ANSWER KEY & MARKING SCHEME SET 1

Chapter 1: The Rise of Nationalism in Europe (History) | Class 10 Social Science | Maximum Marks: 40

SECTION — A (Objective Type) — Answers — 10 × 1 = 10

Q.	Correct Option	Brief Reasoning
1	(d) A free market would benefit the growing middle class	Middle-class liberals wanted markets without restrictions
2	(a) Mazzini wanted a democratic republic through popular revolution, Cavour worked through monarchy and diplomacy	Contrasting methods
3	(c) It was the result of a long process, such as the Act of Union of 1707	Gradual domination by England
4	(c) A movement valuing feeling, culture and folk traditions over pure reason	A cultural force for nationalism
5	(c) contractors who paid very low wages	Contractors supplied raw material
6	(a) Removal of tariffs and fewer currencies created a larger market	Tariff barriers fell
7	(c) It was the only state ruled by an Italian princely house	It could lead a movement without foreign rulers
8	(c) forcible incorporation of Ireland into the United Kingdom in 1801	The revolt led by Wolfe Tone failed
9	(b) it linked national identity to the culture of common people	Folk culture and the spirit of the nation
10	(b) check French expansion on its northern border	Belgium was added to it

SECTION — B (Very Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 2 = 8

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
11	He abolished the feudal system and freed peasants from serfdom and manorial dues (1); Guild restrictions were removed, favouring trade and the middle classes (1)	1+1
12	Middle classes tried to unify the German states into a nation-state governed by a parliament (1); It failed because the monarchy and military suppressed it, but showed the strength of nationalist feeling (1)	1+1
13	The revolt was by poor weavers with no organised support (1); The army crushed it and killed several weavers (1)	1+1
14	They felt that traditional institutions like monarchy, church and property gave stability (1); They wanted to undo the changes brought by the French Revolution and Napoleon (1)	1+1

SECTION — C (Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 3 = 12

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
15	Cavour was a diplomat and chief minister of Sardinia-Piedmont (1); He used an alliance with France and war against Austria in 1859 (1); Garibaldi was a military leader who led the Red Shirts and conquered the south in 1860; both complemented each other (1)	1+1+1
16	In Poland, Polish was used in church as resistance (1); Language preserved the national memory and culture (1); Publishing folk songs and literature in the national language created unity across classes (1)	1+1+1
17	It depended on the Prussian king, who rejected the crown (1); The aristocracy and the military opposed it (1); Middle-class liberals lacked support from workers and artisans (1)	1+1+1
	OR: Voting rights were restricted to property-owning men (1); Men without property and all women were excluded (1); Liberals stood for equality before law, not equal political rights for all (1)	1+1+1
18	Ottoman rule was weakening and Balkan peoples were rebelling (1); Different ethnic groups claimed freedom, referring to their earlier independence (1); Europe's Great Powers - Russia, Austria-Hungary, Germany, Britain - competed for influence (1)	1+1+1
	OR: Folk songs, poetry and dances were collected to represent the nation's spirit (1); Herder believed true German culture lay with the common people (1); Such cultural revival gave unity to people of different social classes (1)	1+1+1

SECTION — D (Long Answer) — Answers

2 × 5 = 10

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
19	Conservatives wanted to preserve monarchy, church and social hierarchies after 1815 (1); Liberals demanded constitutions, representative government and freedom of the press (1); Nationalists wanted nation-states based on common identity, which threatened multi-national empires (1); Revolutions of 1830 and 1848 showed these forces in conflict (1); Conservative regimes used censorship and the army, but the ideas persisted (1)	1+1+1+1+1
	OR: The middle classes, businessmen and small producers gained freedom of trade and property (1); Peasants were freed from serfdom and manorial dues (1); Guild restrictions were abolished, helping merchants (1); Heavy taxes, censorship and forced conscription angered people (1); Many saw it as foreign domination and nationalists resisted (1)	1+1+1+1+1
20	Italy was split into seven states under different rulers; Germany was a confederation of 39 states (1); Sardinia-Piedmont led Italy and Prussia led Germany (1); Italian unification used Cavour's diplomacy and Garibaldi's popular campaign (1); German unification used Bismarck's wars and military power (1); Both ended with monarchs as heads - Victor Emmanuel II in 1861 and William I in 1871 (1)	1+1+1+1+1
	OR: Food shortages and unemployment caused hunger riots in Paris in 1848 (1); Louis Philippe was forced to flee (1); A republic was proclaimed with the vote for all men above 21 (1); The right to work was guaranteed and national workshops were set up (1); The republic did not last long, but showed the power of popular revolt (1)	1+1+1+1+1

