ANSWER KEY & MARKING SCHEME SET 1

Chapter 14: Federalism (Political Science) | Class 10 Social Science | Maximum Marks: 40

SECTION — A (Objective Type) — Answers — 10 × 1 = 10

Q.	Correct Option	Brief Reasoning
1	(c) a coming together type	USA, Switzerland, Australia
2	(d) Regular elections are compulsory	A State Election Commission conducts them
3	(c) agreed to continue English along with Hindi	It avoided a conflict like Sri Lanka's
4	(a) chairperson	The Collector administers the district
5	(b) Not all States have identical powers	Some enjoy special status
6	(d) Assam, Nagaland, Arunachal Pradesh and Mizoram	Article 371
7	(d) Panchayati Raj	Power to the grassroots
8	(b) the Union law	The Constitution gives the Union law priority
9	(c) The nature of democratic politics and respect for diversity	Constitutional provisions are necessary but not sufficient
10	(d) Banking	It is in the Union List

SECTION — B (Very Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 2 = 8

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
11	Regional parties become partners (1); States get a stronger voice (1).	1+1
12	The Constitution did not give any language national language status (1); Hindi is only the official language (1).	1+1
13	All voters of the village are members (1); It approves the budget and reviews the panchayat's work (1).	1+1
14	An independent institution in each State (1); Conducts panchayat and municipal elections (1).	1+1

SECTION — C (Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 3 = 12

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
15	Accommodated many languages and kept English along with Hindi (1); It avoided conflicts as in Sri Lanka (1); Critics say it favoured the English-speaking elite (1).	1+1+1
16	They are necessary but not sufficient (1); The nature of democratic politics matters (1); Spirit of respect for diversity made it succeed (1).	1+1+1
17	Gram sabhas are not held regularly (1); Most States have not given significant powers (1); Adequate resources are not given (1).	1+1+1
	OR: Most are elected (1); MPs and MLAs of the district are members (1); Officials of district-level bodies are also members (1).	1+1+1
18	The Centre could reduce State powers (1); It would defeat the purpose of federalism (1); Hence Constitution requires consent of States (1).	1+1+1
	OR: Changes need two-thirds of both Houses (1); Ratification by at least half the State legislatures is needed (1); The judiciary acts as umpire (1).	1+1+1

SECTION — D (Long Answer) — Answers — 2 × 5 = 10

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
19	Common subjects handled by the Union (1); Local matters handled by States (1); Special powers for some States (1); Languages and cultures protected (1); Constitution guarantees both levels' powers (1).	1+1+1+1+1
	OR: They are too small to be States (1); Could not be merged with any State (1); Examples Chandigarh, Lakshadweep, Delhi (1); Central Government has special powers (1); They lack the powers of a State (1).	1+1+1+1+1
20	Earlier the same party ruled Centre and States (1); Centre dismissed rival State governments (1); After 1990 regional parties became partners at the Centre (1); Supreme Court judgement protected States (1); New culture of power sharing (1).	1+1+1+1+1
	OR: Union List for national subjects (1); State List for state subjects (1); Concurrent for common subjects (1); Local bodies for local needs under State laws (1); 1992 amendment gave constitutional status to local bodies (1).	1+1+1+1+1

Mistakes to avoid:

- Mixing up the lists: defence, foreign affairs, banking, currency = Union; police, trade, agriculture, irrigation = State; education, forests, marriage, adoption = Concurrent. Residuary subjects go to the Union.
- Writing that Hindi is the national language: India has no national language; Hindi is the official language and 22 languages are in the Eighth Schedule.
- Mixing up 'coming together' (USA, Switzerland, Australia: independent states unite) with 'holding together' (India, Spain, Belgium: a large country shares power).
- Saying all states were created on the basis of language: Nagaland, Uttarakhand and Jharkhand were created to recognise culture, ethnicity or geography; local governments got constitutional status in 1992.
- Saying a municipal corporation is headed by a chairperson: it is headed by the Mayor; a municipality is headed by a chairperson.
- Naming 'gram sabha' as the executive body: it is the general body of all voters in the village; the panchayat is its executive.

Evaluator's note: Award step marks as shown; accept any correct alternative method. In internal-choice questions, evaluate only the option attempted. Deduct up to ½ mark for missing units or figures where required.

