3	(b) a non-defining relative clause	Extra info.
4	(a) Dust of Snow (short, image-driven)	Brief image poem.
5	(a) the cat is never directly named as the fog until it behaves like it	Implied via behaviour.
6	(b) economy	Spare.
7	(c) short-lived	Temporary.
8	(c) the silence of fog	Sound and sense.
9	(a) give the fog a sense of ownership	Watching.
10	(b) a quiet visitor in our lives like a mood	Possible.

SECTION — B (Very Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 2 = 8

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
11	It presents the fog through a single image (1) without commentary or explanation (1).	1+1
12	It makes the image objective (1) and lets readers directly experience the scene (1).	1+1
13	It does not use 'like' or 'as' (1) and equates fog with a cat (1).	1+1
14	A cat is quiet and domestic (1) so it matches fog's gentle, unthreatening presence (1).	1+1

SECTION — C (Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 3 = 12

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
15	It is vivid and consistent (1). It humanises fog gently (1). It may not capture fog's hazards (1).	1+1+1
16	It paints an image (1). No story or argument (1). The picture is complete in six lines (1).	1+1+1
17	He said, 'The fog has gone.' (1). Quotation marks (1). Tense changes (1).	1+1+1
	OR: Short lines (1). Smooth flow (1). Quick exit mimics passing (1).	1+1+1
18	Cat sitting (1). Silent haunches (1). Few verbs of action (1).	1+1+1
	OR: As soon as the sun rose, the fog lifted (1). While the fog stayed, the city was quiet (1). Although it was thick, it was gentle (1).	1+1+1

SECTION — D (Long Answer) — Answers — 2 × 5 = 10

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
19	Six lines (1). One image (1). Suggestion (1). Reader's role (1). Conclusion (1).	2+2+1
	OR: Pros (1). Cons (1). Fog example (1). Other examples (1). Judgement (1).	2+2+1
20	Metaphor (1). Imagery (1). Sound (1). Interplay (1). Evaluation (1).	2+2+1
	OR: Greeting (1). Poem (1). Technique (1). Exercise (1). Closing (1).	2+2+1

Mistakes to avoid:

- Calling it a simile; 'The fog comes on little cat feet' is a metaphor as it does not use 'like' or 'as'.
- Saying the poem is long and complex; it is a short six-line poem in free verse by Carl Sandburg.
- Writing that the fog is violent; it moves silently like a cat, sits on its haunches over harbour and city, and then moves on.
- Missing the point: the cat's quiet, soft movement is the central image, and 'haunches' fits the cat's crouch.
- Saying the fog stays forever; the poem says it moves on, i.e. is temporary.
- Spelling slips: fog, haunches, harbour, Sandburg, metaphor.

Evaluator's note: Award step marks as shown; accept any correct alternative method. In internal-choice questions, evaluate only the option attempted. Deduct up to ½ mark for missing units or figures where required.