Mistakes to avoid:

- Mixing up Young Italy (Mazzini, Marseilles, 1831) with Young Europe (Berne, 1834); both are secret societies but different ones.
- Writing that the Congress of Vienna (1815) was hosted by Bismarck or Napoleon; it was hosted by Metternich of Austria.
- Treating the Napoleonic Code (1804) as part of the 1789 Revolution, or forgetting that it also exported to the regions he conquered.
- Saying Germany and Italy were unified in the same way: Germany by Prussia under Bismarck (wars with Denmark, Austria, France), Italy by Sardinia-Piedmont (Cavour, Garibaldi, Victor Emmanuel II).
- Using 'liberalism' in its modern sense; in the 19th century it meant individual freedom and equality before law, but the vote went only to property-owning men.
- Forgetting the key dates: 1789 (French Revolution), 1815 (Vienna), 1848 (revolutions of the liberals), 1871 (Wilhelm I proclaimed German Emperor at Versailles).

Evaluator's note: Award step marks as shown; accept any correct alternative method. In internal-choice questions, evaluate only the option attempted. Deduct up to ½ mark for missing units or figures where required.

MASTER

ANSWER KEY & MARKING SCHEME SET 2

Chapter 1: The Rise of Nationalism in Europe (History) | Class 10 Social Science | Maximum Marks: 40

SECTION — A (Objective Type) — Answers — 10 × 1 = 10

Q.	Correct Option	Brief Reasoning
1	(c) Feudal dues were abolished and administration simplified	Reforms in the Netherlands, Italy and Germany
2	(a) To defeat the Austrian forces in northern Italy	The 1859 war against Austria
3	(a) An abstract idea such as a nation could be given a concrete form	Allegory
4	(c) To keep alive national identity against Russian imposition	Language as a weapon
5	(a) universal male suffrage for men above 21	It guaranteed the right to work
6	(a) Increased taxation, censorship and forced conscription	Initial welcome gave way to hostility
7	(b) local peasants supported his campaign	He gained peasant support
8	(a) readiness to fight for the nation	Sword stands for readiness to fight
9	(a) Weak Ottoman rule, rising nationalism and great-power rivalry	Imperial and nationalist rivalries
10	(a) Russian rule	It was crushed

SECTION — B (Very Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 2 = 8

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
11	Women had organised political associations and campaigned (1); Yet they were refused the vote and could only be observers (1)	1+1
12	They conveyed ideas such as freedom and peace through visual symbols (1); This made abstract ideas of liberty and nation easy for ordinary people to recognise (1)	1+1
13	A nation is a people with shared culture and history, even without its own state (1); A nation-state is a political state in which most people share that identity (1)	1+1
14	Greece fought against foreign Ottoman rule with European sympathy (1); Italy had to unite many small states, some ruled by foreigners, some by Italian rulers (1)	1+1

SECTION — C (Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 3 = 12

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
15	Bourbon kings were overthrown and a constitutional monarchy installed (1); Belgium broke away from the United Kingdom of the Netherlands (1); Metternich's remark showed how France's revolution affected other nations (1)	1+1+1
16	The abstract idea of a nation could be shown through a person (1); Female figures such as Liberty and Justice were already used in art (1); They gave the nation a recognisable image that ordinary people could identify with (1)	1+1+1
17	Ireland was largely Catholic, while Protestants dominated the government (1); After the failed revolt of 1798 led by Wolfe Tone, Ireland was forcibly included in the United Kingdom in 1801 (1); A new British nation was built on the dominance of English culture (1)	1+1+1
	OR: Population growth caused unemployment (1); Cheap machine-made goods threatened small producers and peasants faced feudal obligations (1); Bad harvests and food shortages caused widespread poverty and uprisings (1)	1+1+1
18	He spread ideas of equality before law and modern administration (1); He removed old feudal structures in conquered lands (1); His rule also provoked nationalist resistance because of conscription, taxes and foreign domination (1)	1+1+1
	OR: To suppress liberal and nationalist ideas (1); Newspapers, books, plays and songs reflecting liberty were controlled (1); The regimes feared revolt against autocracy (1)	1+1+1

