Chapter 13: Power-sharing (Political Science) | Class 10 Social Science | Maximum Marks: 40

SECTION — A (Objective Type) — Answers — 10 × 1 = 10

Q.	Correct Option	Brief Reasoning
1	(a) horizontal distribution of power	The organs stand at the same level
2	(c) Respecting the feelings and interests of different communities and regions	Belgian leaders realised unity needs mutual respect
3	(d) French	About 80 per cent speak French and 20 per cent Dutch
4	(b) north and east of the country	The map in the chapter shows this
5	(b) 1948	Independence from Britain came in 1948
6	(c) 74 per cent	Tamil speakers are about 18 per cent
7	(c) prudential	Power sharing reduces conflict and gives stability
8	(b) moral reason	It values the act of sharing power itself
9	(d) 2009	It caused a terrible setback to social and economic life
10	(d) checks and balances	Judges, though appointed by the executive, can check it

SECTION — B (Very Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 2 = 8

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
11	Through constitutional and legal arrangements that give representation to weaker sections and religious or linguistic groups (1); Example: Belgium's community government or reserved constituencies in India (1).	1+1
12	A belief that the majority community should be able to rule in any way it wants (1); It disregards the wishes and needs of the minority (1).	1+1
13	Competition among parties ensures that power does not remain in one hand (1); Parties may form alliances and run a coalition government together (1).	1+1
14	Dutch speakers were a majority in the country but a minority in the capital (1); Both communities claimed control over it, which made tension more acute (1).	1+1

SECTION — C (Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 3 = 12

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
15	Thousands of people of both communities were killed (1); Many families fled as refugees and many lost their livelihoods (1); It caused a terrible setback to the social, cultural and economic life of the country (1).	1+1+1
16	Power sharing is the very spirit of democracy (1); Those affected by the exercise of power have a right to be consulted on how they are governed (1); A legitimate government is one in which citizens, through participation, acquire a stake in the system (1).	1+1+1
17	Constitutional and legal arrangements give weaker sections and minority groups a place in legislatures and administration (1); Example: Belgium's community government (1); Example: reserved constituencies for SC and ST in Parliament and Assemblies (1).	1+1+1
	OR: Power is shared among the legislature, executive and judiciary (1); Each organ can check the others, so none can exercise unlimited power (1); For example judges can check the executive and laws made by the legislature (1).	1+1+1
18	They struggled for Tamil as an official language, regional autonomy and equal opportunity (1); Their demand for more autonomy to Tamil provinces was repeatedly denied, and by the 1980s some groups wanted an independent Tamil Eelam (1); Distrust turned into widespread conflict and civil war (1).	1+1+1
	OR: It is a third kind of government, elected by people of one language community - Dutch, French or German - wherever they live (2); It has power over cultural, educational and language-related issues (1).	2+1

SECTION — D (Long Answer) — Answers — 2 × 5 = 10

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
19	Belgium: 59 per cent Dutch, 40 per cent French, 1 per cent German-speaking (2); Sri Lanka: 74 per cent Sinhala speakers, 18 per cent Tamil speakers, about 7 per cent Christians (1); Brussels had a Dutch-speaking minority in the capital; Sri Lanka's Sinhala majority could impose its will (1); Without accommodation, Belgium could have faced a messy partition and Sri Lanka a civil war (1).	2+1+1+1

	OR: Prudential reasons: it reduces conflict and brings political stability (2); Example: Belgium avoided division, Sri Lanka suffered civil war (1); Moral reason: sharing power is the spirit of democracy (1); People affected by decisions have a right to be consulted and a legitimate government gives citizens a stake (1).	2+1+1+1
20	Belgium recognised regional differences while Sri Lanka's leaders sought Sinhala dominance (1); Belgium gave constitutional guarantees to each community (1); In Sri Lanka demands for autonomy were repeatedly denied (1); Tamils turned to struggle, and distrust became civil war (1); Hence power sharing, not domination, keeps a country united (1).	1+1+1+1+1
	OR: The 1956 Act made Sinhala the only official language (1); Preferential policies for Sinhala applicants in universities and jobs (1); The constitution protected and fostered Buddhism (1); Tamils felt that the state ignored their language, culture and equal opportunities (1); This increased alienation and led to demands for autonomy and finally civil war (1).	1+1+1+1+1

