SECTION — A (Objective Type) — Answers — 10 × 1 = 10

Q.	Correct Option	Brief Reasoning
1	(d) Community government is based on language community wherever they live; regional government is based on territory	One is about people, the other places
2	(a) Parliament passes a law and the Supreme Court can review it	Different organs check each other
3	(a) Both A and R are true and R is the correct explanation of A.	Correct explanation
4	(d) One leader controls all organs of government	Power is concentrated
5	(d) Weakened unity of the nation	The chapter's argument
6	(a) people are the source of all political power	Democracy disperses power
7	(a) Both A and R are true and R is the correct explanation of A.	Levels of government
8	(d) a Belgian safeguard	It prevents unilateral decisions
9	(a) Both A and R are true and R is the correct explanation of A.	Accommodating both communities and not letting the majority dominate prevented conflict; R explains A.
10	(c) A is true but R is false.	A is true (about 74 per cent). R is false: the Sri Lankan Tamils live mainly in the north and east.

SECTION — B (Very Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 2 = 8

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
11	It could exercise unlimited power (1); Balance of power and checks among institutions would break down (1).	1+1
12	No (1); Belgium and Sri Lanka show that sharing strengthens unity while refusing to share harms it (1).	1+1
13	Belgium shows accommodation (1); Sri Lanka shows majoritarianism (1).	1+1
14	Partners may differ on policy (1); It needs compromise among parties (1).	1+1

SECTION — C (Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 3 = 12

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
15	Democracy holds people as source of power (1); Sharing makes citizens accept the government (1); Belgium remained united (1).	1+1+1
16	In a unitary system powers rest with the Centre and sub-units are subordinate (1); Belgium's regional governments got constitutional powers in 1993 (1); The Centre can no longer withdraw them (1).	1+1+1
17	Tamil-majority provinces could have had autonomy (1); Cultural and language concerns would be handled regionally (1); It might have reduced alienation (1).	1+1+1
	OR: Communities must trust that others will abide by agreed rules (1); Equal ministers and special majorities need mutual confidence (1); Without trust arrangements fail (1).	1+1+1
18	Belgian model is complicated (1); But it has avoided strife and a division of the country (1); Complexity is a small price for unity (1).	1+1+1
	OR: Democracy means rule by the people (1); Those affected must be consulted (1); Citizens gain a stake through participation (1).	1+1+1

SECTION — D (Long Answer) — Answers — 2 × 5 = 10

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
19	(i) Dutch (1). (ii) French, although French speakers are a minority in the whole country (1). (iii) The Dutch speakers demanded their due share, creating tension between the two communities (1). (iv) By amending the Constitution between 1970 and 1993, equal numbers of Dutch and French-speaking ministers in the central government, state governments with powers and community governments elected by one language group (2).	1+1+1+2

20	Equal status for Tamil language (1); Regional autonomy to Tamil provinces (1); No preferential treatment in jobs and education (1); No state religion preference (1); Sharing power would have preserved unity (1).	1+1+1+1+1
	OR: Prudential: reduces conflict, brings stability (1); Moral: spirit of democracy, right to be consulted (1); Belgium and Sri Lanka show the prudential value (1); Legitimacy gives citizens a stake (1); The two reasons support each other (1).	1+1+1+1+1

Mistakes to avoid:

- Mixing up the two reasons for power-sharing: prudential (reduces social conflict, keeps stability) and moral (power-sharing is the spirit of democracy).
- Quoting Belgium's and Sri Lanka's data interchangeably: Belgium 59% Dutch, 40% French; Sri Lanka 74% Sinhala, 18% Tamil.
- Calling the 1956 Sri Lankan Act a step toward equality: it made Sinhala the only official language and favoured the majority.
- Confusing horizontal and vertical division of power: horizontal = among organs (legislature, executive, judiciary); vertical = among levels of government (Union, state, local).
- Forgetting that Belgium is not majoritarian: it gave equal ministers to Dutch and French speakers even though Dutch speakers are the majority.
- Writing 'community government' for the Belgian state government; the community government is elected by people of one language community irrespective of where they live.
