ANSWER KEY & MARKING SCHEME SET 1

Chapter 5: Print Culture and the Modern World (History) | Class 10 Social Science | Maximum Marks: 40

SECTION — A (Objective Type) — Answers — 10 × 1 = 10

Q.	Correct Option	Brief Reasoning
1	(c) women had become an important new reading public	Women were readers and writers
2	(d) would spread enlightenment and sweep away despotism	He called it the most powerful engine of progress
3	(d) it encouraged free thinking and questioning of authority	Heretical ideas could spread
4	(d) exposed the injustices of the caste system	It linked caste with slavery
5	(d) spread of literacy and social reform movements	Readers wanted news and debate
6	(c) spread the nationalist message to ordinary people	Kesari and others criticised British rule
7	(a) urban culture and demand for books grew among townspeople	Edo was a thriving print centre
8	(a) the lives of the 'floating world' of urban Edo	Japanese print culture used pictures
9	(a) decline in reading	Print increased reading
10	(d) spread their ideas and debate social issues in public	Newspapers and tracts reached many

SECTION — B (Very Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 2 = 8

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
11	Women wrote letters and articles in journals on women's issues (1); They read newspapers and joined debates on social reform (1).	1+1
12	Reading became popular in all social classes (1); People discussed books and ideas in public, which created a culture of debate (1).	1+1
13	It restricted the freedom of Indian language papers (1); It gave officials power to censor and seize presses, which angered nationalists (1).	1+1
14	Phule wrote Gulamgiri exposing caste injustice (1); This challenged Brahmanical dominance and made the issue public (1).	1+1

SECTION — C (Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 3 = 12

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
15	Novels described social life and problems, e.g., Dickens wrote about workers' lives (1); Women found new roles as writers and heroines (1); Serialised novels in magazines reached the middle class (1).	1+1+1
16	Prints and calendars showed gods, leaders and symbols (1); They reached even poor and illiterate people (1); They created common images of religion and nation (1).	1+1+1
17	Luther's printed Theses spread new religious ideas widely (1); The Bible was printed in local languages for ordinary readers (1); This led to the Protestant Reformation (1).	1+1+1
	OR: Print spread the ideas of liberty and equality (1); Cartoons and writings mocked the monarchy (1); Print created a culture of debate that prepared the revolution (1).	1+1+1
18	The Vernacular Press Act of 1878 allowed censorship of Indian language papers (1); Presses could be seized for seditious reports (1); Nationalist newspapers used the issue to attack colonial rule (1).	1+1+1
	OR: Printing made books cheap and available to the masses (1); Chapbooks and almanacs were sold by pedlars (1); Circulating libraries and public reading rooms spread reading further (1).	1+1+1

SECTION — D (Long Answer) — Answers — 2 × 5 = 10

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks

19	Print circulated religious texts in local languages (1); Reformers and orthodox groups debated in print (1); Muslim ulama issued fatwas to guide the community (1); Printed Hindu texts like the Ramcharitmanas reached homes (1); Print created both reform and religious revival (1).	1+1+1+1+1
	OR: Women became readers and writers, with novels and magazines for them (1); Children's books and primary schools expanded (1); Workers used libraries for self-education (1); Penny magazines were popular (1); Literacy rose in the nineteenth century (1).	1+1+1+1+1
20	Mercier said print is the most powerful engine of progress (1); Print spread ideas of reason and liberty (1); It enabled revolution and reform (1); But rulers also used it for control and it spread rumours (1); So print was powerful, but not wholly progressive (1).	1+1+1+1+1
	OR: Phule's Gulamgiri exposed caste injustice (1); Ambedkar and Periyar wrote against caste (1); Kashibaba wrote on workers' problems (1); Print gave the lower castes a public voice (1); Orthodox groups also printed their replies (1).	1+1+1+1+1

Mistakes to avoid:

- Writing that Gutenberg invented printing; printing began in China, Japan and Korea, and Gutenberg developed the first-known printing press in Europe in the 1430s.
- Giving the wrong date for Marco Polo's return from China (1295) or confusing him with Gutenberg.
- Mixing Martin Luther's Ninety Five Theses (1517) with the Index of Prohibited Books started by the Roman Church from the mid-sixteenth century.
- Saying that print caused the French Revolution; historians say it created conditions for a new culture of debate and dissent.
- Confusing chapbooks (England), almanacs and ballads with the Bibliotheque Bleue of France.
- Forgetting that the Vernacular Press Act (1878) targeted Indian-language papers and was modelled on the Irish Press Laws.

Evaluator's note: Award step marks as shown; accept any correct alternative method. In internal-choice questions, evaluate only the option attempted. Deduct up to ½ mark for missing units or figures where required.