Mistakes to avoid:

- Mixing up the two reasons for power-sharing: prudential (reduces social conflict, keeps stability) and moral (power-sharing is the spirit of democracy).
- Quoting Belgium's and Sri Lanka's data interchangeably: Belgium 59% Dutch, 40% French; Sri Lanka 74% Sinhala, 18% Tamil.
- Calling the 1956 Sri Lankan Act a step toward equality: it made Sinhala the only official language and favoured the majority.
- Confusing horizontal and vertical division of power: horizontal = among organs (legislature, executive, judiciary); vertical = among levels of government (Union, state, local).
- Forgetting that Belgium is not majoritarian: it gave equal ministers to Dutch and French speakers even though Dutch speakers are the majority.
- Writing 'community government' for the Belgian state government; the community government is elected by people of one language community irrespective of where they live.

10	(d) Giving provinces with Tamil populations greater autonomy	The demand for autonomy was repeatedly denied

SECTION — B (Very Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 2 = 8

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
11	About 59 per cent live in the Flemish region and speak Dutch, about 40 per cent live in Wallonia and speak French (1); The remaining 1 per cent speak German (1).	1+1
12	A social division based on shared culture (1); Members believe in common descent because of similarities of physical type, culture or both, and need not share religion or nationality (1).	1+1
13	Equal number of Dutch and French-speaking ministers in the central government (1); Regional governments with powers not subordinate to the Centre, or a separate government for Brussels, or a community government (any one more) (1).	1+1
14	Power is shared among organs of government placed at the same level (1); Example: legislature, executive and judiciary (1).	1+1

SECTION — C (Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 3 = 12

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
15	It was long believed that power must stay with one person or place for quick decisions (1); In a democracy people are the source of power, so it must be distributed (1); Power sharing in Belgium preserved unity while Sri Lanka's refusal harmed it (1).	1+1+1
16	Belgium shows that unity comes from respecting the interests of all communities (1); Sri Lanka shows that a majority forcing its dominance and refusing to share power undermines national unity (1); Hence power sharing is necessary in democracies (1).	1+1+1
17	It reduces the possibility of conflict between social groups (1); Social conflict leads to violence and instability, so sharing gives stability to the political order (1); Imposing majority will may look attractive in the short run but undermines unity in the long run (1).	1+1+1
	OR: Sinhala was made the only official language in 1956 (1); Sinhala applicants were favoured for university seats and government jobs (1); The constitution protected and fostered Buddhism, so they felt their language and culture were ignored (1).	1+1+1
18	People are the source of all political power (1); People rule themselves through institutions of self-government (1); Diverse groups and views must be respected and everyone should have a voice in public policies (1).	1+1+1
	OR: Parties compete and may form coalitions, so power is shared among them (1); Pressure groups like traders, farmers and workers influence decisions through committees or pressure (1); Citizens can choose among contenders for power (1).	1+1+1

2 × 5 = 10

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
19	People are the source of all political power (1); Respect for diverse groups gives everyone a voice in public policies (1); It lessens social conflict, violence and instability (1); Majority tyranny harms minority and often the majority too (1); Belgium and Sri Lanka illustrate this (1).	1+1+1+1+1
	OR: Among organs of government (horizontal) with checks and balances (2); Among governments at different levels (vertical or federal) (1); Among social groups such as religious and linguistic groups, through reserved constituencies and community government (1); Among political parties, pressure groups and movements through competition, coalition and influence (1).	2+1+1+1
20	Constitution amended four times between 1970 and 1993 (1); Equal numbers of Dutch and French ministers; special laws need majority support from each language group (1); Powers given to regional governments not subordinate to the Centre; Brussels has a government with equal representation (1); Community government elected by language communities (1); It has avoided civic strife and a division on linguistic lines (1).	1+1+1+1+1
	OR: The notion arose from the belief that power must reside in one place for quick decisions (1); In democracy people are the source of power, so it is shared (1); Belgium's sharing strengthened unity (1); Sri Lanka's majority dominance weakened unity and caused war (1); So well-designed sharing makes a country more stable (1).	1+1+1+1+1

