	OR: Greeting (1). Poem (1). Examples (1). Appeal (1). Closing (1).	2+2+1

Mistakes to avoid:

- Saying the poet scolds Anne; the poem is a talk between the poet and Anne about being loved for oneself.
- Mixing the idea: young men will not love Anne for herself while her yellow hair attracts them.
- Writing that Anne agrees to dye her hair out of vanity; she says she can dye it brown, black or carrot so that men may love her for herself.
- Missing the old religious man: he says only God can love a person for herself alone, not for outward looks.
- Confusing the poet: W. B. Yeats is an Irish poet; the poem has three stanzas with a repeating refrain.
- Spelling slips: despair, ramparts, honey-coloured, declare, refrain.

Evaluator's note: Award step marks as shown; accept any correct alternative method. In internal-choice questions, evaluate only the option attempted. Deduct up to ½ mark for missing units or figures where required.
