10	(b) Both A and R are true but R is not the correct explanation of A.	Both are true, but the second statement does not explain the venue or date of the conference.

SECTION — B (Very Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 2 = 8

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
11	Assembly-line production made goods like cars cheaper (1); Higher wages let workers buy them, linking mass production to mass consumption (1).	1+1
12	Terms of trade were unequal, with low prices for raw materials and high prices for manufactures (1); They wanted control over natural resources and development aid (1).	1+1
13	Railways moved grain and goods to ports quickly (1); Refrigerated ships lowered the cost of carrying meat, so food prices fell and markets were integrated (1).	1+1
14	Trade and incomes grew rapidly under the stable Bretton Woods system (1); New institutions like the IMF and the World Bank gave support for reconstruction (1).	1+1

SECTION — C (Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 3 = 12

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
15	The G-77 used collective strength to demand a fairer international order (1); The NIEO sought control over resources, fair prices and market access (1); Though limited in success, it increased their voice in global negotiations (1).	1+1+1
16	Indentured labour supplied cheap workers for colonial plantations, helping the colonies' economies (1); Workers were exploited, deceived and few got any benefit (1); Some escaped poverty and settled abroad, creating new cultures, but most suffered hardship (1).	1+1+1
17	The Bretton Woods fixed-rate system collapsed in the early 1970s and exchange rates began to float (1); Countries opened their markets for capital and TNCs shifted production to Asia (1); This accelerated the movement of capital, goods and technology across borders (1).	1+1+1
	OR: The wars exhausted European powers and weakened their hold on the colonies (1); Colonies supplied soldiers and resources and wanted freedom in return (1); After 1945 decolonisation followed and the US and the USSR became superpowers (1).	1+1+1
18	Colonisers used rinderpest in Africa to force wage labour after cattle died (1); Railways, steamships and the telegraph helped them move troops and extract resources (1); Thus disease and technology were used to impose control and exploit the colonies (1).	1+1+1
	OR: Ford paid high wages so that his workers could buy the cars they made (1); This created a mass market for consumer goods (1); Mass production thus needed mass consumption for the boom to continue (1).	1+1+1

SECTION — D (Long Answer) — Answers

2 × 5 = 10

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
19	(i) A bonded labourer under contract to work for an employer for a fixed period to repay the cost of passage (1). (ii) Five years (1). (iii) Any two of Trinidad, Guyana, Surinam, Mauritius, Fiji (1). (iv) Poverty, debts, unemployment and the decline of cottage industries; agents also gave false promises of work and a better life (2).	1+1+1+2
20	Decolonisation gave Asian and African countries independence but left them poor and dependent on rich countries (1); TNCs began to set up production in low-wage countries from the 1970s (1); The G-77 and NIEO demanded fairer trade (1); Manufacturing shifted to Asia, e.g. China, while western workers lost jobs (1); TNCs created employment and technology but also profited from cheap labour and weak regulation (1).	1+1+1+1+1
	OR: Peasants were hit by falling farm prices and fixed revenue, while industrial workers lost jobs in the Depression (1); Landowners lost with cheap imports after the Corn Laws ended, whereas industrialists and consumers gained (1); Indentured workers faced harsh conditions, but migrants also created new communities (1); Industrialists in India like Birla benefited from the wartime demand and later protection (1); In recent decades, workers in the West lost jobs while workers in Asia gained from TNC investment (1).	1+1+1+1+1

Mistakes to avoid:

- Describing the Silk Routes as a single road; they were a network of land and sea routes linking Asia, Europe and northern Africa.
- Saying Corn Laws encouraged imports; they restricted the import of corn, and their abolition made food cheaper and ruined British farmers.
- Calling rinderpest a human disease; it was a cattle plague that reached Africa in the 1890s.
- Equating indentured labour with slavery or free migration; it was bonded labour under a contract.
- Mixing up the IMF (short-term deficits and surpluses) with the World Bank (post-war reconstruction loans).
- Placing the Great Depression after the Second World War; it began in 1929, and Bretton Woods came later in 1944.

8	(a) Both A and R are true and R is the correct explanation of A.	Both true; R explains A
9	(c) A is true but R is false.	A is true. They faced harsh conditions and few legal rights, so R is false.
10	(d) A is false but R is true.	Indian cotton exports declined because of duties and competition from machine-made Manchester cloth, so A is false; R is true.