MASTERKEY

ANSWER KEY & MARKING SCHEME SET 2

Chapter 5: Print Culture and the Modern World (History) | Class 10 Social Science | Maximum Marks: 40

SECTION — A (Objective Type) — Answers — 10 × 1 = 10

Q.	Correct Option	Brief Reasoning
1	(d) criticised the double standards applied to men and women	It questioned male society
2	(c) they described the lives of ordinary people and readers could identify with them	Fiction mirrored social life
3	(a) a new idea of childhood had emerged	Children's presses developed in the nineteenth century
4	(a) control which books could be read	It began in 1558
5	(b) they feared it would change women's traditional roles	Conservatives were suspicious
6	(d) He interpreted the books he read in his own way	He was a miller of Friuli
7	(c) leading to new debates and the circulation of religious tracts	Reformers and orthodox groups debated in print
8	(a) cheap and attractive	Even poor people could buy them
9	(c) Portuguese missionaries brought the first presses there in the sixteenth century	Konkani and Marathi books were printed
10	(a) making scientific knowledge widely available	Thinkers like Newton were read widely

SECTION — B (Very Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 2 = 8

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
11	Ravi Varma's pictures of gods were printed in large numbers and were cheap (1); They were sold to the poor and appeared in homes and shops (1).	1+1
12	Print spread ideas that could question authority and religion (1); Rulers feared uncontrolled spread of critical writing (1).	1+1
13	Roy published Sambad Kaumudi to spread ideas against sati (1); Print let him debate with orthodox groups in public (1).	1+1
14	Novels described the lives of ordinary families and women characters (1); Women found them interesting and could read them at home (1).	1+1

SECTION — C (Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 3 = 12

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
15	More women became literate and read novels and journals (1); Some such as Rashsundari Debi wrote autobiographies (1); Orthodox people often opposed women's reading, and writers faced resistance (1).	1+1+1
16	Print spread common ideas to people far apart (1); Newspapers created a shared public sphere (1); Common reading created a sense of belonging, as in nationalism (1).	1+1+1
17	Primary education became compulsory in the nineteenth century (1); Literacy rose and children's books and women's magazines appeared (1); New machines like the rotary press made printing fast and cheap (1).	1+1+1
	OR: Manuscripts existed before print and the Portuguese brought presses to Goa (1); English-language and vernacular newspapers started in the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries (1); Print spread debate on religion, caste and politics (1).	1+1+1
18	Rulers feared that critical writings would spark revolt (1); Print spread information widely and beyond control (1); So they used censorship (1).	1+1+1
	OR: Print spread the ideas of thinkers who stressed reason and questioned tradition (1); Books of Voltaire and Rousseau reached the public (1); The public began to judge authority by reason (1).	1+1+1

SECTION — D (Long Answer) — Answers — 2 × 5 = 10

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks

19	Printing came to Goa through the Portuguese in the sixteenth century (1); Newspapers such as the Bengal Gazette appeared in the 1780s (1); Print helped social reformers spread ideas against sati and caste (1); Women's writing grew (1); A reading public developed for debate on religion and politics (1).	1+1+1+1+1
	OR: Luther's Theses started the Reformation through print (1); The Church feared print and used the Index (1); Enlightenment thinkers spread ideas of reason and liberty (1); Cartoons and writings criticised the monarchy in France (1); Public debate prepared the French Revolution (1).	1+1+1+1+1
20	The Vernacular Press Act of 1878 allowed the government to censor papers (1); The government seized presses of papers that published seditious reports (1); Nationalist leaders opposed it and used papers to criticise it (1); Tilak's Kesari kept criticising colonial rule (1); Repression strengthened nationalist feeling (1).	1+1+1+1+1
	OR: Novels described social life and reached many readers (1); Journals and magazines were read by the middle class (1); Circulating libraries lent books cheaply (1); Women and workers became readers (1); A new reading public developed in the nineteenth century (1).	1+1+1+1+1

Mistakes to avoid:

- Writing that Gutenberg invented printing; printing began in China, Japan and Korea, and Gutenberg developed the first-known printing press in Europe in the 1430s.
- Giving the wrong date for Marco Polo's return from China (1295) or confusing him with Gutenberg.
- Mixing Martin Luther's Ninety Five Theses (1517) with the Index of Prohibited Books started by the Roman Church from the mid-sixteenth century.
- Saying that print caused the French Revolution; historians say it created conditions for a new culture of debate and dissent.
- Confusing chapbooks (England), almanacs and ballads with the Bibliotheque Bleue of France.
- Forgetting that the Vernacular Press Act (1878) targeted Indian-language papers and was modelled on the Irish Press Laws.

Evaluator's note: Award step marks as shown; accept any correct alternative method. In internal-choice questions, evaluate only the option attempted. Deduct up to ½ mark for missing units or figures where required.

