the shower of snow saved part of his day, a tiny incident with a big effect.
- Mixing the device: 'the way a crow shook down on me the dust of snow' uses imagery and simple language; there is no simile in it.
- Ignoring the rhyme scheme abab (crow-snow, me-tree) and the poem's two short stanzas of four lines each.
- Spelling slips: hemlock, rued, crow, Robert Frost, mood; and 'rued' meaning regretted.

Evaluator's note: Award step marks as shown; accept any correct alternative method. In internal-choice questions, evaluate only the option attempted. Deduct up to ½ mark for missing units or figures where required.
