| 8 | (d) a divide between human life and nature | Contrast. |
| 9 | (c) freedom | Freedom. |
| 10 | (d) a quiet witness to a transformation | Observer. |

SECTION — B (Very Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 2 = 8

| Q. | Expected Answer / Value Points | Marks |
|---|---|---|
| 11 | Trees are given desire and effort (1) so they stand for beings who seek freedom (1). | 1+1 |
| 12 | She is a quiet observer (1) who senses the trees' longing (1). | 1+1 |
| 13 | It has no rigid rhyme (1) just as the trees seek to be unbound (1). | 1+1 |
| 14 | To show it lacks trees (1) and that the trees' return will restore life (1). | 1+1 |

SECTION — C (Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 3 = 12

| Q. | Expected Answer / Value Points | Marks |
|---|---|---|
| 15 | Trees stand for captive beings (1). The room for restriction (1). The forest for freedom (1). | 1+1+1 |
| 16 | Slow description (1). Present continuous 'are moving' (1). The sense of imminent departure (1). | 1+1+1 |
| 17 | The poet said that the forest was empty (1). Tense backshifts (1). Statement preserved (1). | 1+1+1 |

| | OR: Setting (1). Plants (1). Plan (1). Escape (1). Ending (1). | 2+2+1 |

Mistakes to avoid:

- Saying the trees are outside the house moving in; the poem says the trees are moving out from the room toward the forest.
- Missing the personification: the trees try to leave, a symbol of freedom.
- Treating the poem as only about nature; it also suggests freedom from confinement, even women's longing for release.
- Mixing the poet: Adrienne Rich, who writes in free verse about nature and human liberty.
- Ignoring the images, such as the cold night and the moon 'broken like a mast'; write one image with its meaning.
- Spelling slips: glass, forest, personification, free verse, inching.

Evaluator's note: Award step marks as shown; accept any correct alternative method. In internal-choice questions, evaluate only the option attempted. Deduct up to ½ mark for missing units or figures where required.