SECTION — D (Long Answer) — Answers — 2 × 5 = 10

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks

19	The educated middle class demanded constitution, parliament and freedom (1); Workers and artisans faced unemployment, low wages and food shortages (1); In France, the republic and national workshops were won by the pressure of workers (1); In Germany, the middle class dominated the Frankfurt Parliament and ignored workers' demands (1); Failure resulted from conflicting aims and the military's support to the monarchs (1)	1+1+1+1+1
	OR: It rested on the support of the middle classes alone (1); Workers and artisans were ignored (1); The Prussian king rejected the crown (1); The military and aristocracy were still powerful (1); Women were denied a role beyond observers, weakening the support base (1)	1+1+1+1+1
20	Marianne, with red cap, tricolour and cockade, represented France (1); Germania, with oak-leaf crown and sword, represented Germany (1); Flags, anthems and national colours gave a visual form to the idea of a nation (1); Allegories helped ordinary people connect with the nation (1); Artists such as Sorrieu used them to promote the dream of democratic republics (1)	1+1+1+1+1
	OR: After 1848 liberals looked to Prussia for leadership (1); Bismarck built a strong military with the army and bureaucracy (1); Three wars against Denmark, Austria and France were won (1); Victory against France brought the south German states in (1); The empire was proclaimed in 1871 with Prussian monarch as Kaiser (1)	1+1+1+1+1

Mistakes to avoid:

- Mixing up Young Italy (Mazzini, Marseilles, 1831) with Young Europe (Berne, 1834); both are secret societies but different ones.
- Writing that the Congress of Vienna (1815) was hosted by Bismarck or Napoleon; it was hosted by Metternich of Austria.
- Treating the Napoleonic Code (1804) as part of the 1789 Revolution, or forgetting that it also exported to the regions he conquered.
- Saying Germany and Italy were unified in the same way: Germany by Prussia under Bismarck (wars with Denmark, Austria, France), Italy by Sardinia-Piedmont (Cavour, Garibaldi, Victor Emmanuel II).
- Using 'liberalism' in its modern sense; in the 19th century it meant individual freedom and equality before law, but the vote went only to property-owning men.
- Forgetting the key dates: 1789 (French Revolution), 1815 (Vienna), 1848 (revolutions of the liberals), 1871 (Wilhelm I proclaimed German Emperor at Versailles).

Evaluator's note: Award step marks as shown; accept any correct alternative method. In internal-choice questions, evaluate only the option attempted. Deduct up to ½ mark for missing units or figures where required.

MASTER

ANSWER KEY & MARKING SCHEME SET 3

Chapter 1: The Rise of Nationalism in Europe (History) | Class 10 Social Science | Maximum Marks: 40

SECTION — A (Objective Type) — Answers — 10 × 1 = 10

Q.	Correct Option	Brief Reasoning
1	(a) restore monarchies and undo Napoleon's changes	A conservative order
2	(d) The King of Prussia rejected the crown and the army was used against it	Monarchy, aristocracy and the military opposed it
3	(d) Liberal-nationalists adopted these colours for the German nation	The Frankfurt Parliament used them
4	(c) They favoured property qualifications for voters	Liberalism then limited the vote to property-owning men
5	(c) Union Jack	United Kingdom's flag
6	(b) ignored the nationalist aspirations of peoples	Territorial arrangements disregarded nationalities
7	(d) Its army, bureaucracy and Bismarck's leadership were strong	Military strength mattered
8	(b) high prices, unemployment and food shortages caused hardship	Fuel for the 1848 revolts
9	(a) They wanted a constitution and markets without restrictions	Professionals, businessmen and the educated
10	(a) Rule by an absolute monarch	Liberals opposed absolutism

