SECTION — A (Objective Type) — Answers — 10 × 1 = 10

Q.	Correct Option	Brief Reasoning
1	(a) every stanza ends with a futile clue	Pattern.
2	(a) gave a serious moral	Loses comedy.
3	(d) heard	Second conditional uses past.
4	(a) nonsense and light verse	Light verse.
5	(b) pretending to teach seriously	Parody.
6	(a) a clue is revealed too late	Anticlimax.
7	(a) a relative clause	Defining.
8	(d) bathos	From serious to ridiculous.
9	(c) linking character with fatal outcome	Comic logic.
10	(b) fierce	Wild.

SECTION — B (Very Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 2 = 8

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
11	It imitates field-guide logic (1) while each conclusion is absurdly fatal (1).	1+1
12	It treats death as a minor test (1) increasing absurdity (1).	1+1
13	Its facts are comic and incomplete (1) and its aim is amusement (1).	1+1
14	Idioms are instantly recognisable (1) so they make quick, effective jokes (1).	1+1

SECTION — C (Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 3 = 12

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
15	The voice is confident and cheerful (1). The content is deadly (1). The contrast generates satire (1).	1+1+1
16	Laughter eases anxiety (1). The message stays in mind (1). Readers remain cautious (1).	1+1+1
17	He warned them, 'Wild animals are unpredictable.' (1). Quotation marks (1). Tense changes to present (1).	1+1+1
	OR: It amuses first (1). It warns beneath the humour (1). So the fun carries a safety message (1).	1+1+1
18	It simplifies animals (1). It is harmless in comic form (1). But accurate facts need other sources (1).	1+1+1
	OR: No sooner had the lion roared than the tourist ran (1). Hardly had he smiled when the hyena came (1). Not only is the poem funny but it also warns (1).	1+1+1

SECTION — D (Long Answer) — Answers — 2 × 5 = 10

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
19	Parody (1). Irony (1). Warning beneath (1). Tone (1). Conclusion (1).	2+2+1
	OR: Greeting (1). Poem (1). Benefits (1). Examples (1). Closing (1).	2+2+1

	OR: Characters (1). Setting (1). Dialogue (1). Irony (1). Ending (1).	2+2+1

Mistakes to avoid:

- Writing that the poem teaches how to hunt; it is a humorous poem of comic clues, not a real guide to safety.
- Missing the humour: clues like the crocodile who weeps while eating you (crocodile tears) and the hyena who smiles show wit.
- Saying the poem is serious or scientific; its devices are hyperbole and irony, with each animal's trait twisted comically.
- Mixing the animals and clues; learn one clue per animal accurately and do not invent clues.
- Writing the wrong poet; the poet is Carolyn Wells and the poem has regular rhymes with comic wordplay.
- Spelling slips: hyena, crocodile, Bengal, leopard, jungle, humour.

Evaluator's note: Award step marks as shown; accept any correct alternative method. In internal-choice questions, evaluate only the option attempted. Deduct up to ½ mark for missing units or figures where required.