SECTION — B (Very Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 2 = 8

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
11	The dollar was linked to gold and other currencies to the dollar (1); The USA's strong economy gave it a leading role in the IMF and the World Bank (1).	1+1
12	Low wages cut the costs of production (1); This increases profits and helps the company compete (1).	1+1
13	Prices of raw materials and farm goods fell steeply (1); Colonial governments kept revenue demands fixed, so peasants were ruined (1).	1+1
14	Sea routes became faster, cheaper and could carry bulky goods (1); European sea powers took control of trade and shifted its centre away from the overland routes (1).	1+1

SECTION — C (Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 3 = 12

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
15	Landowners argued that the Corn Laws protected their incomes and domestic farming (1); Industrialists and urban people demanded cheaper food, so the laws were abolished in 1846 (1); Imports of food rose, the landed gentry weakened and industry gained (1).	1+1+1
16	TNCs buy goods from small producers at low prices or force them to meet strict standards (1); Small producers may lose business when large firms enter their markets (1); Some small firms become suppliers to TNCs and gain by learning technology (1).	1+1+1
17	Pasta came to Italy from China as noodles and potatoes from the Americas (1); Tomatoes, chillies and sweet potatoes are examples of new crops that changed diets (1); Our everyday food therefore reflects centuries of global exchange (1).	1+1+1
	OR: Colonies were organised as suppliers of raw materials and buyers of manufactured goods (1); This pattern continued after independence and made development difficult (1); Developing countries still depend on exports of primary goods with unstable prices (1).	1+1+1
18	Prices fell but peasants still had to pay revenue and rents (1); They borrowed money from moneylenders to pay (1); Their debts increased and many lost land or sold gold (1).	1+1+1
	OR: Countries raised import duties to protect domestic industries (1); World trade shrank, with exporters losing markets (1); This deepened and prolonged the Depression (1).	1+1+1

SECTION — B (Very Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 2 = 8

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
11	The war made the USA a creditor and left Europe indebted (1); Trade and industry patterns changed and old powers declined (1).	1+1
12	Workers were bound by contracts, deceived by agents and treated harshly on plantations (1); They found it difficult to escape or seek legal help, like slaves (1).	1+1
13	American silver and crops enriched Europe and increased its purchasing power in Asia (1); The slave trade supplied labour to the plantations in the Americas (1).	1+1
14	Banks failed and credit dried up (1); Countries adopted protectionism, which reduced trade and prolonged the slump (1).	1+1

SECTION — C (Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 3 = 12

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
15	Two world wars and the Depression showed that free markets alone could fail (1); Governments began to play a larger role in managing economies and employment (1); International institutions were created to manage trade and money (1).	1+1+1
16	In the US the crash and bank failures caused severe unemployment, with about one in four workers jobless (1); In India agricultural prices fell, exports halved and rural indebtedness grew (1); The US was an industrial economy hit by bank failures, whereas India's colonial economy was hit through falling farm prices and fixed revenue (1).	1+1+1
17	During the First World War imports from Britain fell and Indian industry made goods for the army (1); Indian industrialists like G.D. Birla expanded and grew rich (1); In the interwar years they also demanded protection from imports and organised themselves (1).	1+1+1
	OR: Wages are lower in Asia than in the West, so TNCs set up factories there (1); Governments in Asia offered cheaper labour and incentives (1); Manufacturing jobs have moved to Asia while the West faces loss of jobs in factories (1).	1+1+1
18	Trade in grain and cotton, labour migration and capital flows linked distant regions (1); But this was largely under colonial control, and many people, as in Africa and India, were forced or impoverished (1); So it was globalised in reach but unequal in benefit, unlike today's globalisation (1).	1+1+1
	OR: The IMF gives short-term help to countries with payment deficits and the World Bank funds development projects (1); They have helped developing countries with loans, but critics say they attach harsh conditions (1); Developing countries felt that the rich countries dominated decisions (1).	1+1+1

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
19	(i) Bretton Woods, New Hampshire, USA; July 1944 (1). (ii) To deal with external surpluses and deficits of member nations (1). (iii) International Bank for Reconstruction and Development (1). (iv) To preserve economic stability and full employment in the industrial world and avoid a repeat of the instability of the interwar years and the Great Depression (2).	1+1+1+2
20	The conference at Bretton Woods in 1944 created the IMF and the World Bank (1); Exchange rates were fixed to the dollar, which was tied to gold (1); The IMF supported countries with payment deficits, and the World Bank financed reconstruction (1); It gave stability and rapid growth in trade for about 25 years (1); In the early 1970s the system collapsed due to US deficits and floating exchange rates replaced it (1).	1+1+1+1+1
	OR: The Silk Routes carried goods as well as religions and ideas (1); Food crops from the Americas changed diets worldwide (1); Indentured migrants created new cultures such as Hosay and chutney music (1); Trade and imperial rule transmitted European ideas and goods to the colonies (1); Economic exchange and cultural exchange thus went together, and shaped societies everywhere (1).	1+1+1+1+1