SECTION — B (Very Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 2 = 8

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
11	Ottoman decline allowed Balkan peoples to demand freedom (1); European powers backed different groups for their own imperial interests (1)	1+1
12	It sought a unified Italian republic (1); Mazzini's ideas of democracy and nation-states threatened existing monarchies (1)	1+1
13	Liberals depended on parliament and public opinion (1); Bismarck used the army, bureaucracy and wars - 'blood and iron' (1)	1+1
14	Scottish culture and political institutions were systematically suppressed (1); Highlanders speaking Gaelic were discouraged from using their language and dress (1)	1+1

SECTION — C (Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 3 = 12

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
15	The Kingdom of the Netherlands (with Belgium) was set up in the north (1); Genoa was added to Piedmont and Prussia gained western lands (1); These were meant to prevent French expansion in the future (1)	1+1+1
16	Open political activity was banned by conservative regimes (1); Secret societies organised revolts for a republic (1); Young Europe in Berne spread the ideas across the continent (1)	1+1+1
17	It made trade between regions easy (1); It connected the economy of a state (1); It created a sense of belonging to a single economic and political unit (1)	1+1+1
	OR: The liberal Frankfurt initiative failed (1); Prussia's army and bureaucracy under Bismarck won the wars with Austria, Denmark and France (1); The new empire was dominated by Prussia (1)	1+1+1
18	More than thirty currencies and customs barriers hindered trade (1); Different weights and measures complicated commerce (1); The Zollverein reduced currencies to two and boosted unity (1)	1+1+1
	OR: Napoleon's conquests spread revolutionary ideas (1); His administrative reforms modernised the conquered states (1); Resistance to him and the conservative order that followed fed nationalist movements (1)	1+1+1

SECTION — D (Long Answer) — Answers — 2 × 5 = 10

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks

19	The collapse of Ottoman power left a power vacuum (1); Slavic nationalism in Serbia and elsewhere clashed with Austria-Hungary (1); Great power rivalries over trade, colonies and military strength grew (1); Nationalism became a source of conflict rather than unity (1); These tensions drew Europe into war in 1914 (1)	1+1+1+1+1
	OR: Herder said the true spirit of a nation lay in its folk songs, poetry and dances (1); Collecting folk traditions united common people with the educated (1); Kurpinski turned folk dances into nationalist music in Poland (1); Language was preserved as a symbol, as in the use of Polish in churches (1); These cultural efforts created a sense of shared identity (1)	1+1+1+1+1
20	It restored the Bourbons and other monarchies (1); It created buffer states against France (1); It disregarded nationalities - the German confederation was left as it was, Poland divided, Italy fragmented (1); Liberal and nationalist movements arose against it (1); By 1848 the order broke down in several states (1)	1+1+1+1+1
	OR: Before the 18th century there were English, Welsh, Scot and Irish identities (1); The English parliament gained power over the monarchy (1); The Act of Union of 1707 created the United Kingdom of Great Britain (1); Scotland's culture was suppressed and Ireland was forced into the Union in 1801 (1); A new British identity with common flag and anthem was promoted (1)	1+1+1+1+1

Mistakes to avoid:

- Mixing up Young Italy (Mazzini, Marseilles, 1831) with Young Europe (Berne, 1834); both are secret societies but different ones.
- Writing that the Congress of Vienna (1815) was hosted by Bismarck or Napoleon; it was hosted by Metternich of Austria.
- Treating the Napoleonic Code (1804) as part of the 1789 Revolution, or forgetting that it also exported to the regions he conquered.
- Saying Germany and Italy were unified in the same way: Germany by Prussia under Bismarck (wars with Denmark, Austria, France), Italy by Sardinia-Piedmont (Cavour, Garibaldi, Victor Emmanuel II).
- Using 'liberalism' in its modern sense; in the 19th century it meant individual freedom and equality before law, but the vote went only to property-owning men.
- Forgetting the key dates: 1789 (French Revolution), 1815 (Vienna), 1848 (revolutions of the liberals), 1871 (Wilhelm I proclaimed German Emperor at Versailles).

Evaluator's note: Award step marks as shown; accept any correct alternative method. In internal-choice questions, evaluate only the option attempted. Deduct up to ½ mark for missing units or figures where required.

MASTER