MASTERMIND

ANSWER KEY & MARKING SCHEME SET 2

Chapter 14: Federalism (Political Science) | Class 10 Social Science | Maximum Marks: 40

SECTION — A (Objective Type) — Answers — 10 × 1 = 10

Q.	Correct Option	Brief Reasoning
1	(c) the Central Government has special powers in running them	They are Union Territories
2	(b) ward members or panch	Headed by the sarpanch
3	(d) Making a law on a State List subject	State List is its jurisdiction
4	(a) No, because defence is a Union List subject	Only the Union makes laws on defence
5	(a) Both the Union and State governments can make laws on its subjects	Education and marriage are examples
6	(d) legislatures of at least half of the States	After two-thirds in both Houses
7	(c) Each can levy taxes to raise resources	Sources of revenue are specified
8	(a) municipal corporation	It is headed by a mayor
9	(c) choose any Scheduled Language for the exam	This protects the languages
10	(c) All the panchayat members in that area	Samiti is a representative body

SECTION — B (Very Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 2 = 8

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
11	The same party ruled the Centre and most States (1); The Centre misused the Constitution to undermine rival State governments (1).	1+1
12	UTs do not have the powers of a State (1); The Central Government has special powers in running them (1).	1+1
13	They feared it would lead to disintegration of the country (1); The experience later showed it strengthened unity (1).	1+1
14	It safeguards unity of the country (1); It accommodates regional diversity (1).	1+1

SECTION — C (Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 3 = 12

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
15	Both can make laws (1); In a conflict the Union law prevails (1); Subjects of common interest (1).	1+1+1
16	English was to stop in 1965 for official purposes (1); Non-Hindi States demanded its continuation (1); The movement took a violent form in Tamil Nadu (1).	1+1+1
17	People speaking the same language lived in the same State (1); Official work could be done in the State language (1); People could access the administration easily (1).	1+1+1
	OR: Coming together: States equal and strong (1); Holding together: units have unequal powers (1); Some units get special powers (1).	1+1+1
18	Gram panchayat is a council of ward members and a sarpanch (1); Gram sabha includes all voters of the village (1); The sabha supervises the panchayat and approves its budget (1).	1+1+1
	OR: India is vast and diverse (1); Large States need power sharing within them (1); Local issues need local solutions (1).	1+1+1

SECTION — D (Long Answer) — Answers — 2 × 5 = 10

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
19	Boundaries redrawn on language (1); Fear of disintegration proved wrong (1); Hindi official but not national, with 22 Scheduled Languages (1); English continued along with Hindi (1); Country became more united (1).	1+1+1+1+1
	OR: Courts interpret the Constitution (1); Supreme Court and High Courts decide disputes (1); Parliament needs two-thirds majority to amend (1); Ratification by half the States (1); Prevents unilateral change (1).	1+1+1+1+1
20	Rural: gram panchayat, samiti, zilla parishad (1); Urban: municipality, municipal corporation (1); Heads: sarpanch, chairperson, mayor (1); Both elected bodies with reservation (1); Both come under State Election Commission (1).	1+1+1+1+1
	OR: Gram sabhas are irregular (1); Powers are not transferred by States (1); Resources are inadequate (1); Remedies: regular meetings, devolution of powers and funds (1); Public participation (1).	1+1+1+1+1

Mistakes to avoid:

- Mixing up the lists: defence, foreign affairs, banking, currency = Union; police, trade, agriculture, irrigation = State; education, forests, marriage, adoption = Concurrent. Residuary subjects go to the Union.
- Writing that Hindi is the national language: India has no national language; Hindi is the official language and 22 languages are in the Eighth Schedule.
- Mixing up 'coming together' (USA, Switzerland, Australia: independent states unite) with 'holding together' (India, Spain, Belgium: a large country shares power).
- Saying all states were created on the basis of language: Nagaland, Uttarakhand and Jharkhand were created to recognise culture, ethnicity or geography; local governments got constitutional status in 1992.
- Saying a municipal corporation is headed by a chairperson: it is headed by the Mayor; a municipality is headed by a chairperson.
- Naming 'gram sabha' as the executive body: it is the general body of all voters in the village; the panchayat is its executive.

Evaluator's note: Award step marks as shown; accept any correct alternative method. In internal-choice questions, evaluate only the option attempted. Deduct up to ½ mark for missing units or figures where required.

