3	(a) fire and ice	Title.
4	(a) how the world will end	End of the world.
5	(b) serious and warning	He warns.
6	(a) uncontrolled desire and hatred	Moral.
7	(c) fire	Fire is one view.
8	(a) agree with those who say fire	Support.
9	(c) intense craving or greed	Passion.
10	(a) ice	Ice is the other view.

SECTION — B (Very Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 2 = 8

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
11	Some say it will end in fire (1) and others say it will end in ice (1).	1+1
12	Hatred is also highly destructive (1) so it too could end the world (1).	1+1
13	abaabcbcb (1) with the same sounds recurring (1).	1+1
14	Fire stands for desire (1) including greed and passion (1).	1+1

SECTION — C (Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 3 = 12

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
15	They are natural opposites (1). Fire is hot like passion (1). Ice is cold like hatred (1).	1+1+1
16	It makes the warning chilling (1). It avoids melodrama (1). It stays in the mind (1).	1+1+1
17	Fire as desire (1). Ice as hatred (1). The world's end as human self-destruction (1).	1+1+1
	OR: Some think the world will end in fire (1). Fire stands for desire (1). Desire can lead to greed and ruin (1).	1+1+1
18	A single stanza (1). Starts with two views (1). Ends with the poet's judgement (1).	1+1+1
	OR: The poet said that he knew enough of hate (1). Present becomes past (1). Pronoun 'I' becomes 'he' (1).	1+1+1

SECTION — D (Long Answer) — Answers — 2 × 5 = 10

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
19	Two views of the world's end (1). Fire is desire (1). Ice is hatred (1). Both destroy (1). We must control them (1).	2+2+1
	OR: Greeting (1). Poem (1). Examples (1). Advice (1). Closing (1).	2+2+1
20	Some say fire (1). Some say ice (1). Poet agrees with fire (1). But ice would also do (1). Warning (1).	2+2+1
	OR: Same poet (1). Both short (1). One hopeful, one grim (1). Symbols (1). Conclusion (1).	2+2+1

Mistakes to avoid:

- Taking 'fire' and 'ice' literally; fire stands for desire/greed and ice stands for hatred/coldness.
- Writing that the poet prefers ice; he says he favours fire but admits that ice would also 'suffice' for destruction.
- Missing the poem's idea: the world may end by human passions, not only by natural events; both are destructive.
- Giving the wrong rhyme scheme; the poem has nine lines with the pattern abaabcbcb.
- Calling the speaker a scientist; he is a reflective poet-observer who has 'tasted desire' and 'known hate'.
- Spelling slips: perish, destruction, suffice, favour, Robert Frost.

Evaluator's note: Award step marks as shown; accept any correct alternative method. In internal-choice questions, evaluate only the option attempted. Deduct up to ½ mark for missing units or figures where required.
