7	(b) living creature	Animal.
8	(b) peaceful	Quiet.
9	(a) a direct comparison	Definition.
10	(a) fleeting	Passing.

SECTION — B (Very Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 2 = 8

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
11	It gives fog quiet movement and watchful calm (1) making it vivid and familiar (1).	1+1
12	The fog hangs like a cat on a perch (1) covering both sea port and city (1).	1+1
13	It turns fog into a cat (1) and lets us see afresh (1).	1+1
14	The phrase suggests soft, silent steps (1) and gentle arrival (1).	1+1

SECTION — C (Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 3 = 12

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
15	Fog = cat (1). Feet, haunches, sitting, moving on (1). The metaphor is extended and consistent (1).	1+1+1
16	It ends the poem (1). It shows fog's nature (1). It gives a gentle conclusion (1).	1+1+1
17	The poet said that the fog sat over the city (1). Backshift (1). Statement preserved (1).	1+1+1
	OR: Few words (1). Strong image (1). Reader fills the picture (1).	1+1+1
18	Simile: fog is like a cat (1). Metaphor: fog is a cat (1). Metaphor feels more immediate (1).	1+1+1

	OR: Cat feet (1). Haunches (1). Harbour (1). City (1). Effect (1).	2+2+1

Mistakes to avoid:

- Calling it a simile; 'The fog comes on little cat feet' is a metaphor as it does not use 'like' or 'as'.
- Saying the poem is long and complex; it is a short six-line poem in free verse by Carl Sandburg.
- Writing that the fog is violent; it moves silently like a cat, sits on its haunches over harbour and city, and then moves on.
- Missing the point: the cat's quiet, soft movement is the central image, and 'haunches' fits the cat's crouch.
- Saying the fog stays forever; the poem says it moves on, i.e. is temporary.
- Spelling slips: fog, haunches, harbour, Sandburg, metaphor.

Evaluator's note: Award step marks as shown; accept any correct alternative method. In internal-choice questions, evaluate only the option attempted. Deduct up to ½ mark for missing units or figures where required.
