ANSWER KEY & MARKING SCHEME SET 1

Chapter 14: Federalism (Political Science) | Class 10 Social Science | Maximum Marks: 40

SECTION — A (Objective Type) — Answers — 10 × 1 = 10

Q.	Correct Option	Brief Reasoning
1	(a) (i) and (ii) only	Currency is in the Union List
2	(d) A is false but R is true.	A is false; R is true
3	(c) Union List - education	Education is a Concurrent subject
4	(a) is designed to increase women's representation	A 1992 amendment provision
5	(a) Both A and R are true and R is the correct explanation of A.	Residuary subjects go to the Union
6	(d) (i) and (iii) only	Concurrent List is shared
7	(a) 1-B, 2-A	USA joined independent States
8	(b) Local people know their problems better and can participate directly	Decentralisation rationale
9	(a) Both A and R are true and R is the correct explanation of A.	Important national subjects and the residuary powers lie with the Union, which explains its greater strength.
10	(b) Both A and R are true but R is not the correct explanation of A.	Both are true, but R describes the list rather than explaining why education and forests are in it.

SECTION — B (Very Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 2 = 8

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
11	They lack State powers (1); The Centre has special powers in running them (1).	1+1
12	Units differ in history and circumstances (1); Some are granted special powers (1).	1+1
13	Seats reserved for SC, ST and OBC (1); At least one-third of positions for women (1).	1+1
14	The division of power is constitutionally protected (1); Changes need two-thirds of Parliament and half the States (1).	1+1

SECTION — C (Short Answer) — Answers — 4 × 3 = 12

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
15	Holding together federations have strong Centres (1); Federalism depends on spirit and practice too (1); Power sharing in India improved after 1990 (1).	1+1+1
16	English continues along with Hindi (1); Critics say it favours the English-speaking elite (1); But it prevented conflict with non-Hindi States (1).	1+1+1
17	Union List ensures uniform national policy (1); State List allows local variations (1); Concurrent List allows shared action (1).	1+1+1
	OR: New subjects like computer software arose (1); A uniform national policy may be needed (1); It reflects the more powerful Centre in a holding together federation (1).	1+1+1
18	Belgium has language-based community governments (1); India has linguistic States and official languages (1); Both aim to avoid conflict (1).	1+1+1
	OR: It has two or more levels (1); Powers are divided by lists (1); Courts are umpire and changes need State consent (1).	1+1+1

SECTION — D (Long Answer) — Answers — 2 × 5 = 10

Q.	Expected Answer / Value Points	Marks
19	(i) Union List (1). (ii) State List (1). (iii) Both the Union and state governments (1). (iv) The Union government (residuary subjects); it adds to the strength of the Centre, because new subjects like computer software come under the Union (2).	1+1+1+2
20	India: no national language, 22 Scheduled Languages, States with official languages (1); English continued along with Hindi (1); Linguistic States (1); Sri Lanka: Sinhala-only law and civil war (1); India avoided such conflict through flexibility (1).	1+1+1+1+1

	OR: Decentralisation brings decisions close to people (1); 1992 amendment gave constitutional status (1); Women's representation increased (1); Gram sabhas irregular (1); States not giving powers or resources (1).	1+1+1+1+1

Mistakes to avoid:

- Mixing up the lists: defence, foreign affairs, banking, currency = Union; police, trade, agriculture, irrigation = State; education, forests, marriage, adoption = Concurrent. Residuary subjects go to the Union.
- Writing that Hindi is the national language: India has no national language; Hindi is the official language and 22 languages are in the Eighth Schedule.
- Mixing up 'coming together' (USA, Switzerland, Australia: independent states unite) with 'holding together' (India, Spain, Belgium: a large country shares power).
- Saying all states were created on the basis of language: Nagaland, Uttarakhand and Jharkhand were created to recognise culture, ethnicity or geography; local governments got constitutional status in 1992.
- Saying a municipal corporation is headed by a chairperson: it is headed by the Mayor; a municipality is headed by a chairperson.
- Naming 'gram sabha' as the executive body: it is the general body of all voters in the village; the panchayat is its executive.
