2	(c) extended metaphor	Fire and ice.
3	(a) had to perish	Hypothetical.
4	(c) personal feelings can shape global fate	Interlinked.
5	(a) a hypothesis and personal evidence	Reasoned structure.
6	(b) economy of expression	Compact.
7	(a) a relative clause	Defining clause.
8	(d) a hypothetical second destruction	Conditional.
9	(b) conversational rhythm	Speech-like.
10	(d) intense desire	Strong wish.

SECTION — B (Very Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 2 = 8

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
11	It reduces the world's end to emotions (1) so the cause becomes human behaviour (1).	1+1
12	He considers it fully enough to destroy (1) and thus as dangerous as desire (1).	1+1
13	Repeated sounds link ideas of fire and ice (1) and give a chant-like gravity (1).	1+1
14	It shifts from general opinion to individual judgement (1) and adds authority from experience (1).	1+1

SECTION — C (Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 3 = 12

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
15	The calm tone hides urgency (1). The comparison of emotions to catastrophe is a warning (1). It never preaches but makes us think (1).	1+1+1
16	No explicit hope (1). Implicit: if we control emotions the end can be avoided (1). The warning is the hope (1).	1+1+1
17	He said, 'Ice would also suffice.' (1). Quotation marks (1). Tense unchanged in modal (1).	1+1+1
	OR: Colloquial order (1). The experience is placed first (1). It sounds personal and persuasive (1).	1+1+1
18	It links destruction to emotions (1). Emotions are within our control (1). Hence we are responsible (1).	1+1+1
	OR: Neither fire nor ice is gentle (1). The world will end either in fire or in ice (1). Correlatives used correctly (1).	1+1+1

SECTION — D (Long Answer) — Answers — 2 × 5 = 10

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
19	Compact form (1). Symbolism (1). Moral implications (1). Tone (1). Conclusion (1).	2+2+1
	OR: First person (1). Colloquial words (1). Credibility (1). Effect (1). Conclusion (1).	2+2+1
20	Symbols (1). Irony (1). Tone (1). Link between them (1). Evaluation (1).	2+2+1
	OR: Greeting (1). Poem's idea (1). Warning (1). Appeal (1). Closing (1).	2+2+1

Mistakes to avoid:

- Taking 'fire' and 'ice' literally; fire stands for desire/greed and ice stands for hatred/coldness.
- Writing that the poet prefers ice; he says he favours fire but admits that ice would also 'suffice' for destruction.
- Missing the poem's idea: the world may end by human passions, not only by natural events; both are destructive.
- Giving the wrong rhyme scheme; the poem has nine lines with the pattern abaabcbcb.
- Calling the speaker a scientist; he is a reflective poet-observer who has 'tasted desire' and 'known hate'.
- Spelling slips: perish, destruction, suffice, favour, Robert Frost.

Evaluator's note: Award step marks as shown; accept any correct alternative method. In internal-choice questions, evaluate only the option attempted. Deduct up to ½ mark for missing units or figures where required.