MASTERMIND

ANSWER KEY & MARKING SCHEME SET 3

Chapter 14: Federalism (Political Science) | Class 10 Social Science | Maximum Marks: 40

SECTION — A (Objective Type) — Answers — 10 × 1 = 10

Q.	Correct Option	Brief Reasoning
1	(b) coming together federation	USA, Switzerland and Australia
2	(c) Trade unions	Trade unions are on the Concurrent List
3	(d) accommodating regional and linguistic diversity	A federal arrangement was demanded
4	(c) States have transferred all powers and resources fully	Powers and resources are inadequate
5	(c) culture, ethnicity or geography	Not on language
6	(a) It should meet at least twice or thrice a year to approve the budget and review the panchayat	Gram sabha consists of all voters of the village
7	(c) provides safeguards for other languages	The Eighth Schedule recognises 22 languages
8	(d) Levels of government should abide by agreed rules of power sharing	Both aspects are crucial
9	(c) No, because police is a State subject	State List subject
10	(d) The country became more united and administration easier	Experience disproved the fear

SECTION — B (Very Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 2 = 8

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
11	The Constitution gives it this power (1); Subjects like computer software came after the Constitution was made (1).	1+1
12	The Centre can promote Hindi as official policy (1); It cannot impose it on States where other languages are spoken (1).	1+1
13	The area over which someone has legal authority (1); It can be defined by geographical boundaries or by subjects (1).	1+1
14	States are as large as European countries and internally diverse (1); Local problems are best settled locally (1).	1+1

SECTION — C (Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 3 = 12

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
15	Different levels must agree to rules of power sharing (1); Each must trust the other to abide by its part (1); Without trust the arrangement fails (1).	1+1+1
16	Each level needs resources to carry out its responsibilities (1); It ensures financial autonomy of each level (1); Union and States both have the power to levy taxes (1).	1+1+1
17	A uniform policy is needed on matters like defence and currency (1); Only the Union can legislate on them (1); State-wise policies would create confusion (1).	1+1+1
	OR: Local bodies were under State control (1); Elections were not held regularly (1); They had no powers or resources of their own (1).	1+1+1
18	Linguistic reorganisation did not break the country (1); Accommodation of languages built trust (1); Flexible policies avoided conflict (1).	1+1+1
	OR: Sector meetings in which anyone can participate (1); Citizens take part in making the city budget (1); Money is not spent only in rich colonies (1).	1+1+1

SECTION — D (Long Answer) — Answers — 2 × 5 = 10

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
19	Assam, Nagaland, Arunachal and Mizoram get special powers under Article 371 (1); Land rights of indigenous peoples protected (1); Culture and preferential employment (1); Non-permanent residents cannot buy land (1); Shows that units can have unequal powers (1).	1+1+1+1+1
	OR: Early years: same party ruled everywhere (1); States did not use their autonomy (1); After 1990 regional parties and coalitions (1); Supreme Court made arbitrary dismissal hard (1); Local governments added a third tier (1).	1+1+1+1+1

20	Belgium shifted to federal in 1993 (1); Regional governments got constitutional powers (1); Sri Lanka remains unitary (1); Tamils' autonomy demand denied (1); Result: Belgium avoided conflict, Sri Lanka suffered civil war (1).	1+1+1+1+1
	OR: Local people understand local problems (1); Funds can be used better (1); People can directly participate (1); Porto Alegre's budget meetings are an example (1); Kerala has similar experiments (1).	1+1+1+1+1

Mistakes to avoid:

- Mixing up the lists: defence, foreign affairs, banking, currency = Union; police, trade, agriculture, irrigation = State; education, forests, marriage, adoption = Concurrent. Residuary subjects go to the Union.
- Writing that Hindi is the national language: India has no national language; Hindi is the official language and 22 languages are in the Eighth Schedule.
- Mixing up 'coming together' (USA, Switzerland, Australia: independent states unite) with 'holding together' (India, Spain, Belgium: a large country shares power).
- Saying all states were created on the basis of language: Nagaland, Uttarakhand and Jharkhand were created to recognise culture, ethnicity or geography; local governments got constitutional status in 1992.
- Saying a municipal corporation is headed by a chairperson: it is headed by the Mayor; a municipality is headed by a chairperson.
- Naming 'gram sabha' as the executive body: it is the general body of all voters in the village; the panchayat is its executive.

Evaluator's note: Award step marks as shown; accept any correct alternative method. In internal-choice questions, evaluate only the option attempted. Deduct up to ½ mark for missing units or figures where required.

MASTERMIND