Mistakes to avoid:

- Taking 'fire' and 'ice' literally; fire stands for desire/greed and ice stands for hatred/coldness.
- Writing that the poet prefers ice; he says he favours fire but admits that ice would also 'suffice' for destruction.
- Missing the poem's idea: the world may end by human passions, not only by natural events; both are destructive.
- Giving the wrong rhyme scheme; the poem has nine lines with the pattern abaabcbcb.
- Calling the speaker a scientist; he is a reflective poet-observer who has 'tasted desire' and 'known hate'.
- Spelling slips: perish, destruction, suffice, favour, Robert Frost.

Evaluator's note: Award step marks as shown; accept any correct alternative method. In internal-choice questions, evaluate only the option attempted. Deduct up to ½ mark for missing units or figures where required.