Mistakes to avoid:

- Mixing up the two reasons for power-sharing: prudential (reduces social conflict, keeps stability) and moral (power-sharing is the spirit of democracy).
- Quoting Belgium's and Sri Lanka's data interchangeably: Belgium 59% Dutch, 40% French; Sri Lanka 74% Sinhala, 18% Tamil.

12	A violent conflict between opposing groups within a country (1); It becomes so intense that it appears like a war (1).	1+1
13	Prudential reasons stress better outcomes such as less conflict and more stability (1); Moral reasons stress that sharing power is valuable in itself because it is the spirit of democracy (1).	1+1
14	The 1956 Act recognised Sinhala as the only official language (1); Preferential policies for Sinhala applicants for university and government jobs, or a constitution to protect and foster Buddhism (any one) (1).	1+1

SECTION — C (Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 3 = 12

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
15	Belgium shared power among communities and regions (1); Sri Lanka's majority imposed its will through majoritarian measures (1); Belgium avoided a division of the country while Sri Lanka had a civil war (1).	1+1+1
16	Equal number of Dutch and French-speaking ministers in the Central Government (1); Many central powers were given to two regional governments that are not subordinate to the Centre (1); Brussels has a separate government with equal representation, and there is also a community government (1).	1+1+1
17	They recognised regional differences and cultural diversities (1); They amended the constitution four times between 1970 and 1993 (1); Unity of the country was possible only by respecting the interests of every community (1).	1+1+1
	OR: Constitution clearly lays down the powers of different levels of government (1); A general government for the whole country and governments at provincial level share power (1); In India these are the Union, State and local governments (1).	1+1+1
18	Power sharing reduces the possibility of conflict even in small, undivided societies (1); It is the spirit of democracy because those affected have a right to be consulted (1); So it is not needed only in societies with divisions or only in big countries (1).	1+1+1
	OR: A government formed when two or more parties come together (1); They contest elections as an alliance or join after elections (1); It shows power being shared among political parties (1).	1+1+1

SECTION — D (Long Answer) — Answers — 2 × 5 = 10

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks

19	Citizens must be free to choose among contenders, so parties compete (2); Competition ensures power does not remain in one hand (1); Alliances can form coalition governments and share power directly (1); Interest groups such as traders, industrialists, farmers and workers influence decisions or sit on committees (1).	2+1+1+1
	OR: After the civil war leaders agreed on rules for sharing power among communities (1); The President must be a Maronite Christian and the Prime Minister a Sunni Muslim (1); The Deputy Prime Minister is an Orthodox Christian and the Speaker a Shi'a Muslim (1); Christians agreed not to seek French protection and Muslims not to seek unification with Syria (1); Elders see it as the guarantee of peace though some, like Khalil, dislike it (1).	1+1+1+1+1
20	Legislature, executive and judiciary exercise different powers at the same level (2); Each organ checks the others, so ministers answer to Parliament and judges can review executive action (1); Vertical sharing is among Union, State and local governments (1); The constitution lays down the powers of each level (1).	2+1+1+1
	OR: Constitutional and legal arrangements represent weaker sections and women in legislatures and administration (2); Belgium's community government shares power among language groups (1); India's reserved constituencies give space to diverse social groups (1); This gives minority communities a fair share and prevents alienation (1).	2+1+1+1

Mistakes to avoid:

- Mixing up the two reasons for power-sharing: prudential (reduces social conflict, keeps stability) and moral (power-sharing is the spirit of democracy).
- Quoting Belgium's and Sri Lanka's data interchangeably: Belgium 59% Dutch, 40% French; Sri Lanka 74% Sinhala, 18% Tamil.
