13	The Rowlatt Act allowed detention without trial, which denied the basic right of a fair trial (1); It was passed against the wishes of all the Indian members and violated civil liberties, so Gandhi called it unjust (1).	1+1
14	The newspapers reported the march and its symbolic significance abroad (1); The simple act of making salt in defiance of the law was a powerful symbol that drew international attention (1).	1+1

SECTION — C (Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 3 = 12

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
15	The massacre of unarmed civilians at Jallianwala Bagh shocked the entire country (1); Martial law, floggings and humiliations like the crawling order in Punjab increased anger (1); Gandhi launched the Non-Cooperation Movement as a response, turning the anger into a mass movement (1).	1+1+1
16	The Inland Emigration Act of 1859 restricted plantation workers from leaving tea gardens without permission (1); They were treated like bonded labour with low wages and poor conditions in Assam (1); The Non-Cooperation Movement raised the hope of Gandhi Raj, and thousands left the plantations believing they would get land at home (1).	1+1+1
17	Alluri Sitaram Raju led the hill tribes of the Gudem Hills against forest laws restricting their free movement (1); He claimed to have special powers, and attacked police stations in a guerrilla war (1); His armed resistance did not match Gandhi's non-violent approach, though he admired Gandhi, and he was captured and executed in 1924 (1).	1+1+1
	OR: Muslim participation was limited as the Khilafat issue had ended and communal feelings increased (1); Many Muslims felt alienated from the Congress because of its close association with Hindu religious symbols and the Hindu Mahasabha (1); The Muslim League and its leaders, such as Jinnah, followed a separate path demanding reserved seats and safeguards (1).	1+1+1
18	The Khilafat issue, which had joined Hindus and Muslims, ended in the mid-1920s (1); Organisations such as the Muslim League and the Hindu Mahasabha became more active and drew communities apart (1); Communal riots broke out in many towns in the 1920s, weakening Hindu-Muslim unity (1).	1+1+1
	OR: Many radicals, including Jawaharlal Nehru, felt that the pact did not secure the demand for Purna Swaraj (1); It had not secured the government's promise of dominion status or removal of repression (1); Gandhi withdrew the movement in return for release of prisoners and agreed to attend the Round Table Conference, which many saw as a retreat (1).	1+1+1

SECTION — D (Long Answer) — Answers

2 × 5 = 10

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
19	(i) To detain political prisoners without trial for two years (1). (ii) General Dyer (1). (iii) To attend the annual Baisakhi fair (and some came to protest the government's repression) (1). (iv) Crowds took to the streets in many north Indian towns, with strikes, clashes and attacks on government buildings; the government responded with brutal repression (2).	1+1+1+2
20	Ambedkar organised the Depressed Classes Association in 1930 to represent Dalits politically (1); He demanded separate electorates at the Second Round Table Conference; Gandhi felt they would slow down integration of society (1); Gandhi fasted unto death in Yerwada jail, and Ambedkar accepted the compromise in September 1932 (1); The Poona Pact gave the Depressed Classes reserved seats in provincial and central legislative councils, voted by the general electorate (1); This satisfied neither side entirely, as Dalit leaders felt their political independence was limited, but it started their political representation (1).	1+1+1+1+1
	OR: Awadh peasants under Baba Ramchandra opposed talukdars' exactions, linking their struggle with the Non-Cooperation Movement (1); Tribals in the Gudem Hills led by Alluri Sitaram Raju resisted forest laws, linking to Gandhi's call for swaraj (1); In Kheda (1917) peasants joined a satyagraha against revenue demand after crop failure (1); Plantation workers in Assam left the gardens in the name of Gandhi Raj (1); These local movements joined the national struggle but also interpreted swaraj in their own ways, and the Congress could not control them (1).	1+1+1+1+1

Mistakes to avoid:

- Writing that the Non-Cooperation Movement was called off after Jallianwala Bagh; it was withdrawn in February 1922 after Chauri Chaura (Uttar Pradesh).
- Mixing Gandhiji's three early satyagrahas: Champaran (1917, indigo), Kheda (1917, crop failure) and Ahmedabad (1918, mill workers).
- Confusing the Khilafat issue (Muslim support, Ali brothers) with the Rowlatt satyagraha; they are separate causes that Gandhiji combined in 1920.
- Forgetting that the Salt March began on 12 March 1930 and salt law was broken at Dandi on 6 April; the Gandhi-Irwin Pact is 1931.
- Treating all groups as having the same view of Swaraj: Dalits (Ambedkar, separate electorates), Muslims, industrialists and peasants each had their own aims.
- Mixing up Poona Pact (1932) with the Communal Award; the pact replaced separate electorates by reserved seats.