MASTERKEY

ANSWER KEY & MARKING SCHEME SET 3

Chapter 5: Print Culture and the Modern World (History) | Class 10 Social Science | Maximum Marks: 40

SECTION — A (Objective Type) — Answers — 10 × 1 = 10

Q.	Correct Option	Brief Reasoning
1	(a) they were small and simply printed	Pedlars could sell them to the poor
2	(d) the state, through the civil service examinations, was the major producer of printed material	Official publishing dominated
3	(c) printing made cheap copies quickly	His Theses and New Testament were widely printed
4	(d) he read books and formed his own heretical views about God and creation	The Church found his ideas dangerous
5	(d) they carried growing criticism of British rule	This led to press controls
6	(d) it feared criticism of its policies in Indian language papers	The Act allowed censorship
7	(c) a space for public debate and opinion	Print created such a space
8	(a) they mocked monarchs and challenged authority	Cartoons shaped public opinion
9	(c) it criticised Company officials and the Governor-General	He was persecuted
10	(b) it led to libraries and self-education among them	Some workers wrote about their lives

SECTION — B (Very Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 2 = 8

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
11	Workers, poor people and servants could now buy cheap books and read (1); They wrote about their own lives and conditions (1).	1+1
12	Woodblock printing in Edo produced illustrated books and ukiyo prints (1); These showed urban life and were bought by townspeople (1).	1+1
13	It was critical of the Company officials and the Governor-General (1); The government persecuted Hickey and denied him postal facilities (1).	1+1
14	Luther's Theses and translations were printed in thousands (1); This helped reach ordinary people and spread his criticism of the Church (1).	1+1

SECTION — C (Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 3 = 12

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
15	Hickey's Bengal Gazette began in 1780 (1); Roy's Sambad Kaumudi in 1821 spread ideas against sati (1); Orthodox groups responded with rival papers, creating public debate (1).	1+1+1
16	Japan developed woodblock prints and illustrated books for urban readers (1); Europe developed the movable metal type press of Gutenberg (1); European printing led to mass production and rapid spread of ideas, while Japanese print focused on pictures and local culture (1).	1+1+1
17	Hindu and Muslim reformers used print to spread their ideas (1); Religious texts were printed in local languages (1); Debates and fatwas, as of Deoband, were published for the public (1).	1+1+1
	OR: Nationalist papers criticised British rule (1); They reached people in local languages (1); They awakened political awareness and the government tried to censor them (1).	1+1+1
18	Phule's Gulamgiri exposed caste exploitation (1); Ambedkar and Periyar wrote against caste (1); Workers wrote on caste and class, bringing the issue to public debate (1).	1+1+1
	OR: Cartoons criticised authorities and social practices (1); They could be understood even by those who could not read (1); They shaped political opinion (1).	1+1+1

SECTION — D (Long Answer) — Answers — 2 × 5 = 10

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks

19	Raja Ravi Varma's prints of gods spread across India (1); Cartoons criticised the government and society (1); Calendars and posters carried national symbols (1); These reached even illiterate people (1); Visual culture helped the national movement (1).	1+1+1+1+1
	OR: Newspapers united people through shared ideas (1); Nationalist papers spread the idea of one nation (1); But debates on caste and religion also divided society (1); Orthodox and reformers argued bitterly (1); Print thus encouraged both unity and division (1).	1+1+1+1+1
20	China and Japan used woodblocks and the state controlled production in China (1); Europe's Gutenberg press used movable metal type (1); In Europe print spread quickly, supporting the Reformation (1); In East Asia print fostered urban culture and illustrated books (1); Print in Europe made books cheaper and ideas more widely accessible (1).	1+1+1+1+1
	OR: Women wrote autobiographies, such as Rashsundari Debi's Amar Jiban (1); Tarabai Shinde wrote Stree Purush Tulna on gender inequality (1); Journals for women were published (1); Many families opposed women's reading (1); Their writing made women's issues part of public debate (1).	1+1+1+1+1

Mistakes to avoid:

- Writing that Gutenberg invented printing; printing began in China, Japan and Korea, and Gutenberg developed the first-known printing press in Europe in the 1430s.
- Giving the wrong date for Marco Polo's return from China (1295) or confusing him with Gutenberg.
- Mixing Martin Luther's Ninety Five Theses (1517) with the Index of Prohibited Books started by the Roman Church from the mid-sixteenth century.
- Saying that print caused the French Revolution; historians say it created conditions for a new culture of debate and dissent.
- Confusing chapbooks (England), almanacs and ballads with the Bibliotheque Bleue of France.
- Forgetting that the Vernacular Press Act (1878) targeted Indian-language papers and was modelled on the Irish Press Laws.

Evaluator's note: Award step marks as shown; accept any correct alternative method. In internal-choice questions, evaluate only the option attempted. Deduct up to ½ mark for missing units or figures where required.

MASTERY